LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1858.

NOTICE OF ADOPTION OF ACT BY SOUTH HORNSEY DISTRICT, MIDDLESEX.

WHEREAS the Local Government Act, 1858, was duly adopted on the 12th day of May, 1865, by the District of South Hornsey, in the county of Middlesex, within the boundaries of that district, as settled for the purposes of the hereinbefore recited Act; and notice of such adoption has been duly given, in writing, to me, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, as required by such Act; and whereas it has now been duly certified to me that a copy of such notice has been duly advertised, and that copies have also been affixed to the principal doors of each church and chapel in such district, to which notices are usually affixed, and the period fixed by the said Act for appeal has now expired, and no such appeal has been made:

Now, therefore, I, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, do hereby give notice that the Local Government Act, 1858, has been adopted within the said district of South Hornsey, in the county of Middlesex, and that in accordance with the provisions thereof, the said Act will, at the expiration of two months from the date of the passing of the aforesaid resolution, have the force of law within such district of South Hornsey.

Given under my hand this 28th day of June, 1865.

G. Grey.

Home Office, Whitehall.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 29.)—ENGLAND—SOUTH COAST.

Dungeness Lighthouse.

THE Corporation of the Trinity House, London, has given notice, that, with the object of rendering the lighthouse at Dungeness more readily distinguishable in all states of the atmosphere, the tower will shortly be coloured red and white in alternate horizontal bands.

NEEDLES CHANNEL.

South-West Buoy of the Shingles.

The buoy on the south-west end of the shingles at the entrance to the Needles channel, has been replaced by a large red can buoy, reversed or with the cone up, which shows as a conical buoy.

WALES—NORTH-WEST COAST.

Sherries Light

The Corporation of the Trinity House, London, has also given notice, that on or about the 1st day of August, 1865, the light at the Skerries will be masked over the East Platters rock, or when bearing between N.N.W. and N.W. $\frac{1}{2}$ N.

The shade which now causes the light to show red in the direction of the Coal rock will be removed, leaving the light white in that direction. But an additional light coloured red, will be exhibited from a window 50 feet below the lantern, showing over the Ethel as well as the Coal rock, or when bearing between W. $\frac{3}{4}$ N. and W. by S. $\frac{1}{2}$ S. [All bearings are magnetic. Variation $24^{\circ} 5'$ West in 1865.]

By command of their Lordships,

Geo. Henry Richards, Hydrographer.
Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
16th June, 1865.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—Holyhead Bay, No. 1413. Also Channel Pilot, part 1, page 140; and British Islands Lights List, Nos. 61 and 317.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 30.)—NORTH ATLANTIC—CANARY ISLANDS.

Revolving Light on Delgada Point, Alegranza Island.

THE Minister of Marine at Madrid has given notice, that on and after the 30th day of July, 1865, a light will be exhibited from a lighthouse recently erected on Delgada point, on the east side of Alegranza, one of the Canary Islands.

The light will be a revolving white light, attaining its greatest brilliancy every half minute, and seen through an arc of 270° , or when bearing from about S.S.E. $\frac{1}{4}$ E. round by west and north to N.E. by E. $\frac{3}{4}$ E. It is placed at an elevation of 57 feet above the mean level of the sea, and in clear weather should be visible from a distance of 13 miles.

The illuminating apparatus is dioptric or by lenses, of the fourth order.

The tower is slightly conical, 49 feet high, dark gray, with a green lantern, and stands at about 240 yards within the extremity of the point, in lat. $29^{\circ} 23' 48''$ N., long. $13^{\circ} 29' 26''$ West of Greenwich.

Red Light on Martino Point, Lobos Islet.

Also, that on and after the 30th day of July, 1865, a light will be exhibited from a lighthouse recently erected on Martino point, on the north side of Lobos islet.
