

ber last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the sixteenth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no new burial-ground shall be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; and that burials in the said parishes shall be discontinued (except as is herein otherwise directed), as follows; viz.:

TAUNTON.—Forthwith, wholly in the church of Saint James, and in the churchyard, except so far as is compatible with the Regulations for new Burial-grounds (omitting No. III); also interments in the old part of the churchyard to be limited to the burial of the widowers, widows, parents, and children of those already buried therein.

SUTTON FOREST, YORK.—Forthwith in the church, and from and after the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, in the churchyard, with the exception of now existing family brick graves.

DENTON, LANCASHIRE.—Forthwith in the churchyard of Christchurch, except so far as is compatible with the Official Regulations for new Burial-grounds, omitting that numbered III.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit;

And whereas an Order in Council has been made, directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyard hereinabove mentioned, from the time specified in such Order; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyard be postponed;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyard be postponed as follows, viz.:

In the churchyard of the parish of Swanscombe, Dartford, Kent, to the first day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 4th day of February, 1865.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the parish of Upton-on-Severn without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that interments in the undermentioned parishes should be discontinued, with the following modifications; viz.:

UPTON - ON - SEVERN.—Forthwith in the church, and on the thirty-first December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, in the old and new churchyards, and in the Baptist burial-ground, except in now existing vaults and walled graves in which the coffins shall be embedded in charcoal, and separately entombed by stone or brickwork properly cemented.

STOKE-UPON-TRENT.—In the burial-ground of Providence Chapel on the thirty-first December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, excepts in vaults and walled graves which can be opened without the disturbance of soil that has been buried in, in which each coffin shall be embedded in powdered charcoal and separately entombed in an air-tight manner.

HOUNSLOW.—From and after the first January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the church and churchyard, with the exception of now existing vaults and brick-graves and deep earthen family-graves.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the twentieth day of March next:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before the said twentieth day of March.
