SYDNEY,
Lord Chamberlain.

Marlborough House, May 19, 1864.

THE following Addresses of Congratulation to the Prince and Princess of Wales on the occasion of Her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales having given birth to a Prince, have been transmitted to Lieutenant-General Knollys, Comptroller and Treasurer of His Royal Highness' Household, to be laid before Their Royal Highnesses.

To Their Royal Highnesses the PRINCE and PRINCESS of WALES.

May it please your Royal Highnesses.

WE, Her Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the inhabitants of the county of Berks, in County Meeting assembled, approach your Royal Highnesses with the tender of our sincere congratulations, on the birth of a Prince, the child of your affection, the future Heir to these Realms; we venture to assure you that we share in the universal joy which such an event is calculated to diffuse among all Her Majesty's subjects.

After the hearty demonstrations of affectionate loyalty which attended the celebration of your Royal Highnesses' nuptials, we feel confident that no doubt can rest in your Royal minds that the satisfaction with which your union is regarded, is as deep and ardent as the attachment which the British nation feels towards the person and house of their beloved Sovereign.

We presume to invoke the blessings of Providence upon your Royal Highnesses and the Infant Prince, and we pray that the Divine favour may be vouchsafed in abundant measure on your Royal Highnesses' persons and household.

Signed on behalf of the Meeting at Reading, in the county of Berks, the twentieth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.
