Whitehall, November 14, 1863.

THE following Address of Congratulation to the Queen, on the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, for Presentation, has accordingly been presented by him to Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously :

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

The Congratulatory Address of the Provincial Grand Lodge of Ancient Free and Accepted Masons of Victoria, Australasia, affiliated with the United Grand Lodge of England, on the marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales to the Princess Alexandra of Denmark.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the members of a society which dates its origin from the remotest times of antiquity, and whose loyalty to their Sovereign is one of the leading characteristics of the Order, desire to offer to your Majesty our assurances of loyalty to your Throne, regard for your august person, and deep solicitude for your happiness.

We therefore tender to your Majesty our congratulations upon the auspicious occasion of the marriage of your illustrious son, His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, to the Princess Alexandra of Denmark, an event which has diffused universal joy amongst the Freemasons of Victoria.

We are deeply grateful for the blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's beneficent reign, and for the high example you have afforded to your illustrious family in every relation of life. We ardently hope that their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales will enjoy every earthly felicity, and, whilst augmenting your domestic happiness, may, like your Majesty, endear themselves to your faithful and loving subjects.

It remains for us fervently to invoke the Great Architect of the Universe to bestow upon your Majesty and the Royal Family His choicest blessings; and may your Majesty continue to be supported, as heretofore, by the united affections of a free and loyal people.

Signed on behalf of the Provincial Grand Lodge of Victoria, in regular meeting assembled, this 15th day of June, 1863.

Fredk. C. Standish, Provincial Grand Master for the District of Victoria.

T. H. Lempriere, Provincial Grand Secretary.

Foreign Office, November 10, 1863.

The Queen has been graciously pleased to appoint the following Gentlemen, now Attachés at the undermentioned places, to be Third Secretaries in Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service :

The Honourable Power Henry Le Poer Trench, Munich.

Audley Charles Gosling, Esq., Stockholm.

Henry Nevill Dering, Esq., Berne.

24 and 25 Vic., cap. 109, sec. 18.

WHEREAS application has been made to me, the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the Justices in Quarter Sessions assembled of the county of Cornwall, to vary the time during which it is prohibited to take Salmon in the rivers Fowey and Camel and their tributaries, in the said county of Cornwall ;

I do hereby, by virtue of the provisions of the Act, 24 and 25 Vic., cap. 109, by Order under my hand, extend the time during which it is prohibited to take Salmon in the said rivers Fowey and Camel and their tributaries, in the county of Cornwall, from the first day of February to the first day of April following, both inclusive.

Given under my hand, at Whitehall, this 13th day of November, 1863.

(Signed) G. GREY.
