“And we further recommend and propose, that the said sum of nine hundred pounds shall be paid to us, and that the receipt of our joint Treasurers for the time being, endorsed on the said mortgage deed, shall be a good and sufficient discharge to the said Governors and their successors for the same, who shall not be bound or required to see to the application thereof; and that upon the receipt of the said sum of nine hundred pounds, the whole or any part or parts thereof shall be applied by us at such times and in such manner as shall appear to us to be expedient, towards effecting the said additions and improvements in the Episcopal house of residence aforesaid.

“And we further recommend and propose, that so soon as such additions and improvements shall have been completed, the Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol for the time being shall, at his personal charge and expense, insure and keep insured the said Episcopal house of residence from loss or damage by fire, in one of the public offices of assurance in London or Westminster, to be approved by us, in a sum of not less than seven thousand pounds, and that such Bishop shall, within fourteen days after any premium for such insurance shall have become due and payable, deliver to us the receipt for the same; and that in case of any loss or damage by fire to the said house, any and every sum of money receivable under such insurance shall become and be payable and be paid to and deposited with us, in trust to be applied, and the same, together with any interest and accumulations thereof, shall be applied by us towards the rebuilding or repairing and reinstating of the said house, or of any part thereof which may have so suffered loss or damage, in such manner as shall be determined on by us, with the concurrence of the Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol for the time being.

“And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the herein-named Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the respective Registrars of the two several registries of the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, at Bristol and Gloucester.
