

been employed within the parish or district during the preceding half year; and provided also, that a portion, amounting to an annual sum of one hundred pounds, of the grant so recommended to be made by us to the benefice of Winterbourne Monkton with Berwick Bassett, shall be paid only upon the production to us as aforesaid of a like certificate that an assistant curate has been duly employed at Winterbourne Monkton; and provided also, that the grant so recommended to be made by us to the vicarage of Arlington shall cease and determine immediately upon and from the lapse of the subsisting lease of the property within the parish of Arlington which formerly belonged to the prebend of Woodhorne, and is now vested in us, subject to the said lease; and provided also, that the grants so recommended to be made by us to the benefices of Edingley and Halam shall cease and determine immediately upon and from the avoidance of the perpetual curacy of Halam, or of the perpetual curacy of Edingley, which may happen next after the date of this scheme; and provided lastly, that the grants, payment whereof is so herein recommended to be made by us conditionally upon the employment of assistant curates, shall continue in force so long only as may to us appear to be expedient under the circumstances from time to time affecting the respective cures in favour of which the same conditional grants are so recommended and proposed.

“And we further recommend and propose that the lands and premises, tithes, or rent-charges in lieu of tithes, and other hereditaments, particularly described in the second and three following schedules hereunto annexed, with their appurtenances, now vested in us, and all our estate and interest therein, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the several spiritual persons hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:—that the lands and hereditaments described in the second schedule hereunto annexed, situate at Bridlington, in the county and diocese of York, which were conveyed to us by a deed bearing date the twenty-fourth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and made between John Wells, of Booth Ferry House, near Howden, in the said county of York, Land Agent, and Thomas Cooper, of the city of York, Druggist, of the one part, and the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the other part, which deed is intended to be deposited in the registry of the said diocese of York, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of the parish of Bridlington aforesaid, and that the same perpetual curate or incumbent shall be entitled to receive the rents and profits of the lands and hereditaments to be so annexed by us as aforesaid, as from the said twenty-fourth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five; that the tithes, or rent-charges in lieu of tithes, described in the third schedule hereunto annexed, arising out of or upon lands situate within the townships of Prysllgoed, Barrog, Melay, Drebach, Petrual, Cornwall, and Talhaiarn, in the parish of Llanfair Talhaiarn, in the county of Denbigh and diocese of Saint Asaph, formerly belonging to the first comportion of the prebend of Llanfair Talhaiarn, and now vested in us, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of the said parish of Llanfair Talhaiarn; that the lands and hereditaments described in the fourth schedule hereunto annexed, situate within the parish of Peterborough, in the county of Northampton and diocese of Peterborough, and now vested in us, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of Saint Mark's, Peterborough, in the same county and diocese; and that the perpetual curate or incumbent of the said perpetual curacy shall be entitled to receive the rents and profits of the lands and hereditaments so to be annexed by us as last mentioned, as from the first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five; that the tithes, or rent-charges in lieu of tithes, described in the fifth schedule hereunto annexed, arising out of or upon lands situate within the parish of Cilcein, in the county of Flint and diocese of Saint Asaph, and now vested in us, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of Saint John, Rhydymwyn, in the same county and diocese; and that the perpetual curate or incumbent of the said perpetual curacy shall be entitled to receive the net profits of the tithes, or rent-charges in lieu of tithes, so to be annexed by us as last mentioned, as from the fourth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

“And we further recommend and propose, with the consent of the Reverend John Felix, Clerk, the perpetual curate or incumbent of the perpetual curacy of the parish of Llanvihangel Lledrod, in the county of Cardigan and diocese of Saint David's, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme; that the tithe commutation rent-charges, amounting to a yearly sum of two hundred and six pounds eight shillings, arising out of or upon lands situate within the said parish of Llanvihangel Lledrod, with their appurtenances, formerly belonging to the prebend of Lledrod, in the collegiate church of Brecon, and now vested in us, and all our estate and interest therein, shall, subject to any provisions affecting the same which are contained in the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of your Majesty, chapter eighty-two, in like manner, and by the authority aforesaid, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent, for the time being, of the perpetual curacy of the said parish of Llanvihangel Lledrod, in lieu of and in full substitution for and discharge of the annual sum or stipend of fourteen pounds, now payable by us to the said perpetual curate or incumbent in respect of the estates formerly belonging to the said prebend; and we further recommend and propose, that the perpetual curate or incumbent of the said perpetual curacy shall be entitled to receive the net profits of the said tithe commutation rent-charges so to be annexed by us as last mentioned, as from the second day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

“And we further recommend and propose, with the consent of the Reverend Matthew Fearnley, Clerk, the perpetual curate or incumbent of the perpetual curacy of Christ Church, Moreton, in the county and diocese of Chester, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, that the tithe commutation rent-charges, amounting to a yearly sum of two hundred and eight pounds six shillings and one penny, arising out of or upon lands situate within the townships of Saughall, Massie, and Moreton, in the parish of Bidstone, in the same county and diocese, with their appur-
