

should be named 'The District Chapelry of Criggion.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Renn Dickson, Bishop of the said diocese of Hereford (testified as aforesaid), we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Criggion, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Alberbury, situate partly in the county of Salop and partly in the county of Montgomery, and wholly in the diocese of Hereford, which is comprised within the limits of the township and ancient chapelry of Criggion, in the said county of Montgomery."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Hereford.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fourteenth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church situate at Great Wollaston, in the parish of Alberbury, which said parish is situate partly in the county of Salop, and partly in the county of Montgomery, and wholly in the diocese of Hereford.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient, that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church situate at Great Wollaston aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Renn Dickson, Bishop of the said diocese of Hereford (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those portions of the said parish of Alberbury, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Great Wollaston.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Renn Dickson, Bishop of the said diocese of Hereford (testified as aforesaid), we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings, should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Great Wollaston, being:—

"All those portions of the parish of Alberbury, situate partly in the county of Salop, and partly in the county of Montgomery, and wholly in the diocese of Hereford, which constitute the ancient chapelry of Wollaston, and are comprised within the limits of the several townships of Wollaston, Bulthy, Winnington, and Trefnant, in the said county of Salop, and within the limits of the townships of Middletown and Uppington, in the said county of Montgomery."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Hereford.
