In Parliament.—Session 1866.

Saltash Road.

(Continuation of Term; Repeal or Amendment of Act; Levying, collecting, increasing, and varying of Tolls, Rates, or Duties, and Alteration of Rate of Interest; Extinguishment of Arrears of Interest and of Debts.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session for an Act to alter, amend, extend, vary, continue and enlarge all or some of the powers and provisions of an Act of Parliament passed in the third year of the reign of His Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for more effectually repairing and improving several Roads in the counties of Cornwall and Devon, leading to the borough of Saltash, in the county of Cornwall, and for making a new Branch and Deviations of Roads to communicate therewith," or to repeal the said Act wholly or in part, and to grant further, better, and more effectual powers and provisions in lieu thereof, and to continue and to extend the term granted by the said Act, and to make further provisions with reference to the said road.

And in the said Act powers will be applied for to levy and collect tolls, rates, or duties upon the said road; to alter, increase, or vary the existing tolls, rates, or duties authorized by the said Act to be taken, or which can now be collected upon the said road; to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from payment of tolls, rates, or duties; to alter and regulate the application and expenditure of the moneys arising from such tolls, rates, and duties; and to confer, vary, or extinguish other rights and privileges.

Provision is also intended to be made in the said Act with reference to the payment of the interest and principal of the mortgage debts due and owing upon the credit of the tolls, rates, and duties collected on the said road, and for altering the rate of interest now payable, and of extinguishing the arrears thereof, and of some portion or portions of the principal debt due and owing on the credit of the said tolls, rates, and duties, and for fixing the rate of interest to be hereafter paid in respect of such debts, or the proportion of tolls, rates, or duties to be applied in payment of interest and principal, and for making other arrangements with respect to the existing mortgage debts and the arrears of interest due thereon, and with respect to the liquidation of other charges and liabilities upon the said road.

And notice is hereby further given, that printed copies of the said Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 23rd day of December next.

Dated this 21st day of October, 1865.

Thames Conservancy.

APPPLICATION having been made to the Conservators of the River Thames, by Messrs. Cory and Son, of Lambeth, for license and permission to establish a Hulk named "Atlas No. 2," afloat in the River Thames, between the two upper moorings in No. 1, Collier Sections, in Bugsby's Reach, and opposite the river wall to the northward of Messrs. Hill's Chemical Works, for the purpose of unloading and discharging by steam, hydraulic, or other power, colliers trading to and from the Port of London; the said Conservators hereby give notice of such application to the public, and to the owners and occupiers of any property on the banks of the Thames in front of which the Hulk is proposed to be placed; and further notice, that any objections thereto must be made to the Conservators on or before the 27th day of December next, after which they will take the said application into consideration.

By order,

E. Burstal, Secretary.

CONTRACTS FOR SALT.

Contract Department, Admiralty,
Somerset House, October 23, 1865.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday, the 9th instant, at noon, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford,

320 tons of WHITE SALT; and
370 tons of ST. UBE'S BAY SALT;

one-half of each quantity to be delivered by the 31st December, 1865, and the remainder thereof during the months of November and December, 1866.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the salt.

Tenders are to be made at rates per 1,000 lbs.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection.

Samples (not less than 3 lbs. of each description of salt) must be produced by parties tendering.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted, are requested to be taken away by them immediately after the contracts have been decided.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application in the Lobby of the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House, where the conditions of the contracts may be seen.

No tender will be received after noon on the day of treaty; and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Salt," and must also be delivered at the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House.
