

"hereinbefore defined, or some specified description thereof, shall be excluded from any specified Market or Fair within that jurisdiction, for a time to be specified in such Notice, it is hereby ordered, that after the publication of such Notice it shall not be lawful for any person to bring or send such animals or description thereof into such Market or Fair: Provided always, that this clause of this Order shall not, unless renewed by a further Order, be in force after the expiration of three calendar months from the date of this Order."

And whereas Notices published under the said clause of the said Order have been evaded by sales being held in the neighbourhood of Markets or Fairs from which animals have been excluded by such Notices, and it is expedient to prevent such evasion:

Now, therefore, the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council do hereby, by virtue of, and in exercise of the powers given by, the said Act, so continued as aforesaid, order as follows:—

1. Where any Notice has been or may hereafter be published by any Local Authority, as defined in the said Order of the 22nd day of September, 1865, excluding animals, as defined in the said Order, or some specified description thereof, from Markets or Fairs within the jurisdiction of such Local Authority; It shall not be lawful, from and after the date of this Order and while such Notice shall be in force, for any person to bring or send any such animals or such description thereof to any place within such jurisdiction for the purpose of exhibition or sale, or to receive, exhibit, buy, or sell any such animals so brought or sent: Provided that nothing contained in this Clause of this Order shall be held to prohibit any person from exhibiting or selling on his own land or premises any such animal belonging to him, which has been on such land or premises for not less than fourteen days previous to such sale.

2. Every person offending against this Order shall, in pursuance of the said Act, for every such offence forfeit any sum not exceeding twenty pounds which the Justices before whom he or she shall be convicted of such offence may think fit to impose.
