

sentation, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church situate at Cressage, in the parish of Cound, in the county of Salop, and in the diocese of Lichfield.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church situate at Cressage aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Cound, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Cressage.'

"And, with the like consent of the said John, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield (testified as aforesaid), we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Cressage, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Cound, in the county of Salop, and in the diocese of Lichfield, which is comprised within and is co-extensive with the limits of the ancient chapelry of Cressage."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lichfield.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-first day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four; have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in certain parishes and districts.

"We humbly recommend and propose that there shall be paid by us, out of the common fund in the said Acts mentioned, in each and every year, to the incumbent for the time being of each of the benefices or districts described in the first schedule hereunto annexed, the annual sum set opposite to the name of each such benefice or district in the last column of the same schedule, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November, in each year: Provided always, that in consideration of the grant so recommended to be made by us to the benefice of Long Eaton, in the county of Derby and in the diocese of Lichfield, the annual sum or stipend of one hundred pounds, which, under the provisions of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the seventeenth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, was made payable by us to the vicar of the then consolidated benefice of Sawley with the chapelry of Long Eaton, in the said county of Derby and diocese of Lichfield, subject to the employment of a duly licensed curate by such vicar, shall, with the consent of the Reverend Samuel Hey, clerk, the present vicar or incumbent of the said vicarage of Sawley, from which the said chapelry of Long Eaton has, since the passing of such last-mentioned Order of your Majesty in Council, become separated, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, absolutely cease and determine.

"And we further recommend and propose that the lands and premises and other hereditaments particularly described in the second and three following schedules hereunto annexed respectively, with their appurtenances, now vested in us, and all our estate and interest therein, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the several spiritual persons herein-after mentioned respectively, that is to say: that the messuages, lands, hereditaments, and premises, described in the first part of the second schedule hereunto annexed, situate at Holloway,
