Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, MAY 2, 1865.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, March 31, 1865.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Birthday will be kept on Wednesday, the 24th of May next.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, April 23, 1865.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Royal Highness The Princess Helena will, by command of The Queen, hold a Drawing Room at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Thursday, the 18th of May next, at two o'clock.

It is the Queen's pleasure that Presentations to Her Royal Highness at this Drawing Room shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOM.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOM TO BE HELD, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY BY HER ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCESS HELENA, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Ladies, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing Room, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to The Princess.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Lady who proposes to be presented must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Drawing Room, a card with her name written thereon, and with the name of the Lady by whom she is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation, that no presentation can be made at a Drawing Room excepting by a Lady actually attending that Court, it is also necessary that a letter from the Lady who is to make the presentation, stating it to be her intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen, for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's Command, that no presentations shall be made at the Drawing Room, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Princess.

It is not expected that Gentlemen will present themselves at the Drawing Room, except in attendance upon the Ladies of their families.

The State apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at one o'clock.

SYDNEY,
Lord Chamberlain.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, April 5, 1865.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Saturday, the 20th of May next.

It is the Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at this Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that a letter from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, stating it to be his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentation shall be made at the Levee, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at one o'clock.

SYDNEY,
Lord Chamberlain.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1858.

ORDER APPROVING ADOPTION OF ACT BY LEVENS-HULME, LANCASHIRE.

WHEREAS a resolution for the adoption of the Local Government Act, 1858, has been passed by the township of Levenshulme, in the county of Lancaster, the said township being a place with a population of less than 3,000 by the last census; and whereas it has appeared to me, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that by reason of the special circumstances of the case it is expedient that the said township should be allowed to adopt the said Act, I do hereby approve of such adoption by the township of Levenshulme aforesaid, and do order that the said Act come into operation within such township from and after the 15th day of May, 1865.

Given under my hand this 1st day of May, 1865.

(Signed) G. Grey.

Home Office, Whitehall.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 24.)—SOUTH AUSTRALIA—SPENCER GULF.

Light Vessel on Tipara Reef.

THE Marine Board at Port Adelaide, South Australia, has given notice, that on and after the 1st day of April, 1865, a temporary light vessel would be substituted for the floating beacon which has hitherto been moored on the Tipara reef, on the eastern coast of Spencer gulf.

The vessel will exhibit two lights:—A fixed white light from the mainmast at an elevation of 24 feet above the level of the sea, and visible in clear weather from a distance of 7 miles; and a fixed red light from the foremast at 12 feet above the sea, said to be seen westward of the magnetic meridian, at a distance of 3 miles.

The vessel is painted red, has two masts, carries a red ball at the mainmast head, and lies close to the rocky patch near the southern extremity of the reef, with Elizabeth point bearing S.E. $\frac{1}{4}$ S., and Long point N.E. by E.

In approaching the light from the N.N.W., a vessel should not stand towards the northern extremity of the reef whilst the red light is visible, nor in hazy weather into less than 7 fathoms water.

The Tipara Reef is composed principally of sand, but there is a small rocky patch near the southern extremity which dries at low water. From this patch the shoal extends in a northerly direction for about 2 miles; the western edge trends to the N.N.W., whilst the south-east edge takes a N.E. $\frac{1}{2}$ E. direction; its extreme breadth east and west is nearly 2 miles. In places there are $1\frac{1}{2}$ fathoms water, but on the N.N.E. part of the reef there are only 2 or 3 feet. Its south end lies N.W., distant $4\frac{1}{2}$ miles from Elizabeth point; and the north end S.W. by W. $\frac{1}{4}$ W. from Long point buoy.

Buoy.—A red nun buoy lies off Long point in 3 fathoms water, with Elizabeth point bearing S. $\frac{1}{2}$ E., and Long point E. by N. $\frac{1}{4}$ N.

Directions.—Vessels rounding the south end of Tipara reef should not bring Elizabeth point to bear southward of S.E. by E. $\frac{1}{2}$ E.; and in rounding the north end, when bound into or out of Tipara bay, Long point buoy should not be brought eastward of E. by N. $\frac{1}{2}$ N. To pass westward of the reef, do not approach the light vessel nearer than a mile, or stand into less than 6 fathoms water; a N.N.W. course will lead along on the west side of the reef.

When Long point buoy bears East, if bound into Wallaroo bay, a N.E. course may be steered, taking care as the buoy is brought to bear south-eastward, not to stand into less than $4\frac{1}{2}$ fathoms water. When Long point bears South, a vessel may steer E. by N., and the pilot and harbour master will come off and conduct her to the anchorage or jetty.

At night, a vessel in the vicinity of Tipara reef, should not stand into less than 7 fathoms water, or attempt to enter the bay until the lights at the smelting works are clearly seen bearing E. by N., then steer for them, taking care not to go into less than 6 fathoms water, unless well acquainted with the bay, or the pilot has taken charge.

The tides in the vicinity of the reef, and Long and Elizabeth points, are irregular and rapid; care should therefore be taken to guard against their influence when in the stream of the reef or near the points.

[All bearings are magnetic. Variation $4^{\circ} 35'$ East in 1865.]

By command of their Lordships,
Geo. Henry Richards, Hydrographer.
Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
22nd April, 1865.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—Wallaroo and Tipara bays, No. 402; Australia General, Southern Portion, No. 2759 b; Indian Ocean, No. 748 c; Pacific Ocean, Sheet 9, No. 2467; Gulfs of St. Vincent and Spencer, No. 2389; and South Coast, Sheet 3, No. 1061; and Indian Ocean, No. 2483.

NAVAL PRIZE MONEY.

Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset-House, April 27, 1865.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons interested therein, that preparations are now being made for the intended distribution of the tonnage bounty, of a slave felucca, name unknown captured on the 3rd of June, 1864, by Her Majesty's ship "Griffon."

Agents or other persons having any just and legal demand, unliquidated, against the said proceeds, are required to transmit the particulars of any such demand to the Registrar of the High Court of Admiralty, in order that the same may be examined, taxed, and allowed by that Officer, and paid under the sanction of the Judge of the said Court.

Agents and all other persons holding powers of attorney, prize orders, assignments, or other instruments, by virtue of which they may be legally entitled to claim the share belonging to any captor, are requested, with as little delay as possible, to transmit the same, accompanied by the usual documents, to the Prize Branch of the Department of the "Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset-House."

Due notice will be given, by future advertisements in the London Gazette, of the date proposed for the commencement of distribution; and, at the same time, the amount of an individual's share in the respective classes will be announced.

NAVAL SALVAGE MONEY.

Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset-House, April 28, 1865.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons interested therein, that preparations are now being made for the intended distribution of the amount awarded for salvage services rendered to the "Rajpoot" on the 28th of November, 1864, by Her Majesty's ship "Medusa."

Agents or other persons having any just and legal demand, unliquidated, against the said awards, are required to transmit the particulars of any such demand to the Registrar of the High Court of Admiralty, in order that the same may be examined, taxed, and allowed by that Officer, and paid under the sanction of the Judge of the said Court.

Agents and all other persons holding powers of attorney, prize orders, assignments, or other instruments, by virtue of which they may be legally entitled to claim the share belonging to any salvor, are requested, with as little delay as possible, to transmit the same, accompanied by the usual documents, to the Prize Branch of the Department of the "Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset-House."

Due notice will be given, by future advertisements in the London Gazette, of the date proposed for the commencement of distribution; and, at the same time, the amount of an individual's share in the respective classes will be announced.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named the United Methodist Free Church, situated at Tanner's-row, Hexham, in the parish of Hexham, in the county of Northumberland, in the district of Hexham, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 22nd day of April, 1865, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of 6th and 7th Wm. IV., cap. 85.

Witness my hand this 27th day of April, 1865.

John Stokoe, Superintendent Registrar.

as they now lie with the Stores mentioned in the inventory attached to the Catalogue.

Catalogues and conditions of sale may be had here, or on application to the Inspecting Commanders of the Coast Guard at Gravesend or Hastings.

Persons wishing to become purchasers must apply to the said Inspecting Commanders for permission to view the vessels.

No tender will be received after two o'clock on the day of treaty, nor will any be noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing to make a deposit of £25 per cent. on the amount of the tender.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Her Majesty's ships "Emulous" and "Pelican," and must also be delivered at the Department of the Storekeeper-General, Somerset House.

CONTRACTS FOR PEPPER, RAISINS, SUGAR, AND TEA.

Contract Department, Admiralty,
Somerset House, April 19,
1865.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday, the 3rd May next, at half-past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, the undermentioned articles; viz.:

Pepper, 12,000 lbs. (to be tendered for at a rate per 100 lbs.); half to be delivered in three weeks from date of contract, and the remainder thereof in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Raisins, 50,000 lbs. (to be tendered for at a rate per 100 lbs.); half to be delivered in three weeks from date of contract, and the remainder thereof in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Sugar, 500,000 lbs. (to be tendered for at a rate per 100 lbs.); half to be delivered in three weeks from date of contract, and the remainder thereof in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tea, 100,000 lbs. (to be tendered for at a rate per lb.); half to be delivered in three weeks from date of contract, and the remainder thereof in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the articles.

Separate tenders are to be made for each article.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection.

The pepper, raisins, sugar, and tea to be exempted from the Customs' duties, and parties tendering are to state where they are lying.

Samples of the pepper (not less than 2 lbs.), and of the raisins (not less than 3 lbs.), must be produced by the parties tendering.

Each tender for sugar must specify the mark and landing number of each cask or package, the ship in which imported, and the country or place of its growth or produce, and an average sample (not less than 2 lbs. for each import mark) must be produced by the parties tendering, and not an average of different marks or several imports, and any parcel that is found not to be of the same mark or average quality as the sample tendered and accepted, will be rejected by the Officers.

Each tender for tea must specify the import mark and number of each parcel, the ship in which imported, the dock or warehouse where lying, and must be accompanied by an average sample (not less than two pounds) of each parcel. Tenders failing in any of these conditions will not be entertained.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted are to be taken away by them immediately after the contracts have been decided.

No tenders will be received unless made in accordance with the above denomination of quantities and rates; and contractors in claiming payment for articles supplied are to make out their invoices in accordance therewith, both as to quantities and rates.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application in the Lobby of the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House.

Particular attention is called to the conditions of the contracts, which may be seen in the said Lobby.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty; and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and to his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for" and must also be delivered at the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Somerset House.

CONTRACT FOR RUM.

Contract Department, Admiralty,
Somerset House, April 19,
1865.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday, the 3rd May next, at half-past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford,

Rum, 50,000 gallons; to be delivered within three weeks from date of contract.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the rum.

All the casks (except such as may be required for Her Majesty's Service) are to be taken away from the said Stores by and at the expense of the party whose tender is accepted.

Parties tendering are to state a price per proof gallon for the rum, the casks being removed, and also a price per proof gallon for the rum in the event of the casks being returned for Her Majesty's Service.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection.

The rum to be exempted from the Customs' duties, and parties tendering are to state where it is lying.

Payment for the rum will be made for the proof gallons to one-tenth of a gallon, the liquid contents being ascertained to the half gallon.

Samples of the rum to be sent in pints for each Import Mark, and the average strength of each Mark Ex to be stated, and not an average of different marks or strengths of several imports; and any parcel of rum that is found not to be of the same quality, mark, or average strength as the sample tendered and accepted, will be rejected by the officers.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted, are requested to be taken away by them immediately after the contract has been decided.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application in the Lobby of the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House.

Particular attention is called to the conditions of the contract, which may be seen in the said Lobby.

No tender will be received after half-past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Rum," and must also be delivered at the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Somerset House.
