

arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit ;

And whereas an Order in Council has been made, directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyard hereinafter mentioned, from the time specified in such Order ; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyard be postponed ;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyard be postponed as follows, viz. :

In the churchyard of Enderby, to the first of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

And whereas by an Order in Council, bearing date the eighteenth of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, it was directed that, with certain exceptions, burials should be discontinued, amongst other places, in the churchyard of Saint Thomas the Apostle, in the city of Exeter ; and whereas it seems fit that the said order be varied, and that burials be permitted in graves which can be used in accordance with Nos. 6, 7, and 8, of the regulations for new burial-grounds, in that part of the said churchyard not heretofore used :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said Order in Council of the eighteenth of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, be construed in the same manner as it would have been construed if the following words had been originally inserted in that portion of the order which relates to burials in the said churchyard ; viz. :—"and except in graves which can be used in accordance with Nos. 6, 7, and 8, of the regulations for new burial-grounds, in that part of the churchyard not heretofore used."
