THE following Addresses of Congratulation to the Queen, on the occasion of Her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales having given Birth to a Prince, have been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, for Presentation, and have accordingly been presented by him to Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously :

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the city of York, hasten to express to your Majesty our feelings of joy and satisfaction on that auspicious event, which, by the blessing of Divine Providence, has added to your Majesty's domestic happiness and given to your Majesty's faithful people a further pledge and assurance of the perpetuity of your Majesty's illustrious House, and of the stability of the institutions under which we have the happiness to live, by the birth of an heir presumptive to the Throne of these realms.

We desire to offer to your Majesty on this interesting occasion our loyal and dutiful congratulations, and to testify to your Majesty our unfeigned attachment to the Monarchy of our country and our feelings of affectionate devotion to the person of our Sovereign.

We trust, that nurtured by the tender care and instructed by the high example of his illustrious parents, the Royal Prince will prove a blessing to the Nation, whose destinies he may hereafter be called upon to rule, and that he may be the source of unmingled happiness to your Majesty and his illustrious parents, and the object of pride and affection to the people of your Majesty's widely extended dominions.

It is our fervent prayer that a merciful providence may yet vouchsafe to your Majesty a long and prosperous reign, and to your Majesty's illustrious offspring continued health and happiness.

Given under our Common Seal, the 11th day of January, 1864.
