

February, 1864, and whose will was proved by Thomas Davenport, of Mersey Cottages, in the township of Pooltoncum-Seacombe aforesaid, the executor thereof, on the 8th day of March, 1864, in the District Registry attached to Her Majesty's Court of Probate at Chester, are hereby required to send in the particulars of such claims or demands to me, the undersigned, the Solicitor to the executor, on or before the 11th day of May next, after which time the executor will proceed to pay over the assets of the said testatrix to the parties entitled thereto, having regard only to the claims of which he shall then have had notice; and that he will not be liable for the assets so paid over, or any part thereof, to any person or persons of whose claims he shall not then have had notice.—Dated this 11th day of March, 1864.

ROBERT B. MOORE, Solicitor for the Executor,
No. 11, Duncan-street, Birkenhead.

To James Andrews, Robert Andrews, George Andrews, and Edward Andrews.

TAKE notice, that by an Order made at Chambers, by the Right Honorable the Master of the Rolls, in the undermentioned cause, on the 1st day of March, 1864, it is ordered that service of the summons issued in this cause, on the 20th day of February, 1864, and which by adjournment is returnable on the 21st day of March, 1864, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at the chambers of the Master of the Rolls, in the Rolls-yard, Chancery-lane, Middlesex, and of the order therein mentioned, dated the 12th day of January, 1864, by leaving copies of such summons and order, together with copies of the now stating order, at your last respective residences in East Peckham, in the county of Kent, should be deemed good service upon you; and further take notice, that such summons and the said order, dated the 12th of January, 1864, were, on the 11th day of March, 1864, served pursuant to the said order of the 1st March, 1864.—Dated this 11th day of March, 1864.

Yours, &c.,

FRANCIS KEARSEY, No. 32, Bucklersbury,
London, Plaintiffs' Solicitor.

Copy of the Summons above referred to.

In Chancery.—Between Thomas Waterhouse and another, plaintiffs, and Joseph Cheesman and others, defendants.

LET all parties concerned attend at my chambers in the Rolls-yard, Chancery-lane, Middlesex, on Friday, the 26th day of February, at half-past eleven of the clock in the forenoon, on the hearing of an application on the part of the plaintiffs, to proceed with the accounts and enquiries directed to be taken and made by the Order made in this cause, bearing date the 12th day of January, 1864.—Dated this 20th day of February, 1864.

JOHN ROMILLY, Master of the Rolls.

This Summons was taken out by Francis Kearsay, of No. 32, Bucklersbury, in the city of London, Solicitor for the applicants.

To the defendants,

Adjourned to Monday, the 21st March, 1864, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon.

In Chancery.

In the Matter of the Act intituled "An Act to facilitate Leases and Sales of Settled Estates;" and in the Matter of an Act to amend and extend the Settled Estates Act of 1856; and in the Matter of the following freehold estate of James Thomas Bedborough, late of New Windsor, in the county of Berks, Gentleman, deceased, namely, all those two messuages or tenements, with the gardens and three privies at the rear thereof, situate and being in Grove-place, in the parish and borough of New Windsor, in the county of Berks, and numbered respectively 1 and 2 in such place, with the appurtenances, which said messuage numbered 1, in Grove-place, is now in the occupation of James Daws, and which said messuage numbered 2 in the same place is now untenanted, together with the right of foot and carriage way from Spital-road, in, through, and over the road in front of Grove-place aforesaid, which said messuages or tenements and premises are part of a freehold estate, called Grove-place, in the said parish and borough of New Windsor, in the said county of Berks.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Petition in the above-mentioned matters was, on the 27th day of February, 1864, presented to the Master of the Rolls, by George Bedborough, of Lawrence-villa, New Windsor, in the county of Berks, Gentleman, and James Thomas Bedborough, an infant, under the age of twenty-one years, by John Udall, of No. 23, Lawrence-lane, in the city of London, Manchester Agent, his next friend, for the purpose of obtaining authority from the Court of Chancery to grant a repairing lease of the above-mentioned two messuages and premises to John Deacon and the Honourable Alexander Leslie Melville, commonly called Viscount Kirkaldie, for the term of fifty-two years, from the 25th day of March, 1864. And notice is hereby given, that the petitioners may be served with any Order of the Court, or notice relating to the subject of the said petition, at the office of their Solicitors, Messrs. Depree and Austen, situate at No. 23, Lawrence-lane, Cheapside, in the city of London.

In Chancery.

In the Matter of an Act of Parliament made and passed in the session holden in the 19th and 20th years of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to facilitate Leases and Sales of Settled Estates;" and in the Matter of a freehold farm, lands, and hereditaments, known as Denmead Farm, containing 133 acres, 2 roods, and 4 poles, or thereabouts, devised by the will of John Fidlin, deceased, situate in the parish of Hambledon, in the county of Southampton, and in the occupation of Caroline Byerby, under a lease dated the 12th day of December, 1860; and in the Matter of a freehold messuage, garden, and paddock, known as the Brehouse, containing 1 acre and 37 poles, or thereabouts, devised by the will of the said John Fidlin, deceased, situate at Barn Green, in the said parish of Hambledon, in the said county of Southampton, now in the occupation of George Pink, as a yearly tenant; and also in the Matter of a freehold dwelling-house, garden, and meadow, known as Closewood House, containing 6 acres, 2 roods, and 23 poles, or thereabouts, devised by the said will of the said John Fidlin, deceased, situate in the parish of Hambledon, in the said county of Southampton, at present unoccupied; and also in the Matter of another freehold farm, lands, and hereditaments, part of a farm known as Closewood, containing 54 acres, 3 roods, 35 poles, or thereabouts, devised by the said will of the said John Fidlin, deceased, situate in the said parish of Hambledon, in the said county of Southampton, in the occupation of Joseph West, as a yearly tenant; and also in the Matter of another freehold piece of land, known as the Broad Halfpenny Allotment, containing 3 acres, or thereabouts, devised by the said will of the said John Fidlin, deceased, situate in the said parish of Hambledon, in the said county of Southampton, in the occupation of Richard Grest, as a yearly tenant; and also in the Matter of a leasehold farm, lands, and hereditaments, being part of the said farm known as Closewood, containing 73 acres, 2 roods, and 34 poles, or thereabouts, devised by the will of the said John Fidlin, deceased, situate in the said parish of Hambledon, in the said county of Southampton, in the occupation of Joseph West, aforesaid, which said last-mentioned lands are held on lease from the Lord Bishop of Winchester, for the lives of three persons and the survivor of them; and also in the Matter of other leasehold lands and hereditaments, known as Piper's Hill Coppice, containing 27 acres, 3 roods, and 34 poles, or thereabouts, devised by the will of the said John Fidlin, deceased, situate in the said parish of Hambledon, in the said county of Southampton, in the occupation of the said Joseph West, and which said last-mentioned lands are held on lease from the Lord Bishop of Winchester for the term of twenty-one years, from Midsummer 1856. And

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Petition in the above-mentioned matter was, on the 15th day of February, 1864, presented to the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain by Harriett Turner, of Milton, in the county of Southampton, Widow; Charles Bovill Smith, of Wickham, in the said county of Southampton, Yeoman; and Ellen, his Wife; George Edward Gittens, of Port-ua, in the said county of Southampton, Gentleman; and Harriett, his Wife; praying that the said freehold leasehold for lives, and leasehold for years hereditaments, at Hambledon aforesaid, might be sold under the Order of this Court, and that the petitioners, Charles Bovill Smith and George Edward Gittens might be directed to convey the same to the purchasers or purchaser thereof; and that the monies to be received on the sale of the said freehold and leasehold hereditaments might be paid into the Bank, to the account of the Accountant-General of this Court, to the credit of ex parte the petitioners, distinguishing the several amounts arising from the sale of the said freehold from the sale of the leaseholds for lives, and from the sale of the said leaseholds for years, and that the costs and expenses of the petitioners and all other parties of and incident to the said application and of and to the aforesaid sale might be taxed as between solicitor and client, and that the amount of such taxed costs and expenses might be paid out of the monies to arise from the sale of the said freehold and leasehold hereditaments respectively, such payments to be in proportion to the respective amounts of the purchase-money of the said freehold and leasehold hereditaments respectively, and that after such payment as aforesaid one moiety of the moneys arising from the sale of the said freehold hereditaments might be carried over to a separate account to be entitled "The Share of Harriett Turner, Charles Bovill Smith and Ellen his Wife, and George Edward Gittens and Harriett his Wife in the residuary freehold estate of the testator John Fidlin," and one moiety of the monies arising from the sale of the said leasehold for lives hereditaments
