THE SEAL OF THE COURT.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the following is a copy of an entry made in the book kept by the Chief Registrar of the Court of Bankruptcy for the Registration of Trust Deeds for the benefit of Creditors, Composition, and Inspectorship Deeds executed by a Debtor, as required by the Bankruptcy Act, 1861, secs. 187, 192, 194, 196, and 198:—

Number—10,915.

Title of Deed, whether Deed of Assignment, Composition, or Inspectorship—Composition.

Date of Deed—3rd January, 1865.

Date of execution by Debtor—3rd January, 1865.

Name and description of the Debtor, as in the Deed—Charles Todd, of No. 20, Keppel-street, Russell-square, in the county of Middlesex, late carrying on business in partnership with William James Groves, deceased, as Corn Merchants, under the firm of Groves and Todd, at Corn Exchange-chambers, Seething-lane.

The names and descriptions of the Trustees or other parties to the Deed, not including the Creditors—All the persons who are the creditors of the said Charles Todd, including, as well his separate creditors as the joint creditors of him and the said William James Groves, of the second part; and James Holah, of No. 62, Moorgate-street, in the city of London, Accountant (trustee), of the third part.

A short statement of the nature of the Deed—A Deed, by which the debtor covenants that he will, on or before the 28th day of January instant, pay unto said James Holah a composition of 1s. in the pound upon the amount of all debts, joint and separate, which are due from him to any person in respect of which if he had been adjudged bankrupt proof might have been made, upon trust, that said James Holah should divide the same amongst the creditors, in consideration whereof the said several creditors release the debtor, and also, so far as relates to the joint debts, to the heirs, executors, or administrators of the said William James Groves, deceased, from all debts and claims and demands whatsoever; and after reciting that said debtor was unable to pay such composition in full and that Thomas Todd had agreed to advance a sum to enable him to do so, it was witnessed that the said debtor covenanted with the said James Holah that he would use his best endeavours to get in the outstanding estate of the late firm of Groves and Todd, and pay surplus, after deducting the expenses of deed and realization, to said James Holah, who is to stand possessed of same, upon trust, in the first place to repay the said Thomas Todd amount advanced by him, and then to divide same amongst the creditors of the said firm of Groves and Todd rateably, in addition to said composition, until they shall receive 20s. in the pound, and the surplus to be paid to said debtor and the separate creditors of said debtor until they shall receive 20s. in the pound.
