

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 1864.

Foreign Office, August 31, 1864.

THE Queen has been graciously pleased to appoint Robert Bunch, Esq., lately Her Majesty's Consul at Charleston, to be Her Majesty's Consul at Rio de Janeiro.

Foreign Office, September 12, 1864.

The Queen has been pleased to approve of Mr. George J. Abbot as Consul at Sheffield and Bradford for the United States of America.

Whitehall, August 31, 1864.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto Thomas Hammer Fletcher, of Nerquis Hall, in the parish of Nerquis, in the county of Flint, Esquire, late a Captain of the Military Train, Her Royal license and authority that he may, in compliance with a clause contained in the last will and testament of his maternal great uncle Maurice Wynne, Rector of Bangor and Overton, in the said county of Flint, Doctor of Laws, deceased, take and henceforth use the surname of Wynne instead of that of Fletcher, and also bear the arms of Wynne; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the College of Arms, otherwise Her Majesty's Royal license and permission to be void and of none effect:

And to command that the said Royal concession and declaration be registered in Her Majesty's said College of Arms.

MEMORANDUM.

The 7th and 14th Gloucestershire Rifle Volunteer Corps having been struck off the records of the War Office will henceforth cease to hold any number or designation in the Volunteer Force of the county of Gloucester.

Whitehall, July 25, 1864.

The Right Honourable Sir William Erie, Knt., Lord Chief Justice of Her Majesty's Court of Common Pleas, at Westminster, has appointed Thomas Woodcock, of Haslingden, in the county of Lancaster, Gentleman, to be one of the Perpetual Commissioners for taking the acknowledgments of deeds to be executed by married women, under the Act passed for the abolition of fines and recoveries, and for the substitution of more simple modes of assurance, in and for the county of Lancaster.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 41.)—MEDITERRANEAN—LIGHTS IN THE ARCHIPELAGO.

THE Turkish Government has given notice, that on and after the 15th day of August, 1864, the three following lights would be exhibited at the northern entrance to the Gulf of Kos, in the south-eastern part of the Archipelago.

Kalolimno Islet.

A revolving white light, attaining its greatest brilliancy once in every minute, at 394 feet within the east extreme of Kalolimno island. The eclipses are total. The light is elevated 180 feet above the level of the sea, and visible in clear weather at 10 miles. Its position is given as lat. 37° 3½' N., long. 27° 7' 27" East of Greenwich.

Hussein Point.

A fixed green light at 180 feet within the extremity of Hussein point, in front of, and distant about a mile from, the ruins of the old light tower. It is elevated 82 feet, and visible at 5 miles. Position, lat. $36^{\circ} 57\frac{1}{2}'$ N., long. $27^{\circ} 17\frac{1}{4}'$ East of Greenwich.

Kos Island.

A fixed red light, at 492 feet within the apparent extremity of Koum point, the north extreme of Kos Island, and $1\frac{1}{2}$ miles N. $\frac{1}{4}$ W. from the village of Kos or Stankos. The light is elevated 59 feet, and visible at 5 miles. Position, lat. $36^{\circ} 55'$ N., long. $27^{\circ} 18' 20''$ East of Greenwich.

By command of their Lordships,
Geo. Henry Richards, Hydrographer.
Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
31st August, 1864.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—Mediterranean Archipelago, No. 2836a; Gulf of Mandelýah, No. 1546; Lero and Kalolimno Islands, No. 1666; the Island of Kos, No. 1898; and Gulf of Kos, No. 1604.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 42.)—IRELAND—SOUTH COAST.

Cork Harbour—Change of Light on Roche Point.

THE Port of Dublin Corporation has given notice, that the fixed light now exhibited from the lantern of the light tower on Roche Point, the east point of entrance of Cork Harbour, will, on and after the evening of the 1st December, 1864, be changed to a revolving red light, showing its greatest brilliancy once in every minute.

Additional Light to mark position of Daunts Rock.

Also, that on and after the evening of the 1st October, 1864, a fixed white light will be shown from the base of the same light tower on Roche Point, to mark the position of Daunts Rock.

The light will be visible between the bearings of N.E. by E. and N.E. $\frac{1}{4}$ N., or between Roberts Head and a distance of half a mile to the eastward of Daunts Rock. Mariners are therefore cautioned, when approaching Cork Harbour at night, to keep eastward of the limits of the fixed white light until they have passed the rock.

FOG BELL.—Also, that the Fog Bell lately erected at Roche Point will in future be sounded eight times in a minute during thick or foggy weather.

[The bearings are magnetic. Variation $25\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$ West in 1864.]

By command of their Lordships,
Geo. Henry Richards, Hydrographer.
Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
5th September, 1864.

This Notice will affect the following Admiralty Charts:—Ireland, West Coast, No. 1824b; Ireland, S.W. Coast, Sheet 13; Cork Harbour, No. 1765; and Cork Outer Harbour, No. 1777. Also, British Islands Light List, No. 353.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 43.)—UNITED STATES—CHESAPEAKE BAY.

Fixed and Flashing Light at Cape Charles.

The United States Lighthouse Board has given notice, that on after the 7th day of September, 1864, a light will be exhibited from the new lighthouse recently erected at Cape Charles, Smith island, on north side of entrance of Chesapeake bay, Virginia.

The light will be a fixed white light, varied by a flash every minute. It will be placed 160 feet above the mean level of the sea, and in clear weather should be seen at a distance of 21 miles.

The illuminating apparatus is dioptric or by lenses, of the first order.

The tower is of brick, circular, coloured white, and 150 feet high from base to centre of lantern. Its position is lat. $37^{\circ} 7' 8''$ N., long. $75^{\circ} 53' 13''$ West of Greenwich.

By command of their Lordships,
Geo. Henry Richards, Hydrographer.
Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
6th September, 1864.

This Notice will affect the following Admiralty Charts:—North America, East Coast, No. 296; and Chesapeake Bay, No. 355a. Also Directions for the Principal Ports in United States, page 51; and United States Lights List, No. 193.

NAVAL PRIZE MONEY.

Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset-House, September 9, 1864.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons interested therein, that preparations are now being made for the intended distribution of the proceeds of certain piratical junks, captured on the 5th September, 1860, by Her Majesty's ship "Grasshopper," and the pinnace of the "Esk."

Agents or other persons having any just and legal demand, unliquidated, against the said proceeds, are required to transmit the particulars of any such demand to the Registrar of the High Court of Admiralty, in order that the same may be examined, taxed, and allowed by that Officer, and paid under the sanction of the Judge of the said Court.

Agents and all other persons holding powers of attorney, prize orders, assignments, or other instruments, by virtue of which they may be legally entitled to claim the share belonging to any captor, are requested, with as little delay as possible, to transmit the same, accompanied by the usual documents, to the Prize Branch of the Department of the "Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset-House."

Due notice will be given, by future advertisements in the London Gazette, of the date proposed for the commencement of distribution; and, at the same time, the amount of an individual's share in the respective classes will be announced.

INCOME TAX.

WHEREAS it has become necessary to renew the list of persons to supply vacancies amongst the Commissioners appointed to act in the division of Bulth, in the county of Brecon, as Commissioners for the general purposes of the Acts of Parliament for granting to Her Majesty duties on profits arising from property, professions, trades, and offices; Now we, two of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, in pursuance of the powers vested in us in that behalf, do hereby convene a meeting of the Land Tax Commissioners, for the county aforesaid, being respectively qualified to act as such Commissioners, to be holden at the Police Court, Buiith, on Monday, the 26th day of September, 1864, at one o'clock in the afternoon, for the purpose of choosing fit and proper persons to be Commissioners to supply vacancies amongst the Commissioners for the general purposes of the Income Tax Acts for the division of Buiith aforesaid.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

CORK LIGHTHOUSE, ROCHE'S POINT, SOUTH COAST OF IRELAND.

Change of Light, and Additional Light to mark position of Daunt's Rock.

Ballast Office, Dublin,
September 1, 1864.

NOTICE is hereby given, that on the evening of the 1st of October, 1864, a fixed White Light will be exhibited from the Base of the Cork Lighthouse Tower (Roche's Point), and continued thenceforth from sunset to sunrise. This light will show to seaward, between the bearings of S.W. by W. and S.W. $\frac{1}{2}$ S., or between Robert's Head and a distance of half a mile to the eastward of Daunt's Rock.

Mariners are cautioned, when approaching Cork Harbour by night, to keep to the eastward of the limits of the White Light, as described above, until they have passed Daunt's Rock.

Change of Light.

Notice is also given, that the fixed light now exhibited from the Lantern of the Cork Lighthouse (Roche's Point) will, on and after the evening of the 1st of December, 1864, be changed to a Red Revolving Light, showing its greatest brilliancy once in every minute.

Fog Bell.

A Fog Bell has also been erected at Roche's Point, which will in future be sounded eight times in a minute during thick or foggy weather.

Bearings are Magnetic. Variation $25^{\circ} 10' W.$

By order,
William Lees, Secretary.

Monday, the 14th day of November, 1864, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the said chambers, is appointed for hearing and adjudicating upon the said debts and claims.—Dated this 9th day of September, 1864.

CONTRACT FOR SHIP CHANDLERY GOODS.

Contract Department, Admiralty,
Somerset House, August 31, 1864.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Tuesday, the 20th September next, at two o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying Her Majesty's Dockyards at Deptford, Woolwich, Chatham, Sheerness, and Portsmouth, with under a contract for twelve months certain, and afterwards until the expiration of three months warning.

Patterns and samples of the articles may be seen, and the average annual consumption of each article at each of the yards during the last three years may be ascertained, on application at this Department, where forms of the tenders, schedules of the articles, and conditions of the articles may be obtained.

No tender will be received after two o'clock on the day of treaty, nor will any be noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Ship Chandlery Goods," and must also be delivered at Somerset House, accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £500 for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACTS FOR SALT PORK.

Contract Department, Admiralty, Somerset House, September 3, 1864.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Monday, the 10th October next, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at the undermentioned Ports, the following quantities of all of the cure of the present season, viz. :—

SALT PORK,

NAVY PORK.

	Tierces.	Barrels.
Deptford	2,900	.. 2,900
Haulbowline	2,900	.. 2,900

The Pork to be delivered into the respective Stores as follows; viz. : one-third of each quantity for each place by the 28th day of January, 1865; another third thereof by the 11th day of March, 1865; and the remainder thereof by the 29th day of April, 1865; or any greater portion, or the whole, at any earlier period, if preferred by the party tendering, and to be paid for by bills at three days after date, which will be sent to parties as usual.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any; and also an unlimited power of selection.

Every tender must specify the name of the person by whom the meat is intended to be cured, the brand of the meat, and the place of cure.

Tenders for pork, of the cure of the United States of America, will not be admitted.

Persons tendering for more than one Port must give a separate tender for each Port.

Persons tendering must give a reference to a banker for each surety proposed; and they are desired to take special notice that the use of wooden hoops is abolished, and that iron hoops only will be required for the casks in accordance with the conditions of the contract.

A form of the tender may be obtained, and the conditions of the contract, to which particular attention is called, may be seen in the Lobby of the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Somerset House, at the Victualling Yards at Gosport and Plymouth, or by applying to the Agent Victualler at Haulbowline; or to the Collectors of Her Majesty's Customs at Bristol, Limerick, Belfast, Waterford, and Newry; or to the Secretary to the Postmaster-General at Dublin; or to the Commander conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool; or to the Resident Agent for Transports at Leith.

No tender will be admitted for a less quantity than 100 tierces, or 100 barrels.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose; but it will not be necessary that the party tendering, or an agent appointed by him, should attend, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and to his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner of the envelope the words "Tender for Salt Pork," and must also be delivered at the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Somerset House.

CONTRACT FOR BREAKING-UP OLD SHIPS AND VESSELS.

Contract Department, Admiralty, Somerset House, September 9, 1864.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Tuesday, the 27th instant, at two o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for lying in the Thames and Medway.

BREAKING-UP OLD SHIPS AND VESSELS,

A form of the tender may be obtained, and conditions of contract seen, in the Contract Department, Admiralty, Somerset House.

No tender will be received after two o'clock on the day of treaty, nor will any be noticed unless the party attends, or an Agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Breaking-up Old Ships," and must also be delivered at the Department of the Storekeeper-General, Admiralty, Somerset House, accompanied by a letter signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £5000 for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACT FOR RUM.

Contract Department, Admiralty, Somerset House, September 5, 1864.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Tuesday, the 20th instant, at half-past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford,

Rum, 50,000 gallons; to be delivered in three weeks from the date of contract.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the rum.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection.

The rum to be exempted from the Customs' duties, and parties tendering are to state where it is lying.

Payment for the rum will be made for the proof gallons to one-tenth of a gullon, the liquid contents being ascertained to the half gallon.

Samples of the rum to be sent in pints for each Import Mark, and the average strength of each Mark Ex to be stated, and not an average of different marks or strengths of several imports; and any parcel of rum that is found not to be of the same quality, mark, or average strength as the sample tendered and accepted, will be rejected by the officers.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted, are to be taken away by them immediately after the contract has been decided.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application in the Lobby of the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House, or to the Officer conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

Particular attention is called to the conditions of the contract, which may be seen in the said Lobby, and at Liverpool and Bristol.

No tender will be received after half-past one o'clock on the day of treaty; and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words "Tender for Rum," and must also be delivered at Somerset House.

CONTRACT FOR WHEAT.

Contract Department, Admiralty,
Somerset House, September 6, 1864.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Tuesday, the 20th instant, at half-past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, the undermentioned article; viz.:

Wheat, 25,000 imperial bushels (to be tendered for at a rate per 100 lbs.); half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the wheat.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection.

Samples of the wheat (not less than 2 quarts), must be produced by the parties tendering.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted, are to be taken away by them immediately after the contract has been decided.

No wheat tendered to be of less weight than 60 lbs. per bushel.

No tenders will be received unless made in accordance with the above denomination of quantity, and at a rate per 100 pounds; and contractors in claiming payment are to make out their invoices in pounds, at per 100 pounds.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the Lobby of the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House, or to the Officer conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

Particular attention is called to the recent alterations in the conditions of the contracts, which may be seen in the said Lobby, and at Liverpool and Bristol.

No tender will be received after half-past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and to his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Wheat," and must also be delivered at Somerset House.

Lead Office, September 6, 1864.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a General Court of the Corporation of the Governor and Company for Smelting-down Lead with Pit Coal and Sea Coal, will be held at the Company's House, in Martin's-lane, Cannon-street, on Tuesday, the 27th instant, at twelve o'clock at noon precisely, being a Half-yearly Court; also to consider of a Dividend; and that the transfer book will be shut on Wednesday, the 21st instant, in order to make out the Dividend Warrants for the half-year ending at Michaelmas next, and opened again on Wednesday, the 5th October following.

Thomas Elliott, Secretary.

West Devon Consolidated Copper Mining Company (Limited).

Special Resolutions.

AT an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Shareholders of this Company, held at the Company's offices, No. 1, Great Winchester-street, in the city of London, on Monday, the 22nd day of February, 1864, the following Special Resolutions, passed at an Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders, held at the offices of the Company, as aforesaid, on Monday, the 1st day of February, 1864, were confirmed:—

Resolved—"That the West Devon Consolidated Copper Mining Company (Limited) be wound up voluntarily, under the provisions of 'The Companies Act, 1862.'

"That Messrs. Winkworth, Kennedy, Cotterell, Whittam, Norris, and Harding, be and they are hereby appointed Liquidators, to wind up the Company, and that three shall be a quorum.

"That the Liquidators be, and they are hereby empowered and authorized to sell, assign, and transfer all the estate and interest of this Company, and the Shareholders thereof, in the Wheal Williams' Mine (the property of this Company), together with the machinery, plant, fixtures, implements, stock, and ores above and below the surface, to a new Company, to be formed to work the mine, having a capital of £15,000, in three thousand shares of £5 each. The price of such mine, machinery, plant, &c., which the said Liquidators are hereby authorized to sell, shall be £4,200, to be paid as follows (that is to say) the said new Company shall pay the debts of the present Company (not exceeding £1,400), and the balance of the said sum of £4,200 shall be paid by the issue and allotment to the Shareholders of the present Company (in proportion to the Shares which they respectively hold in it) of Shares in the new Company, on which the sum of £3 shall be considered as paid, but no new Company shall be carried on until 1000 Shares in it are subscribed for beyond the Shares to be allotted to the Shareholders of the present Company. And if, after the expiration of two months from this date, such new Company shall not be formed, and the necessary capital subscribed, the Liquidators may, if they think fit, sell and dispose of the said mine, machinery, plant and effects, either by public auction or private contract."

Thos. Winkworth, Chairman.

Limited Company.

Extraordinary Resolution of the Patent White Lead Company (Limited), passed 7th September, 1864.

AT an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Members of the Patent White Lead Company (Limited), held at the Company's offices, Moorgate-street Chambers, in the city of London, on the 7th day of September, 1864, due notice having been given of the Meeting, it was resolved, by a majority of more than three-fourths of the Members entitled to vote, present in person or by proxy at such Meeting, as follows:—

"That the supply of earthy carbonates of lead having unexpectedly failed at the Alderley Edge Mines, the manufacture of white lead therefrom must necessarily cease; and since it is impossible to obtain suitable ores at advantageous prices from other parts of England, it is deemed advisable to discontinue the business of the Company.

"That it has been proved to the satisfaction of the Company that, by reason of its liabilities, the Company cannot continue its business, and that it is advisable to wind up the same.

"That the Company be wound up voluntarily, under the provisions of the Companies Act, 1862.

"That Mr. John Darlington, of Moorgate-street Chambers, Moorgate-street, in the city of London, be and is hereby appointed the Liquidator, for the purpose of winding up the affairs of the Company and distributing the property."

SPECIAL Resolution of the Landowners, Lessees, and Occupiers Protection Association (Limited), made, passed, and carried at a Special Extraordinary General Meeting of the Members of the Association, duly convened and holden at the Registered Offices of the Association, at No. 90, Cannon-street, in the city of London, on Friday, the 26th day of August, 1864, and confirmed at a subsequent Extraordinary General Meeting also duly convened and holden at the same place, on Friday, the 9th day of September, 1864.

Resolved—"That this Meeting hereby requires that the Association shall forthwith be wound up voluntarily, in accordance with and under the provisions of the Companies Act, 1862; and that Mr. James Cooper, of No. 5A, Lothbury, in the city of London, Accountant, be and he is hereby appointed Liquidator of the said Association."

ILIFFE, RUSSELL, and ILIFFE, No. 2, Bedford-row.

Montgomeryshire.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of Kirkham v. Davies, with the approbation of the Vice-Chancellor Kindersley for the Master of the Rolls, in one lot, by Mr. David Jones, the person appointed by the said Judge, at the Herbert Arms Hotel, in the town of Machynlleth, in the county of Montgomery, on Wednesday, the 12th day of October, 1864, at four o'clock in the afternoon precisely,

All that freehold farm, lands, and premises, called Gartllgwynion Issa, with a commodious and substantial dwelling-house, recently erected thereon, by the late owner, Mr. Thomas Lewis, deceased, for his own residence, together with the right of Common thereunto belonging, capable of depasturing from 80 to 100 sheep. Also a convenient cottage, situate on the said farm, called Tynyfedw, with the garden, orchards, and appurtenances thereunto respectively belonging, with thriving and extensive woodlands, now in the occupation of Mrs. Elizabeth Lewis, containing by admeasurement, exclusive of the sheepwalk, 112A. OR. 29r., or thereabouts, of capital arable, meadow, pasture, and woodland. There has been found upon the farm a strong vein of copper ore, which has not yet been developed, but is a continuation of the Cefnmaesmor copper vein. The above freehold property is very conveniently and pleasantly situated in the Vale of Glasbwl, in the parish of Machynlleth, is two miles distant from the market town of Machynlleth, at which the Newtown and Machynlleth and the Aberystwith and Welsh Coast Railways meet. The land is of excellent quality, very fertile, and capable of great improvement. The timber is all oak, and cannot be surpassed in growth or quality, and may be conveyed by railway, or shipped either at Derwenlors or Garreg, two shipping places on the River Rovey, within a distance of two miles.

Particulars whereof may be had (gratis) of Messrs. Price, Bolton, and Filder, Solicitors, of No. 1, New-square, Lincoln's-inn, London; of Messrs. Howell and Morgan, Solicitors, Machynlleth; of the Auctioneer; and at the Herbert Arms Hotel, at Machynlleth. Mr. Francis Jones, of Gartllgwynion, will show the premises.

In Chancery.—Anson v. Towgood.

WHEREAS in or about the month of July, 1803, a deed of trust was executed by Messrs. Strange, Dashwood, Agnew, and Peacocke, theretofore carrying on business as Bankers, in New Bnd-street, Middlesex, under the firm or style of Strange, Dashwood, and Company, for the benefit of the creditors of the partnership firm as should execute the said deed; and whereas, in pursuance of certain Decrees or Orders made in a suit pending in the High Court of Chancery, entitled Anson v. Towgood (and which suit was intitled for administering the trusts of the said deed), various creditors of the said firm who had executed the said deed came in before the Master to whom the said cause stood referred and proved their debts; and whereas various of the said creditors it is believed are dead, and it is not known who are now their legal personal representatives, or the parties entitled to such debts; now pursuant to an Order made in the said cause, dated the 24th June, 1859, the several persons and firms in the schedule hereto-named being creditors of the said firm at the date of the said deed of trust of the 19th July, 1803, and who duly executed the said deed, and came in before the said Master and proved their debts, or the legal personal representatives of such creditors and all other persons claiming to be entitled to such debts, are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 7th day of November, 1864, to come in and establish their right to such debts, at the chambers of the Vice-Chancellor Sir Richard Torin Kindersley, of No. 3, Stone-buildings, Lincoln's-inn, in the county of Middlesex. Friday, the 11th day of November, 1864, at twelve of the clock at noon, at the same chambers, is the day fixed for proceeding upon the claims of the said parties.—Dated the 2nd day of August, 1864.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause John Russell Lewis and another, against Stephen Hart and another, all persons claiming to be creditors, or who claim to be incumbrancers on the real estate of Elizabeth Chapman, late of Periton Court, Westwell, in the county of Kent, Spinster, the testatrix in the proceedings in this cause named, who died in or about the month of October, 1863, are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 29th day of October, 1864, to come in and prove their claims at the chambers of the Master of the Rolls, in the Rolls-yard, Chancery-lane, in the county of Middlesex, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of the said Decree. Tuesday, the 7th day of November, 1864, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the said chambers, is appointed for hearing and adjudicating upon the claims.—Dated this 9th day of August, 1864.

PURSUANT to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in the matter of the estate of William Drury, late of Claremont-buildings, Shrewsbury, in the county of Salop, Doctor of Medicine, deceased, and in a cause of Stewart against Murray, the creditors of and incumbrancers on the real estate of William Drury, late of Claremont-buildings, Shrewsbury, in the county of Salop.
