the 7th day of January, 1865.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit :

And whereas certain Orders in Council have been made, directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards and burial-grounds hereinafter mentioned, from the time specified in such Orders respectively ; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards and burial-grounds be postponed ;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards and burial-grounds be postponed as follows, viz. :

In the churchyard of Gildersome to the thirtieth of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

In the churchyard of the parish of Hogsthorpe, Lincolnshire, to the thirtieth of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

In the churchyard of All Saints, Fulham, Middlesex, to the thirtieth of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

In the churchyard and in the Wesleyan and Independent Burial-grounds, Middlewich, to the first of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

In the churchyard of Saint John, Hensingham, to the first of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that interments, except in vaults and walled graves to be used in the manner directed by the said Order of the twenty-first of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, be discontinued in the said churchyard and burial-grounds, on and after the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six ; and that in the meantime the conditions specified in the said Order, under which burials are allowed in the said churchyard and burial-grounds, in graves other than vaults and walled graves, be observed :

And whereas by an Order in Council, bearing date the sixth of May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, burials were directed to be discontinued from and after the sixteenth of May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven (with certain exceptions), amongst other places, in the churchyard of Saint Mark's, Shelton, Staffordshire ; and whereas it seems fit that the said Order be varied so far as regards burials in the said churchyard :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that interments in the said churchyard, except in vaults and walled graves, to be used on the conditions specified in the said Order of the sixth of May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, be discontinued on and after the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six ; and that in the meantime the conditions specified in the said Order, under which burials are allowed in graves other than vaults and walled graves in the said churchyard, be observed.
