

is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that a letter from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, stating it to be his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at Levees, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court, until half-past one o'clock.

SYDNEY,
Lord Chamberlain.

Whitehall, May 25, 1864.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto Henry Cory Eade, of St. John's College, in the University of Cambridge, Clerk, Master of Arts, Secretary to the Irish Church Missions, only son of Matthew Henry Eade, of Redruth, in the county of Cornwall, Esquire, by Elizabeth Wymonde, his wife, daughter of Nicholas Cory, late of St. Mawes, in the said county of Cornwall, deceased, and sister and co-heir of Nicholas Cory, late of Plymouth, in the county of Devon, Esquire, a Rear-Admiral in the Royal Navy, also deceased, Her Royal license and authority that he and his issue may, in compliance with a proviso contained in the last will and testament of his maternal uncle, the said Rear-Admiral Nicholas Cory, take, use, and bear the surname of Cory only, and in substitution for that of Eade, and that he and they may bear the arms of Cory quarterly with his and their own family arms; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the College of Arms, otherwise Her Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And to command that the said Royal concession and declaration be registered in the said College of Arms.

VICTORIA, R.

WHEREAS a certain Order in Council was made on the seventh day of April, in the present year, under the provisions of a Statute made at the Parliament, holden in the third and fourth years of the reign of Our late Royal Uncle King William the Fourth, entitled "An Act for the appointment of convenient places for the holding of Assizes in England and Wales." And whereas We have been graciously pleased by and with the advice and consent of Our Most Honourable Privy Council by an Order in Council, bearing date the fourth day of May instant, to revoke and make void the said Order in Council made on the seventh day of April, and to give other directions in lieu thereof. And whereas by the said Act of Parliament, it was declared and enacted that His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Most Honourable Privy Council, should have power from time to time to order and direct at what place or places, in any county in England or Wales, the assizes and sessions under the Commissions of Gaol Delivery, and other commissions for the dispatch of civil and criminal business, should be holden, and to order and direct such assizes and sessions for the dispatch of criminal and civil business to be holden at more than one place in the same county on the same circuit, and to order and direct the assizes and sessions under such commissions for the dispatch of criminal business, to be holden for the whole county at one place, and for the dispatch of civil business at one or more place or places in such county on the same circuit. And further to order and direct any special commissions of oyer and terminer and gaol delivery to be holden at any one or more places in any such county. And it was further enacted that in case His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Most Honourable Privy Council, should think fit to order and direct that the assizes, or any such special commissions should be holden at more than one place in any one county it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, to divide any such county for the purposes of the said Act, and to make rules and regulations touching the venue in all cases civil and criminal then pending or thereafter to be pending and to be tried within any division of such county so to be made as aforesaid, and touching the liability and attendance of jurors, whether grand jurors, special jurors, or common jurors, at the assizes and sessions as aforesaid, or at any sessions under any special commissions to be holden within any such division; and touching the use of any house of correction or prison as a common gaol, and the government and keeping thereof; and touching the alterations of any commissions, writs, precepts, or other proceedings whatsoever for carrying into effect the purposes of the said Act: and touching any other matters that might be requisite for carrying into effect the purposes of the said Act; and all such rules and regulations should be of the like force and effect as if the same had been made by the authority of Parliament, and should be notified in the London Gazette, or in such other manner as His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Most Honourable Privy Council, should think fit to direct. And it was further enacted that His Majesty should have power from time to time, for the purpose of carrying the said Act into effect, to order and direct, that the Court of Common Pleas, at Lancaster, should be holden at any one or more places in the county palatine of Lancaster as His Majesty should think fit, and to divide the said county
