SATURDAY, JANUARY 9, 1864.

Frogmore Lodge, January 9, 1864.

YESTERDAY evening, at two minutes before nine o'clock, Her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales was happily delivered of a Prince.

His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, the Lord President of Her Majesty's Council, and the Lady of Her Royal Highness's Bedchamber were present.

Her Royal Highness and the infant Prince, God be praised, are doing perfectly well.

This happy event was made known by the firing of the Park and Tower Guns, and the Privy Council being assembled this day, at the Council Chamber, Whitehall, it was ordered that a Form of Thanksgiving for Her Royal Highness's safe delivery of a Prince be prepared by His Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury, to be used in all Churches and Chapels throughout England and Wales, and the town of Berwick-upon-Tweed, on Sunday, the 17th January, or the Sunday after the respective Ministers shall receive the same.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 9th day of January, 1864.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

IT is this day ordered by their Lordships, that His Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury do prepare a Form of Prayer and Thanksgiving to Almighty God, for the Princess of Wales's safe delivery of a Prince; and that such Form of Prayer and Thanksgiving be used in all churches and chapels in England and Wales, and in the town of Berwick-upon-Tweed, upon Sunday, the seventeenth day of January instant, or the Sunday after the respective Ministers of such churches and chapels shall receive the same :

And it is hereby further ordered, that Her Majesty's Printer do forthwith print a competent number of copies of the said Form of Prayer and Thanksgiving, that the same may be forthwith sent round, and read in the several churches and chapels of England and Wales, and of the town of Berwick-upon-Tweed.
