

In the churchyard of Gildersome to the thirtieth of September, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

In the churchyard of the parish of Hogsthorpe, Lincolnshire, to the first of September, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

In the churchyard of Donnington, near Spalding, Lincolnshire, to the first of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

In the churchyard of All Saints, Fulham, Middlesex, to the thirty-first of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

In the churchyard of All Saints, Chorlton-on-Medlock, Manchester, to the twenty-sixth June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, on the conditions prescribed by Order in Council of the second of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, and on condition that burials be conducted under the supervision of the Sanitary Inspector of the Town Council of Manchester.

In Christchurch Burial-ground, Every-street, Ancoats, Manchester, to the thirtieth of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, on condition that the Regulations prescribed by Orders in Council of the seventh December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, and twenty-second October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, relating to this burial-ground, be observed under the supervision of the Sanitary Committee of the Town Council of the city.

And whereas by an Order in Council, bearing date the twenty-fourth of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, burials were directed to be discontinued, from the time specified therein, in, among other places, the burial-ground of Grosvenor-street Chapel, Staleybridge, which Order has since been varied; and

Whereas it seems fit that the Order be still further varied:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that burials be permitted in the burial-ground of Grosvenor-street Chapel, Staleybridge, until the thirty-first December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, for the members of the families of those already buried therein, provided that no coffin be laid in an earthen grave less than four feet beneath the surface, nor within one foot of any other coffin; and provided that those buried in vaults and walled graves, be embedded in charcoal, and separately enclosed by stone work properly cemented.

At the Court at Windsor, the 29th day of June, 1865.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead

"in the Metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the under-mentioned parishes, without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that interments in the same should be discontinued, with the following modifications; viz.:

CANNINGTON, BRIDGEWATER.—On the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, wholly within the church (reserving, however, to the Honourable P. P. Bouverie, M.P., the right of interment for members of his family in his family vault), and in the churchyard, except in existing vaults and walled graves which are free from water, and in which each coffin shall be separately enclosed in stone or brickwork, properly cemented.

LUDFORD, LUDLOW.—Forthwith within the church, and that part of the churchyard which is to the south and south-west of the church; and in the rest of the churchyard, except in graves not less than five feet deep, which can be opened without the exposure of coffins, or the disturbance of undecayed remains.

LIVERPOOL.—Forthwith wholly in the churchyards of Saint John and of Saint Peter.

SHIPSTON-ON-STOUR.—Forthwith in the church, and churchyard, and in the Baptist and Wesleyan chapels and burial-grounds.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the fourteenth day of August next:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before the said fourteenth day of August.
