

don Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of York.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 7th day of April, 1864.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Town Council of the borough of NEATH, in the county of GLAMORGAN, have, under the provisions of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make further provision for the burial of the dead in England, beyond the limits of the metropolis," presented a petition to Her Majesty in Council, stating that an Order in Council has been issued directing that burials be discontinued in the church, and with certain exceptions, in the churchyard of the parish of Neath, within the said borough; and representing that there is difficulty and inconvenience in providing the requisite places of burial for the inhabitants of the said parish of Neath, under the powers and provisions of the Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis," and praying that powers may be vested in the said Town Council for providing a requisite place of burial, under the provisions of the various Acts of Parliament relating to burials, for the inhabitants of the said parish of Neath; but praying that no part of the hamlet of Blaenhodden, in the parish of Cadoxton-juxta-Neath, a portion of which hamlet is situate within the borough of Neath, shall be assessed towards defraying the expenses of providing a place of burial for the said parish of Neath, as the inhabitants of that portion of the said hamlet which is situate within the borough of Neath, are already provided with sufficient burial-ground;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such petition, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the twenty-third of May next:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be published in the London Gazette, and in one of the newspapers usually circulating in the borough of NEATH, one month at least before the said twenty-third day of May.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 7th day of April, 1864.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Improvement Commissioners for the town of Burton-upon-Trent, in the county of Stafford, have, under the provisions of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the 20th and 21st years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to Amend the Burial Acts," presented a petition to Her Majesty in Council, stating that the district of the said Improvement Commissioners is co-extensive with the district for which it is proposed to provide a burial-ground, that no Burial Board has been appointed for the said District, and that an Order in Council has been made for closing the burial-grounds within the said district, subject to the qualifications therein set forth, and praying that Her Majesty would be pleased to order that the said Improvement Commissioners shall be the Burial Board for the district of such Commissioners in the said town of Burton-upon-Trent;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such petition, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the twenty-third day of May next.

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be published in the London Gazette, and in one of the newspapers usually circulating in the district of the Improvement Commissioners aforesaid, one month at least before the said twenty-third day of May next.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 7th day of April, 1864.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England, beyond the limits of the metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis;" it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-ground or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require), that after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order; and so from time to time, as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered; provided also that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous
