THE following Addresses have been Presented to the King, which His Majesty received very Graciously.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Master, Wardens, and Assistants of the Company of Stationers, London, in Behalf of Themselves, and the rest of their Society.

Most Dread Sovereign!

Amongst the many Thousands of Your Majesties happy Subjects, whose bounden Duty obliges them with all Cheerfulness and the highest Gratitude, to acknowledge the Blessings they receive under Your Glorious Government, Vouchsafe to pardon our honest Ambition to throw our Selves down at Your Sacred Feet, in a just Sense of our Share in those Ununiversal Ben fits.

Your Majesties late Gracious Declaration for preserving the Rights, Properties and Liberties, both Sacred and Civil, of all Your Subjects, is so Generous a Discovery of the Greatness of Your Royal Heart, and the Candor of Your Princely Intentions, that we deserve not to partake of the happy Effects of it, if we should dare to withhold our humble Thanks for it: We therefore, with all Prostration of Mind, return to Your Sacred Majesty our steady Resolutions of unalterable Loyalty, and firm Obedience; to manifest which we shall endeavor, in our Station, by the best Methods we can, to hinder all the ill Effects of the Pests, that may any way tend either to the Disturbance of Your Majesties Government, or Diminution of Your Glory; Which that it may receive the greatest Enlargements Mortality is capable of, we heartily pray that all Your great and well design'd Resolutions may ever be prosperous. As for our parts, we give Your Majesty a full Assurance, that we will make it our chief Endeavor, on all Occasions, to obey Your Commands. May Your Majesties Reign be Long and Auspicious, Exceeding all, even the most Fortunate of Your Illustrious Ancestors.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common-Council of the Burgh of Kings-Lynn in Norfolk.

GREAT SIR!

THE known Principles of the Church of England being such, as oblige every Member thereof with their Lives and Fortunes, to defend and maintain Your Majesty, Your Royal Prerogative, together with all other Rights belonging to Your Majesties Imperial Crown, makes us at this time humbly to beg of Your Majesty to receive This our further Attestation, Not in the least doubting of the peaceable Enjoyment of our Religion under Your Majesties Most Sacred Protection. Returning our most hearty and humble Thanks for Your Majesties late repeated Assurance thereof expressed in Your Majesties late Gracious Declaration. In Testimony whereof, We have Unanimously caused our Common Seal to be hereunto Affixed.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Assistants and Common-Council of Your Majesties Ancient Borough of Colchester.

Dread Sovereign!

Whereas You were most Graciously pleased, in Your late Declaration, to declare (as formerly) That Your Resolutions are, and that Your Majesty will always protect and maintain all Your Subjects of the Church of England, in the free Exercise of their Religion, (as now by Law established,) and in the full and quiet Enjoyment of their Possessions, without any Molestation or Disturbance whatsoever.

We Your Majesties Most Dutiful and Obedient Subjects, (Members of that Church,) Do with all Humility, Prostrating our selves at Your Majesties Feet, (as in Duty bound,) Not only return Your Majesty our most humble and hearty Thanks for those

Your Most Princely Resolutions, But also do unweariedly assure Your Majesty, That we will at all Times be ready (and if occasion require) hazard our Lives and Fortunes in Defense of Your Majesties Sacred Person and Government; And that Your Majesty may have a long, prosperous and peaceable Reign over us here, and an Eternal Crown of Glory hereafter, shall ever be the Prayers of Your most Obedient and Dutiful Subjects.

Most Royal SIR!

YOU have been pleased so freely and admirably to manifest Your Love to Your Faithful Subjects, by Your late Most Noble Declaration of Liberty in the Worship of God, and in our Callings, beyond any of Your Ancestors, That it would be the greatest Ingratitude Imaginable, if from our Souls and Hearts we do not sincerely acknowledge it: We therefore, in all profitable Humility, do render Your Majesty our most hearty Thanks and Service in all the Duties of Loving, Faithful, and Obedient Subjects, for the Preservation of Your Royal Person and Dignity, who hath most Graciously given so much Ease to an afflicted People after so long and grievous Sufferings, and also a new Life to the Trade and Industry of the Nation; And we hope that none of Your Majesties Sincere Loyal Subjects will shew Dislike in Words or Behaviour of this Your Majesties most deliberate and wise Dispensation, and for our parts, whose Names are hereunto Subscribed, Multitudes of our Neighbours consenting with us, we do joyfully embrace Your Majesties Favour and Gracious Promises made unto us.

To King JAMES the Second,

The humble Congratulation of the King's peaceable Subjects, Inhabitants of the City of Bristol, called Quakers.

May it please the King,

WE having Early participated of the King's Grace and Favour, by delivering many of us from a tedious Imprisonment, and other Sufferings for Conscience Sake, waited on the King at his last being in this City, to pay our humble Acknowledgments for the same; missing our Opportunity then, and having renewed Instances of the King's Bounty, by His Gracious Declaration for Liberty of Conscience, we find our selves under a fresh Obligation to express our Gratitude for the Benefits we receive thereby, and also to signify the Joy of our Hearts; to see Thee, O King, this second time in the enjoyment of Health amongst us. We pray God continue long that Mercy to Thee, Thy Royal Comfort and Family; And our Desires and Prayers are, That God, who is the Rewarder of all good Actions, would bless this to Thee, and Thy Posterity, and establish thy Throne in Peace and Righteousness.

Signed on Behalf of our Selves, and others of our Friends.
