Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 5th day of July, 1865.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale of certain property now vested in us.

"Whereas by an indenture bearing date the second day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, and made or expressed to be made between Edward Arthur Copleston, of No. 3, Saint Martin's-place, in the liberty of Westminster, Esquire, of the first part; Harriet Frances Copleston, of Offwell, in the county of Devon, Spinster, of the second part; Gerard Coke Meynell, of 3, Saint Martin's-place aforesaid, Gentleman, of the third part; Laura Caroline Copleston, of Offwell aforesaid, Spinster, of the fourth part; Godfrey Meynell, of the Middle Temple, in the city of London, Esquire, of the fifth part; and us the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the sixth part, certain lands, tithe, rent charges, and hereditaments, situate and arising in the parishes or townships of Abthorpe, Handley, and Towcester, in the county of Northampton, and particularly described in the schedule hereto annexed, became, and are now vested in us for the natural lives of Antony Berwick Lechmere and Her Royal Highness the Princess Royal of England and the life of the longest liver of them, the said Antony Berwick Lechmere and Princess Royal, being two survivors of the three lives mentioned in each of two several leases granted by John, Lord Bishop of Lichfield to John Jones, as in the said indenture recited.

"And whereas application has been made to us for the purchase of all our estate and interest in a portion of the said land so vested in us, and after due consideration it appears to us to be expedient that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest in such lands, tithe, rent charges, and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, in such manner as shall appear to us to be advisable.

"We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said land, tenements, and hereditaments described in the schedule hereto annexed, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or her heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"All that the rectory or parsonage of Towcester, alias Tocester, in the county of Northampton, together with all and singular houses, buildings, orchards, gardens, lands, tenements, glebe lands, tithes, rent charges in lieu of tithes, thereunto belonging, and all other the premises comprised in the said indenture of the second of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, and therein expressed to be granted and assigned to us, our successors and assigns."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lichfield.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 5th day of July, 1865.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intitled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England, beyond the limits of the metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis," it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-ground or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require), that after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time, as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed
