TO
The London Gazette

Of TUESDAY, the 31st of OCTOBER.

Published by Authority.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1865.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 31st day of October, 1865.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

Lord Chancellor.
Lord President.
Sir George Grey, Bart.
Mr. Milner Gibson.
Mr. Bruce.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of the eleventh and twelfth years of Her present Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and seven, intituled "An Act to prevent until the 1st day of September, 1850, and to the end of the then next session of Parliament, the spreading of contagious or infectious disorders amongst sheep, cattle, and other animals," which Act has since been from time to time continued by divers subsequent Acts, and lastly by an Act passed in the session of the twenty-eighth and twenty-ninth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter one hundred and nineteen, it is (amongst other things) enacted that it shall be lawful for the Lords and others of Her Majesty's Privy Council, or any two or more of them, from time to time, to make such Orders and Regulations as to them may seem necessary for the purpose of prohibiting or regulating the removal, to or from such parts or places as they may designate in such Order or Orders, of sheep, cattle, horses, swine, or other animals, or of meat, skins, hides, horns, hoofs, or other parts of any animals, or of hay, straw, fodder, or other articles likely to propagate infection; and also for the purpose of purifying any yard, stable, outhouse, or other place, or any waggons, carts, carriages, or other vehicles; and also for the purpose of directing how any animals dying in a diseased state, or any animals, parts of animals, or other things seized under the provisions of the said Act, are to be disposed of; and also for the purpose of causing notices to be given of the appearance of any disorder among sheep, cattle, or other animals, and to make any other Orders or Regulations for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of the said Act, and again to revoke, alter, or vary any such Orders or Regulations; and that all provisions for any of the purposes aforesaid in any such Order or Orders contained shall have the like force and effect as if the same had been inserted in the said Act; and that all persons offending against the same shall for each and every offence forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding twenty pounds, or such smaller sum as the said Lords or others of Her Majesty's Privy Council may in any case by such Order direct:

And whereas a contagious or infectious disorder now prevails among the cattle of Great Britain, which is generally designated the "cattle plague," and may be recognized by the following symptoms:—

"Great depression of the vital powers, frequent shivering, staggering gait, cold extremities, quick and short breathing, drooping head, reddened eyes, with a discharge from them, and also from the nostrils, of a mucous nature, raw looking places on the inner side of the lips and roof of the mouth, diarrhoea or dysenteric purging:"

And whereas several Orders, dated respectively the 24th of July, the 11th, 18th, and 26th of August, and 22nd of September, 1865, have been made under the authority of the said Acts by the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council, with a view to check the spreading of the said disorder.

And whereas it was ordered by the Lords of the Council on the 22nd of September, 1865, as follows:—

(Clause 19.)

"Whenever any Local Authority, as hereinbefore defined, declares, by Notice published in any newspaper circulating within his or their jurisdiction, that it is expedient that animals, as

"hereinbefore defined, or some specified description thereof, shall be excluded from any specified Market or Fair within that jurisdiction, for a time to be specified in such Notice, it is hereby ordered, that after the publication of such Notice it shall not be lawful for any person to bring or send such animals or description thereof into such Market or Fair: Provided always, that this clause of this Order shall not, unless renewed by a further Order, be in force after the expiration of three calendar months from the date of this Order."

And whereas Notices published under the said clause of the said Order have been evaded by sales being held in the neighbourhood of Markets or Fairs from which animals have been excluded by such Notices, and it is expedient to prevent such evasion:

Now, therefore, the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council do hereby, by virtue of, and in exercise of the powers given by, the said Act, so continued as aforesaid, order as follows:—

1. Where any Notice has been or may hereafter be published by any Local Authority, as defined in the said Order of the 22nd day of September, 1865, excluding animals, as defined in the said Order, or some specified description thereof, from Markets or Fairs within the jurisdiction of such Local Authority; It shall not be lawful, from and after the date of this Order and while such Notice shall be in force, for any person to bring or send any such animals or such description thereof to any place within such jurisdiction for the purpose of exhibition or sale, or to receive, exhibit, buy, or sell any such animals so brought or sent: Provided that nothing contained in this Clause of this Order shall be held to prohibit any person from exhibiting or selling on his own land or premises any such animal belonging to him, which has been on such land or premises for not less than fourteen days previous to such sale.

2. Every person offending against this Order shall, in pursuance of the said Act, for every such offence forfeit any sum not exceeding twenty pounds which the Justices before whom he or she shall be convicted of such offence may think fit to impose.
