

and Balderton were separated and disunited, and became separate and distinct benefices to all intents and purposes whatsoever, but no apportionment was, by such last-mentioned Order of your Majesty in Council, made between such benefices of the annual sums or stipends, amounting to twenty-seven pounds, payable by us as aforesaid to the vicar or incumbent of the theretofore united benefices of Farndon and Balderton.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Most Reverend Charles Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury, and also with the consent of the said John, Bishop of Lichfield, and also with the consent of the said John, Bishop of Lincoln, and also with the consent of the Reverend William Lloyd, Clerk, the perpetual curate or incumbent of the said perpetual curacy of Wilne, in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose, that upon and from the day of the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such Order, the yearly sum or stipend of two hundred and seventeen pounds, which, under the hereinbefore secondly-recited Order of your Majesty in Council, was made payable by us to the incumbent for the time being of the said perpetual curacy of Wilne, shall be reduced to a yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and fifty-seven pounds; and the yearly sum or stipend of six pounds, which, under the hereinbefore firstly-recited Order of your Majesty in Council, was made payable by us to the vicar for the time being of the said vicarage of Sawley, shall be increased to a yearly sum or stipend of sixty-six pounds.

"And we further recommend and propose, that without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, the annual sums or stipends, together amounting to twenty-seven pounds, which, as aforesaid, were formerly payable by us to the united vicarage of Farndon with Balderton, shall be divided and apportioned in equal moieties between the said vicarage of Farndon and the said vicarage of Balderton, and that such apportionment and division shall commence and take effect as from the said twenty-sixth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the respective Registrars of the dioceses of Lichfield and Lincoln.

At the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of September, 1865.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirteenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of your Majesty, chapter eighty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls within the parish of Garthbeibio, in the county of Montgomery, and in the diocese of Saint Asaph.

"Whereas the Bishop of Saint Asaph for the time being is, in right of his see, the patron of the rectory of the said parish of Garthbeibio, and also of the rectory of the parish of Llangadvan, in the same county and diocese.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us that the church of the said parish of Garthbeibio is at present ill-endowed, and that it is desirable that some additional provision should be made for the cure of souls within the said parish.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Thomas Vowler, Bishop of Saint Asaph, the bishop of the diocese and the patron in right of his see, of the rectory of the parish of Llangadvan as aforesaid, has proposed to us, and it appears to us to be expedient that the income of the said rectory of such lastly-mentioned parish should be apportioned between the rector or incumbent thereof and the rector or incumbent of the said rectory of the parish of Garthbeibio, in the manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Honorable and Most Reverend Charles Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury, of the said Thomas Vowler, Bishop of Saint Asaph, and of the Reverend Griffith Edwards, Clerk, the present rector or incumbent of the rectory of the said parish of Llangadvan (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose that the tithes, or rent-charges in lieu of tithes, issuing, arising, and payable out of or in respect of certain lands, tenements, and hereditaments, situate either wholly or in part within the township of Voel, in the said county of Montgomery, and now forming part of the endowments of the said rectory of the said parish of Llangadvan, which are set forth and described in the schedule hereunto annexed, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette, be disannexed and transferred from the rectory of the said parish of Llangadvan, and from the rector or incumbent thereof and his successors, and shall become and be absolutely vested in the Reverend William Evan Jones, the rector or incumbent of the rectory of the said parish of
