LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1858.

NOTICE OF ADOPTION OF ACT BY BRIGG DISTRICT, LINCOLNSHIRE.

WHEREAS the Local Government Act, 1858, was duly adopted on the 29th day of February, 1864, by the District of Brigg, in the county of Lincoln, within the boundaries of that district as settled for the purposes of the hereinbefore recited Act; and notice of such adoption has been duly given, in writing, to me, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, as required by such Act; and whereas it has now been duly certified to me that a copy of such notice has been duly advertized, and that copies have also been affixed to the principal doors of each church and chapel in such district to which notices are usually affixed, and the period fixed by the said Act for appeal has now expired, and no such appeal has been made:

Now, therefore, I, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, do hereby give notice, that the Local Government Act, 1858, has been adopted within the said district of Brigg, in the county of Lincoln, and that although the said district contains a population of less than 3,000 by the last census, I do hereby approve, by reason of special circumstances, of the adoption of the said Act by such district, and do hereby order that such Act shall, at the expiration of two months from the date of the passing of the aforesaid resolution, have the force of law within such district.

Given under my hand this 27th day of April, 1864.

(Signed) G. Grey.

Home Office, Whitehall.
