"And whereas a sum of three thousand five hundred pounds sterling has been contributed and paid to our account at the Bank of England by Joshua Radcliffe, of Balderstone, in the said parish of Rochdale, Esquire, Josiah Radcliffe, of Werneth-park, Oldham, in the said county of Lancaster, Esquire, James Radcliffe, of Oakwood, Pendlebury, in the said county of Lancaster, Esquire, and John Radcliffe, of Withington, near Manchester, in the said county of Lancaster, Esquire, upon an understanding that, until the aforesaid sum of three thousand five hundred pounds, or a sufficient part thereof, shall have been invested in the purchase of chief rents or other hereditaments to be secured for the benefit of the minister of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, there shall be paid by us to such minister, when duly licensed, by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, the annual sum of one hundred and sixteen pounds thirteen shillings and fourpence.

"And whereas the said sum of three thousand five hundred pounds sterling has been so contributed and paid as aforesaid upon the further understanding that we should pay out of the common fund created by the firstly herein-named Act to the minister for the time being of the said district, when duly licensed as before-mentioned, the annual sum of thirty-three pounds six shillings and eightpence; and upon the further understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said district and of the nomination of the minister thereof should be assigned in the manner hereinafter-mentioned.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend James Prince, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said parish of Rochdale which is described in the schedule hereunder written, and which is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette, of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Mary, Balderstone, in Rochdale.'

"And we further recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered to pay out of the common fund before referred to, to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted when duly licensed according to the provisions of the herein secondly mentioned Act, the sum of thirty-three pounds six shillings and eightpence in each and every year, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November, and that the first of such payments, or a proportionate part thereof shall be made on the first day of May or the first day of November next after the day of the date of the license of such minister as aforesaid, and that in case a vacancy in the ministry of such district shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount next thereafter payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister succeeding to such district.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister thereof shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council, ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised jointly by the said Joshua Radcliffe, Josiah Radcliffe, James Radcliffe, and John Radcliffe, their heirs and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Mary, Balderstone, in Rochdale, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Rochdale, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester, which is comprised within so much of the township of Castleton as is bounded on the west by the new parish of Saint Martin, Castleton Moor, in the said county and diocese, and on the north by an imaginary line drawn along the middle of that portion of the Rochdale-canal which extends between Hartley-bridge and Stanney-brook."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly-mentioned Act been transmitted to the patron and to the incumbent of the parish out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, and such patron and incumbent have respectively signified their assent to the said scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-fourth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district, for spiritual purposes, out of the district of Saint Saviour, Hoxton, some time part of the parish of Saint Leonard, Shoreditch, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, and out of the district parish of Saint John, Hoxton, also sometime part of the said parish of Saint Leonard, Shoreditch.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said district of Saint Saviour, Hoxton, and of the said district parish of Saint John, Hoxton, hereinafter-mentioned and described (such portions not at present containing within their limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship), should be constituted a separate district in the manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas certain hereditaments and premises situate within the said parish of Saint Leonard, Shoreditch, have become vested in us under the provisions of and for the purposes of the herein-mentioned Acts.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose, that all that portion of the said district of Saint Saviour, Hoxton, and also all that portion of the said district parish of Saint John, Hoxton, which are respectively mentioned and described in the schedule hereunder written, and which are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette, of any order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named "The District of Saint Anne, Hoxton."

"And we further recommend and propose that there shall be paid by us in each and every year to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed, according to the provisions of the herein secondly-mentioned Act, the sum of two hundred pounds, and that so soon as a church shall have been erected within such district, and shall have been approved by us, and consecrated as the church of such district, and for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants thereof, and such district shall have thereupon become, according to the provisions of the said last-mentioned Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, to the perpetual curate for the time being, of such new parish the further sum of one hundred pounds, making in the whole the sum of three hundred pounds, and that the said sums of two hundred pounds or three hundred pounds, as the case may be, shall be paid by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, and that the first such payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or of November next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister, or of the consecration of such church as aforesaid, as the case may be; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry or perpetual curacy of such district or new parish shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount then next thereafter payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister or the perpetual curate making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister or the perpetual curate succeeding to such district or new parish; provided always, that if it shall appear to us to be expedient at any future time that instead of the annual sum then in course of payment by us to the minister or perpetual curate of the said district or new parish, or instead of any part of such annual sum, any land, tithe, or other hereditament should be conveyed or secured to such minister or perpetual curate and his successors, nothing herein or in any other scheme contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament,

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Anne, Hoxton, being:—

"All that portion of the district of Saint Saviour, Hoxton, sometime part of the parish of Saint Leonard, Shoreditch, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London, and also all that portion of the district parish of Saint John, Hoxton, also sometime part of the said parish of Saint Leonard, Shoreditch, which are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing the said district of Saint Saviour, Hoxton, from the district of Saint Andrew, Hoxton, in the same county and diocese, at a point in the middle of the northern end of High-street, Hoxton, opposite to the middle of the north-eastern end of Saint John's-road; and extending thence first south-westward to and along the middle of the last-named road, and then southward along the middle of the same road (crossing the boundary which divides the said district of Saint Saviour, Hoxton, from the said district parish of Saint John, Hoxton), as far as a point opposite to the middle of the western end of the street or alley called Dottridge-place or Bacchus-walk; and extending thence eastward to and along the middle of the Edmund Harrison.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 7th day of January, 1865.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the first day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the prebend of Stow Longa, in the cathedral church of Lincoln, and now vested in us.

"Whereas, on the vacancy of the said prebend, which occurred on or about the thirteenth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight, by the decease of the Reverend John Maul, Clerk, the then prebendary, all the lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments theretofore belonging to the said prebend (except any rights of patronage) became, by virtue of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, absolutely vested in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

And whereas the lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments aforesaid are subject to a beneficial lease, and produce during the subsistence of such lease only a small annual revenue, and partly on that account and partly on account of their character or situation are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

And whereas, by an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one, hundred, and twenty-four, power is given to lessees holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions, or the purchase of the leasehold interests to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or of the proceeds thereof for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time, and from time to time, think fit should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law from time to time, to sell or dispose of and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the holder or holders thereof (if any), to be testified by his, her, or their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments theretofore belonging to the said prebend of Stow Longa, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lincoln.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of "The Durham University Act, 1864," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of "The Durham University Act, 1864," have prepared, and now humbly submit to your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for abolishing certain fellowships in the said University, and for appropriating the proceeds thereof exclusively towards the maintenance, extension, and improvement of the School of Theology, and of a proposed School of Physical Science in the Faculty of Arts in the same University.

"Whereas by the said Act it is enacted that the Dean and Chapter of Durham may, with the consent in writing of the Lord Bishop of Durham, as visitor of the said University, and so as not to effect the rights of existing fellows of the same University, submit to us a plan for abolishing some or all of the twenty-four fellowships existing in the said University at the time of the passing of the said Act, not being fellowships founded by private persons; and that such plan, or such modification thereof as may be agreed to by the said dean and chapter and the said visitor, may be embodied by us in a scheme, to be laid before your Majesty in Council, and may be ratified in the manner contemplated by the Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, that is to say, by an Order of your Majesty in Council published in the London Gazette; and it is by the same Act further provided that the income of all the fellowships so abolished shall be applied in such scheme exclusively for all or any of the following purposes, namely, the maintenance, extension, and improvement of the School of Theology, or of the school or schools in the Faculty of Arts in the said

University, according to such conditions, and generally in such manner as the said dean and chapter, with the assent of the said visitor, shall from time to time determine.

"And whereas the said dean and chapter have, in pursuance of the said Act, submitted to us a plan in writing under their common or capitular seal, which plan has been duly executed likewise by the Right Reverend Charles, Bishop of Durham, as visitor to the said dean and chapter, and is in the words following, that is to say :

"To the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England.

"We, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Durham, acting in pursuance of the 'Durham University Act, 1864,' have prepared and with the consent of the visitor now submit to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England the following plan for abolishing certain fellowships in the University of Durham, and for appropriating the proceeds thereof exclusively towards the maintenance, extension, and improvement of the School of Theology and a proposed School of Physical Science in the Faculty of Arts in the same University.

"It is hereby proposed, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles, Bishop of Durham, as such visitor as aforesaid, testified by his having hereto affixed his Episcopal seal, that of the twenty-four fellowships now existing in the said University of Durham, not being fellowships founded by private persons, twelve shall, subject to the proviso hereinafter contained, be abolished, that is to say, as to all such fellowships as shall be vacant at the date on which any Order of Her Majesty in Council for carrying this plan into effect shall appear in the London Gazette, at and from such date, and as to the remainder of such fellowships immediately upon the occurrence of vacancies thereof respectively: Provided always and nevertheless, that it shall be lawful for us the said dean and chapter to suspend the abolition of two of such fellowships, that is to say, one in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and one in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six by appointing to such two last-mentioned fellowships such persons (being now either Bachelors of Arts or Students of the said University) as we the said dean and chapter may deem deserving of such appointments, to the end that the proceeds of the fellowships so to be abolished may be applied exclusively towards the maintenance, extension, and improvement of the School of Theology and of the School of Physical Science, which it is our intention to establish in the Faculty of Arts in the same University, according to such regulations, and generally in such manner as we the said dean and chapter, with the assent of our said visitor, shall from time to time determine.

"And it is hereby further proposed that the remainder of the twenty-four fellowships aforesaid, or any of them, may at any time after the expiration of the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine become and be abolished in the manner and subject to the restrictions hereinbefore specified with regard to other fellowships, and that the order and occasion of such abolition of such remaining fellowships shall be determined and fixed by a statute or statutes to be from time to time passed by the said dean and chapter, with the sanction and concurrence of their visitor, to the end that the proceeds of any such remaining fellowships

"when so abolished may be applied to the maintenance, extension, and improvement of the School of Theology or of the school or schools in the Faculty of Arts in the said University.

"Witness our common or capitular seal, this twenty-sixth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

"Witness our Episcopal seal, this twenty-eighth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

"(Signed) George Waddington, Decanus.

"(Signed) C. Dunelm."

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that the abolition of certain fellowships contemplated by the plan of the said dean and chapter above set forth, shall take place at the times and in the order and manner therein specified.

"And we further recommend and propose that the income and proceeds of the fellowships so to be abolished shall be applicable and applied exclusively towards the maintenance, extension, and improvement of the School of Theology and of the School of Physical Science which it is the intention of the said dean and chapter to establish in the Faculty of Arts in the said University, according to such regulations, and generally in such manner as the said dean and chapter, with the consent of the said visitor, shall from time to time determine."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Durham.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, and of the Act of the fifth and sixth years of Her present Majesty, chapter twenty-six, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-second day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, and of the Act of the fifth and sixth years of your Majesty, chapter twenty-six, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for altering and improving the episcopal house of residence in the city of Peterborough, belonging to the Bishop of Peterborough.

"Whereas it has been represented to us by the Right Reverend Francis, Bishop of Peterborough, that the episcopal house of residence at Peterborough aforesaid, requires certain alterations and improvements to be made therein, in order to render it suitable and convenient, and it has been proposed to us by the said Bishop, and it appears to us to be expedient, that towards defraying the cost of effecting such alterations and improvements a sum of two thousand pounds, being a sum not exceeding two years income of the See, should be provided by borrowing the same by way of mortgage upon the security of all, or any part of the lands, tenements, and hereditaments of or belonging to the bishopric.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Francis, Bishop of Peterborough (testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose, that the said Bishop be authorised to borrow from the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and that the said Governors be empowered to lend, under the provisions of the above mentioned Acts, the sum of two thousand pounds, and as a security for the same that the said Bishop do mortgage all or any part of the lands, tenements, and hereditaments of and belonging to his said See, to the said Governors, by deed, for the term of thirty-five years, or until the said sum of two thousand pounds, with the interest for the same, and all costs and charges which may attend the recovery thereof, shall be fully paid and satisfied, and that such principal sum shall be repaid with interest, in manner following, that is to say; from and after the expiration of the first year of the said term, computed from the day of the date of the mortgage, in which year no part of the said principal sum shall be repayable, the said Bishop or his successors shall yearly and every year pay to the said governors, their successors, or assigns, one thirtieth part of the said principal sum, until the whole thereof shall be repaid, and shall at the end of the first and each succeeding year pay interest at the rate of four pounds per cent. per annum on the said principal sum, or on so much thereof as shall from time to time remain unpaid, and if and when it shall happen that the principal and interest directed to be paid as hereinbefore mentioned shall be in arrear and unpaid for the space of forty days after the same shall become due, it shall and may be lawful for the said Governors, their successors, and assigns, to recover the same, and the costs and charges attending the recovery thereof by distress and sale, in such manner as rents may be recovered by landlords or lessors from their tenants, by the laws in force at the time of such distress and sale, and that such mortgage deed shall be in the form and to the effect to be approved by us, and shall bind as well the said Francis, Bishop of Peterborough, as every succeeding Bishop of the said See, until the principal, money, and interest, costs and charges, shall be paid off and discharged.

"And we further recommend and propose that the said sum of two thousand pounds shall be paid to us, and that the receipt of our joint treasurers for the time being, endorsed on the said mortgage deed, shall be a good and sufficient discharge to the said Governors and their successors for the same, who shall not be bound or required to see to the application thereof; and that upon the receipt of the said sum of two thousand pounds the whole, or any part or parts thereof, shall be applied by us at such times and in such manner as shall appear to us to be expedient towards effecting the said alterations and improvements in the episcopal house of residence aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose, that so soon as such alterations and improvements shall have been completed, the Bishop of Peterborough for the time being shall, at his personal charge and expence, insure and keep insured the said episcopal house of residence from loss or damage by fire, in one of the public offices of assurance in London or Westminster, to be approved by us, in a sum of not less than seven thousand pounds; and that, such Bishop shall, within fourteen days after any premium for such insurance shall have become due and payable, deliver to us the receipt for the same; and that, in case of any loss or damage by fire to the said house, any and every sum of money receivable under such insurance shall become and be payable and be paid to and deposited with us, in trust, to be applied, and the same, together with any interest and accumulations thereof, shall be applied by us towards the rebuilding, or repairing, and reinstating of the said house, or of any part thereof, which may have so suffered loss or damage, in such manner as shall be determined on by us, with the concurrence of the Bishop of Peterborough for the time being.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the herein named Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council, now therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said

Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Peterborough.

PRESENT.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fifteenth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorising the sale and disposal of certain property vested in us.

"Whereas, under and by virtue of a certain indenture, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, and made, or expressed to be made, between Samuel Spilsbury, of Osbaston, near Monmouth, in the county of Monmouth, Esquire, of the first part; Sarah Spilsbury, Widow of Robert Spilsbury, late of Poland-street, Oxford-street, in the county of Middlesex, Goldsmith, deceased, of the second part; and us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the third part, certain lands, tenements, and hereditaments, situate in the parish of Wood Newton, in the county of Northampton, and more particularly described in the schedule hereto annexed, became and are now vested in us, in fee-simple, for the purposes, and subject to the provisions, applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the lands, tenements, and hereditaments aforesaid are not subject to any outstanding beneficial lease or grant, but are now in possession, but some portions thereof, on account of their character or situation, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the same, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our Common Fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time, and from time to time, think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorised and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and enquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"SCHEDULE.

"All that close or enclosed piece of ground, with the appurtenances called 'Newton Close,' lying and being in the fields and liberties of Wood Newton, in the county of Northampton, containing by estimation four acres or thereabouts, be the same more or less, and also all that messuage or tenement erected and built on part of the said close or enclosed piece of ground, with the outbuildings and appurtenances to the said messuage or tenement adjoining or belonging, which said close, messuage, or tenement and premises were lately in the occupation of Thomas Hodson, and are now in the occupation of Charles Gandern, his undertenants, or assigns."

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fifteenth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorising the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the prebend of Nassington, in the Cathedral Church of Lincoln, and now vested in us.

"Whereas on the vacancy of the said prebend, which occurred on or about the twenty-second day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, by the elevation of the Venerable Henry Kaye Bonney, Doctor in Divinity, Archdeacon of Bedford, and then prebendary to the Archdeaconry of Lincoln, all the lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, theretofore belonging to the said prebend (except any rights of patronage) became by virtue of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, absolutely vested in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments aforesaid, are subject to a beneficial lease, and produce during the subsistence of such lease only a small annual revenue, and partly on that account and partly on account of their character or situation, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas by an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, power is given to lessees holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions, or the purchase of the leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our Common Fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or such part or parts thereof, as we shall at any time, and from time to time, think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and, accordingly, that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorised and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time, to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the holder or holders thereof (if any), to be testified by his, her, or their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments theretofore belonging to the said prebend of Nassington, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, or otherwise as he, she, or they, shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lincoln.

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorising the sale and disposal of certain property vested in us.

"Whereas under and by virtue of a certain indenture, bearing date the eighth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, and made or expressed to be made between the Chester and Holyhead Railway Company, of the one part, and us, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the other part, certain lands, messuages, or tenements, hereditaments, and premises situate in the parish of Saint Oswald, in the city and county of Chester, and more particularly described in the schedule hereto annexed, became and are now vested in us in fee simple for the purposes, and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the lands, messuages or tenements, hereditaments, and premises aforesaid, are not subject to any outstanding beneficial lease or grant, but are now in possession, but some portions thereof, on account of their character or situation, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the same, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our Common Fund, it is expedient that the said lands, messuages or tenements, hereditaments, and premises, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and, accordingly, that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

“ Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorised and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands, messuages, or tenements, hereditaments, and premises so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground shall be opened in the undermentioned parishes, without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials shall be discontinued therein :

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 1.)—MEDITERRANEAN—GIBRALTAR.

Lights on the New Mole.

INFORMATION has been received at the Admiralty, that on and after the 31st day of December, 1864, the inner red light on the new mole of Gibraltar would be discontinued.

A temporary fixed light is exhibited near the extremity of the mole as heretofore, which shows,—

Red to the southward.
 White to the westward.
 Green to the northward.

The new mole extension pier should not be approached whilst the red position of the light is visible, and vessels should not attempt to enter the mole until the green light is in sight. A wide berth should be given to the extremity of the pier.

The light is only adapted for local purposes, and not easily distinguished by strangers. The mariner is warned that it is dangerous for vessels to approach the extension pier in bad weather or dark nights.

By command of their Lordships,
Geo. Henry Richards, Hydrographer.
 Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
 2nd January, 1865.
