The Bankruptcy Act, 1861.

In the County Court of Kent, holden at Tonbridge, 14th July, 1864.

In the Matter of Edward Tooth, late of Tonbridge, in the county of Kent, Boot and Shoemaker, a Bankrupt, now deceased.

MEMORANDUM.—Whereas by an affidavit made in the matter of this bankruptcy, on the 9th day of June, 1864, and filed with the proceedings, it appeared that the said bankrupt had died since the date of the adjudication against him; and whereas upon application made on the said 9th day of June, 1864, on behalf of the representatives of the said deceased bankrupt, the Court, in pursuance of the 116th section of the Bankruptcy Act, 1861, directed that a public sitting should be appointed for passing the Last Examination of the said bankrupt, and also for making application for his Order of Discharge; and whereas this day was appointed for the said bankrupt to pass his Last Examination, and also to make application for his Order of Discharge, under the Bankruptcy Act, 1861) whereof, and of the purport whereof, the notice required in that behalf was duly given). Now, upon reading the statement of accounts filed with the proceedings, verified by the certificate of the Official Assignee, to be, in his opinion, the only account that could, in consequence of the bankrupt's death, be furnished of the said bankrupt's dealings and transactions; and upon reading and reference being had to the 116th section of the Bankrupt Law Consolidation Act, 1849, and also upon hearing what was alleged by Mr. Joseph Rogers, Attorney for the representatives of the said bankrupt, and the Creditors' Assignee consenting to the Last Examination of the said bankrupt being taken as passed, I do order and direct that the Last Examination of the bankrupt shall be deemed and taken to have been passed; and upon the like application and consent, and upon examination of proceedings under the said petition, and having regard to the manner and circumstances in and under which the debts of the said bankrupt have been contracted, I do adjudge that the said bankrupt is entitled to an Order of Discharge, which is hereby allowed and granted accordingly.

Given under my hand and the Seal of the said Court,
this 14th day of July, in the year of our Lord 1864,
JAMES ESPINASSE, Judge.
