

printed papers, and other things chargeable with postage, which shall be redirected and again forwarded by the post, so far as the same shall be applicable thereto, anything in any such Warrants heretofore made, and bearing date as in this clause first-mentioned, to the contrary, notwithstanding.

3. The Postmaster General may wholly remit the redirected rates of postage, now payable by law, on all letters, packets, printed papers, or other things chargeable with postage, which shall be redirected by an Officer of the Post Office, and shall be again forwarded by the post to the same persons to whom, and within the limits of the same free delivery, within which such letters, packets, printed papers, or other things shall have been originally addressed, both such places being within the United Kingdom.

4. Subject to the directions hereinbefore in the next preceding clause contained, on all letters and packets of every description, printed papers, or other things chargeable with postage, which shall be redirected, either by an Officer of the Post Office or by any other person, and again forwarded by the post within the United Kingdom, there shall be charged for the postage of every such letter and packet, printed paper, or other thing chargeable with postage, from the place at which the same shall be redirected to the place of ultimate delivery, in addition to all other rates of postage payable thereon, such a new and distinct rate of postage as any such letter or packet, printed paper, or other thing chargeable with postage would have been liable to by law if it had been originally posted at the place where it was redirected, and there properly paid by stamps or in money when posted.

5. For the purposes of this Warrant the whole of the London Postal District shall be deemed and considered to be in one and the same free delivery.

6. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to annul, prejudice, or effect any of the exemptions or privileges granted by the said recited Act, nor to affect any letters which may now be forwarded to any other place from the place to which they were originally addressed without being charged with more than the postage originally payable for such letters, nor to annul, prejudice, or affect any privileges under which printed newspapers or other printed papers are allowed to pass by the post free of postage.

7. The several terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said recited Act.

8. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any two of them, may, by Warrant under their hands, at any time hereafter alter or repeal any of the regulations hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other regulations in lieu thereof.

9. This Warrant shall come into operation on the eleventh day of April, 1864.

Whitehall, Treasury Chambers, the first day of April, 1864.

NAVAL PRIZE MONEY.

Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset-House, April 1, 1864.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons interested therein, that preparations are now being made for the intended distribution of the tonnage bounty of a slaver, name unknown, captured on the 27th August, 1862, by Her Majesty's ship Zebra.

Agents or other persons having any just and legal demand, unliquidated, against the said proceeds, are required to transmit the particulars of any such demand to the Registrar of the High Court of Admiralty, in order that the same may be examined, taxed, and allowed by that Officer, and paid under the sanction of the Judge of the said Court.

Agents and all other persons holding powers of attorney, prize orders, assignments, or other instruments, by virtue of which they may be legally entitled to claim the share belonging to any captor, are requested, with as little delay as possible, to transmit the same, accompanied by the usual documents, to the Prize Branch of the Department of the "Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset-House."

Due notice will be given, by future advertisements in the London Gazette, of the date proposed for the commencement of distribution; and, at the same time, the amount of an individual's share in the respective classes will be announced.
