And whereas the said five Justices did also require the said Clerk of the Peace to send, by post, in a prepaid letter, notices in the form aforesaid to the Churchwardens and Overseers of each and every of the parishes or places, and outlying parts of parishes or places above-mentioned: And whereas at this present Court of General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, holden at the County Hall in Oxford, in the said county, on the 17th day of October, 1864, a proposal was submitted to the said Court by the said five Justices to constitute the aforesaid parishes or places, or places and outlying parts of parishes or places, a Highway District.

And whereas the said Court hath entertained the said proposal (it having first been shown that the several notices aforesaid were duly given and sent):

Now, therefore, the said Court, in pursuance of the powers vested in it in and by the said Act, doth provisionally order that the aforesaid parishes or places, and outlying parts of parishes or places, shall be formed or united into a Highway District, for the more convenient management of the highways of the said parishes or places, and outlying parts of parishes or places; and to be called "The Bullington Highway District;" and that (in the event of this present Order being confirmed), one Waywarden shall be elected for each of the said parishes or places and outlying parts of parishes or places in this district: But this present Order not to be of any validity unless it be confirmed by a Final Order of the Justices assembled at the Court of Quarter Sessions of the said county to be holden on Monday, the 2nd day of January next (being within a period of not more than six months from the date of this present Order), at which lastly mentioned Sessions the confirmation of the said Provisional Order will be considered.

Dated this 18th day of October, 1864.

John M. Davenport, Clerk of the Peace of the said County.

In the Privy Council.

In the Matter of Letters Patent granted to William Galloway and John Galloway, of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, bearing date the 11th day of March, in the year of our Lord 1851, for England, Wales, and the Town of Berwick-upon-Tweed, and in the Islands of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, and also in all Her Majesty's colonies and plantations abroad; and in the Matter of Letters Patent granted to the said William Galloway and John Galloway, for Scotland, bearing date the 14th day of April, 1851, both being for "improvements in steam engines and boilers."

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Petition will be presented to Her Majesty in Council, by William Galloway and John Galloway, of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, Engineers, praying Her Majesty to grant a prolongation of the term of the said several Letters Patent. And notice is hereby further given, that an application will be made to the Right Honourable the Lords of the Judicial Committee of Her Majesty's Privy Council, on the 1st day of December next, or on the then next day of sitting of the said Committee, to fix an early day for the hearing of the matters contained in the said Petition; and any person desirous of being heard in opposition to the prayer of the said Petition must enter a caveat to that effect in the Privy Council, on or before the said 1st day of December next.—Dated this 14th day of October, 1864.
