

vacancies amongst such Commissioners in each district or division in Great Britain; and, it appearing to the Board of Inland Revenue that the number of persons so appointed for the division of Bodedern, in the county of Anglesea, is insufficient for the proper discharge of the business therein arising under the Income Tax Act, the said Board hereby authorise the increase in the number of the Commissioners for the said division of Bodedern, to any number not exceeding fourteen, and of persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners to any number not exceeding fourteen; and we, the undersigned, three members of the said Board, do hereby convene a meeting of persons appointed for putting in execution within the said county an Act passed in the 38th year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for granting an aid to His Majesty by a Land Tax to be raised in Great Britain for the service of the year 1798," being respectively qualified to act as Commissioners, in the execution of the last-mentioned Act, to be holden at the Magistrates' Rooms, Llanerchymedd, on Tuesday, the 29th day of August, 1865, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of choosing and appointing, according to the regulations of the said Act of the 5th and 6th years of Her Majesty, such number of fit and proper persons to be Commissioners for general purposes for the said division of Bodedern, and of persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners, as may be sufficient to increase the number of such Commissioners to any number not exceeding fourteen, and of persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners to any number not exceeding fourteen.

C. J. Herries.
Alfred Montgomery.
Henry Roberts.

Inland Revenue, London,
14th August, 1865.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named Hundon Chapel, belonging to the religious denomination called Protestant Dissenters or United Baptists and Independents, situate at Hundon, in the parish of Hundon, in the county of Suffolk, in the district of Risbridge Union, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 5th day of June, 1865, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of 6th and 7th Wm. IV., cap. 85.

Witness my hand this 3rd day of July, 1865.
John H. Jardine, Superintendent Registrar.

Barnsley Coal Railway Company.

NOTICE is hereby given, that by conveyance duly stamped, and bearing date the 17th day of February, 1864, the Barnsley Coal Railway Company in exercise of the powers to them given by the South Yorkshire Railway Act, 1863, sold and transferred to the South Yorkshire Railway and River Dun Company, the undertaking of the Barnsley Coal Railway Company, subject to all mortgages and contracts or liabilities affecting the same, and that the said conveyance was duly sealed and completed by both the said Companies.

—Dated 14th August, 1865.

By order,
Baxter, Rose, Norton, and Co., Solicitors
to both the said Companies.

Patent Law Amendment Act, 1852.

Office of the Commissioners of Patents for Inventions.

NOTICE is hereby given that—

951. Robert Baynes, of Mansel-villas, Wimbledon, in the county of Surrey, Gentleman, has given notice at the Office of the Commissioners of his intention to proceed with his application for letters patent for the invention of "improvements in suction and force pumps."

As set forth in his petition, recorded in the said office on the 4th day of April, 1865.

966. And William Teall, Louis Lepaige, and Edward Thornhill Simpson, of Wakefield, in the county of York, Oil and Grease Manufacturers, have given the like notice in respect of the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of lubricating oil and grease."—A communication to them from abroad by Emile Lepaulle, of Paris, Engineer.

967. And Jean Isidore Darribet, of Dax, in the Empire of France, Gentleman, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "improvements in seats for water closets."

969. And Charles William Lancaster, of New Bond-street, in the county of Middlesex, Gun Manufacturer, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "improvements in fire arms, and in apparatus for extracting cartridges and cartridge cases therefrom."

970. And Edward Ritherdon, of Fenchurch-street, in the city of London, Surveyor of Shipping, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "improvements in protecting iron ships and other submerged structures from oxidation and corrosion."

971. And Frederic Rainford Ensor, of 7, Park-terrace, Nottingham, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of lace in twist lace machines." As set forth in their respective petitions, all recorded in the said office on the 5th day of April, 1865.

976. And Edwin Henry Newby, of No. 31, Cheap-side, in the city of London, Civil Engineer, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "an improved mode of pointing or tapering the ends of metallic rods or wires, applicable to the manufacture of pins, needles, and other articles where points or tapered ends are required."—A communication to him from abroad by Henri Caudery, of Lausanne, Switzerland.

As set forth in his petition, recorded in the said office on the 6th day of April, 1865.

989. And Edward Welch, of No. 2, Viemera-place, South Lambeth, in the county of Surrey, Gentleman, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "improvements in fireplaces and flues and apparatus connected therewith."

991. And Samuel Smith and John William Jackson, both of Keighley, in the county of York, have given the like notice in respect of the invention of "certain improvements in governors or regulators for steam or other motive power engines."

995. And Henry Edmonds, residing at Peel Lodge, Gosport, county of Southampton, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "improvements in apparatus for lighting and ventilating ships, part of which is also applicable for producing fresh water at sea."

As set forth in their respective petitions, all recorded in the said office on the 7th day of April, 1865.