

Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the parish hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground shall be opened in the undermentioned parish, without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials shall be discontinued therein with the following modifications ;

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the thirty-first day of March last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the fifteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act ;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no new burial-ground shall be opened in the undermentioned parish, without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State ; and that burials in the said parish shall be discontinued (except as is herein otherwise directed), as follows ; viz. :

TUNSTALL, WOLSTANTON.—In the churchyard, on the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, except in existing vaults and walled graves which are free from water, and in which each coffin shall be embedded in charcoal and separately enclosed by brickwork or stone properly cemented. In the meantime the conditions under which burials are allowed in the churchyard by Order in Council of twenty-first of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, are to be observed.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the Session of Parliament, held in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Burial Acts," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to order such acts to be done by or under the directions of the churchwardens or such other persons as may have the care of any vaults or places of burial, for preventing them from becoming or continuing dangerous or injurious to the public health ; and that every such Order in Council shall be published in the London Gazette, and that such churchwardens or other persons shall do or cause to be done all acts ordered as aforesaid, and the expenses incurred in and about the doing thereof shall be paid out of the poor rates of the parish : Provided always, that no such representation shall be made until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the churchwardens or other persons, or one of the churchwardens or other persons, having the care of the vaults or places of burial to which the representation relates ;

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation having been duly given to the churchwardens of the parish of St. Pancras, or other persons having the care of the vaults and graves in the undermentioned burial-ground, has made a representation, stating that he is of opinion that, for the protection of the public health, an Order should be made for the adoption of the measures which are hereinafter set forth ;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the churchwardens of the parish of St. Pancras, do adopt, or cause to be adopted, the following measures, in the undermentioned burial-ground, viz. :—

That the entire surface of the WHITFIELD CHAPEL BURIAL-GROUND, Tottenham Court-road, in the parish of St. Pancras, excepting such portion as may be occupied by paths or by the covering of vaults, or by grave-stones, or monuments above the present level, respectively, be properly levelled and covered with fresh earth, on which a living vegetation shall be hereafter maintained, and that where necessary such paths be raised ; and that the fencing be repaired and maintained in proper order ; and that the churchwardens, or any persons employed by them, shall, at all reasonable times, have free access to the said burial-ground from the public road, for the purpose of executing the works hereby directed to be done, and for maintaining hereafter such living vegetation and fencing.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 18th day of May, 1865.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit ;

And whereas certain Orders in Council have been made, directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards and burial grounds hereinafter mentioned, from the time specified in such Orders ; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards and burial-grounds be postponed ;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is
