

AT the Court at Windsor, the 7th day of April, 1864.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit ;

And whereas certain Orders in Council have been made, directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards and burial-ground hereinafter mentioned, from the time specified in such Orders respectively ; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards and burial ground be postponed ;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards and burial-ground be postponed as follows ; viz :

In the churchyard of CUMBERWORTH, from the first of April to the first of October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

In the churchyard of MIDDLEWICH, from the first of January to the sixteenth of September, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

In the burial-ground of the Independent Chapel, CHIPPING ONGAR, from the thirtieth of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, to the thirtieth of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

And whereas by an Order in Council of the first of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, it was directed that burials should be discontinued in the church and churchyard of Chadkirk ; and whereas it seems fit that the said Order be varied : now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to direct that an exception be made to the operation of such Order, by interments being permitted in earthen graves which are free from water and coffins to the depth of five feet, and in vaults and walled graves, each coffin buried in which shall be entombed by masonry or brickwork, properly cemented.

And whereas by an Order in Council of the eighteenth of February, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, it was directed that burials should be discontinued, from the first of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, in the burial-ground of the Weld Chapel, Southgate, in the parish of Edmonton ; and whereas it seems fit that the said Order be varied : now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her

No. 22843.

F

Privy Council, is pleased to direct that the said Order be varied as follows, viz :

That burials be discontinued in the burial-ground of Christ Church, SOUTHGATE, MIDDLESEX, formerly called Weld Chapel, except in now existing family vaults and graves, and in all those parts of the ground in which no interments have hitherto taken place, and that burials therein be conducted in accordance with the fifth, sixth, seventh, and eighth of the Official Regulations for New Burial-grounds.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 7th day of April, 1864.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in any of the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that interments in the same should be discontinued, with the following modifications ; viz :

EAST WICKHAM.—Forthwith in the church, and also that the trench on the south side of the church be made of a sufficient depth, and be properly cemented so as to guard the wall of the church from dampness.

ELLESMERE.—In the church and churchyard wholly on the thirty-first of December next.

WEST DERBY, LIVERPOOL.—Forthwith in the Roman Catholic Chapel of St. Oswald, Old Swan, and also in the burial ground, except in graves never before buried in, and except in family vaults or graves to be used only for the burial of the widowers, widows, parents, or children of those already buried therein ; also that a ton of charcoal be mixed with the soil covering the common graves.

TOWYN.—Forthwith in that portion of the churchyard which is more south than the church, except for the burial of the widowers, widows, or parents of those already buried therein ; and on the first of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, in ABERDOVEY churchyard, in the same parish, except in existing vaults or walled graves which are free from water, and in which each coffin shall be embedded in charcoal, and separately enclosed by masonry or brickwork, properly cemented.

PENNAL.—In the churchyard on the thirty-first of December next, except for the burial of the widowers, widows, and parents of those already buried therein.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such represen-
