

on the 18th April, 1862, by Her Majesty's ship "Flying Fish."

Agents or other persons having any just and legal demand, unliquidated, against the said proceeds, are required to transmit the particulars of any such demand to the Registrar of the High Court of Admiralty, in order that the same may be examined, taxed, and allowed by that Officer, and paid under the sanction of the Judge of the said Court.

Agents and all other persons holding powers of attorney, prize orders, assignments, or other instruments, by virtue of which they may be legally entitled to claim the share belonging to any captor, are requested, with as little delay as possible, to transmit the same, accompanied by the usual documents, to the Prize Branch of the Department of the "Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset-House."

Due notice will be given, by future advertisements in the London Gazette, of the date proposed for the commencement of distribution; and, at the same time, the amount of an individual's share in the respective classes will be announced.

New Forest.—Extraparochial Lands.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session for an Act to empower or require the Poor Law Commissioners for England and Wales, to ascertain and determine, and to set out and define, in such manner, and by such means as they shall think fit, the extent and boundaries of the extraparochial lands situate within the New Forest, in the county of Southampton, and of other extraparochial lands, called "Noman's Land," adjoining to or abutting upon the said forest, and situate, or reputed to be situate in the county of Wilts, and by any order or orders under their hands and seal, with the consent of the Commissioner of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues for the time being, in charge of the said forest, to constitute all, or any part or parts of, such extraparochial lands into one or more distinct township or townships, for the relief and maintenance of the poor, the county police or borough rate, the burial of the dead, the removal of nuisances, the registration of Parliamentary and municipal voters, and the registration of births, deaths, and marriages, and into one or more highway parish, or parishes, for the maintenance of the highways, and by such Act to declare that such township and townships, highway parish, and parishes, when so set out and defined, shall, by such name and names as the Poor Law Commissioners may by their order designate, be and become a township and townships, highway parish and parishes for the purposes aforesaid respectively; also with such consent as aforesaid, to annex any portion or portions of such extraparochial lands to any adjoining parish or place, separately maintaining its own poor or highways, for the purposes aforesaid respectively, anything in the Act of the 20th Vict., cap. 19, the Act of the 25th and 26th Vict., cap. 61, or in any other Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Also to empower the Poor Law Commissioners to ascertain and determine, set out and define, the boundaries of any existing parish or parishes which may adjoin or abut upon any of the said intended townships or township.

And the said intended Act will also make provision for the levying and recovery of rates for all or any of the purposes aforesaid, in respect of the said extraparochial lands, or any of them, whether the same shall be constituted into separate districts as aforesaid, or shall be annexed to any adjoining township or highway parish.

Dated 2nd of November, 1863.

By order of the Commissioner in charge of the said Forest.
