"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Langley Fitzurse being :—

"All those several portions of the parish of Kington Saint Michael, in the county of Wilts, and in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, which together constitute the tithing of Langley, otherwise called Langley Fitzurse, or Kington Langley."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the respective Registrars of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, at Bristol and at Gloucester.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 7th day of January, 1865.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the tenth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Matthew, situate at Newbottle, in the parish of Houghton-le-Spring, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Matthew, situate at Newbottle aforesaid, of which the said church is the sole

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Houghton-le-Spring which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned to the said church of Saint Matthew, situate at Newbottle aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Matthew, Newbottle.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham (testified as aforesaid), we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Matthew, Newbottle, being :—

"All that part of the parish of Houghton-le-Spring, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is situate to the north of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing the said parish from the parish of Bishopwearmouth, in the same county and diocese, at a point on the northern side of Ryhope-lane, at or near to the intersection of such lane by the line of the Hutton Company's Railway; and extending thence, first south-westward, along the said boundary, upon the northern side of the said lane, and then south-eastward, along the same boundary, to a point in the middle of the same lane; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the same lane to its junction, near High Stony Gate, with the turnpike road which leads from Sunderland to Durham; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of said turnpike road (passing to the east of Over-the-Hill-Farm Homestead), for a distance of eight hundred and forty-seven yards, or thereabouts, to a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'N. D. C. 1864, No. 1,' and placed on the north-western side of such turnpike road; and extending thence south-westward to such boundary stone; and continuing thence still south-westward and in a direct line across the several closes numbered respectively, 50, 49, 48, 47, 46, 42, and 141, upon the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Houghton-le-Spring, and upon the map hereunto annexed to a boundary stone inscribed 'N. D. C., 1864, No. 2,' and placed on the eastern side of Newbottle-lane, opposite to the middle of the north-eastern end of a certain road, which connects the said lane with Blind-lane or Biddick High Way, and which passes along the southern bank of Grass-well-stream; and continuing thence still south-westward across Newbottle-lane aforesaid,
