

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named Zion, situated at Colwinstone, in the parish of Colwinstone, in the county of Glamorgan, in the district of Bridgend, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 28th day of October, 1865, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of 6th and 7th Wm. IV., cap. 85.

Witness my hand this 30th day of October, 1865.

Samuel Cox, Superintendent Registrar.

Nottinghamshire.

AT the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of our Lady the Queen, holden at the Shire-hall, in Nottingham, in and for the county of Nottingham, on Monday, the 16th day of October, in the year of our Lord, 1865, and adjourned from thence to, and holden in pursuance of such adjournment at the Shirehall aforesaid, on Wednesday, the 18th day of the same month of October, before the Right Honourable Edward Lord Belper, the Honourable Edmund Gambier Monckton, Sir Edward Samuel Walker, Knight, Henry Sherbrooke, William Hodgson Barrow, Charles Paget, Robert Holden, Thomas Broughton Charlton, James Thomas Edge, Richard Milward, Esquires; the Reverend Thomas Coates Cane, George Francis Holcombe, and John Lawrence Prior, Clerks; Justices of our said Lady the Queen, assigned to keep the peace in the said county. The following Provisional Order was made:—

Whereas Sir Edward Samuel Walker, Knight, Francis Hall, James Salmond, Walter Need, Esquires, and the Reverend John Lawrence Prior, Clerk, being five of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace, acting in and for the county of Nottingham, have, by writing under their hands dated the 21st day of September, 1865, required Thomas Fowke Andrew Burnaby, Esquire, Clerk of the Peace for the said county, to add to or send with the notice required by law to be given of the holding of the Court of General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, a notice in the form required by the provisions of an Act passed in the 25th and 26th years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, cap. 61, intituled "An Act for the better management of Highways in England," and of an Act passed in the 27th and 28th years of the reign of Her Majesty, Queen Victoria, cap. 101, intituled "An Act to amend the Act for the better management of Highways in England," that at the then ensuing General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, a proposal would be made to the Justices then and there assembled to combine the townships, hamlets, or places of Selstone, Bagthorpe, Jacksdale, Underwood, and Westwood, which separately maintain their own highways, and are situate in the parish of Selstone, in the county of Nottingham, a parish separately maintaining its own poor; and to declare that no separate waywardens should be elected for such townships, hamlets, or places; and that such parish should be subject to the same liabilities in respect of all the highways within it, which were before maintained by such townships, hamlets, or places separately, as if all their several liabilities had attached to the whole parish; and that a Waywarden or Waywardens should be elected for such parish as a whole: And whereas such requisition has been duly complied with: And whereas, at this present General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, a proposal was submitted to the said Court by the said five Justices, that the said hamlets or places of Jacksdale and Westwood, in the parish of Selstone, in the said county, shall be added to the Mansfield Highway District of the said county, and that all the said townships, hamlets, or places of Selstone, Bagthorpe, Underwood, Jacksdale, and Westwood, in the parish of Selstone aforesaid, shall be combined.

And whereas the said Court has heard the said proposal and entertained the same, and has duly considered the premises: Now, therefore, this Court, in pursuance of the powers vested in the Court in and by the said Acts, doth, by this Provisional Order, direct that the said townships, hamlets, or places of Selstone, Bagthorpe, Underwood, Jacksdale, and Westwood be combined, and that no separate Waywardens shall be elected for such townships, hamlets, or places, and that the said parish of Selstone shall be subject to the same liabilities in respect of all the highways within it, which were before maintained by such townships, hamlets, or places separately, as if all their several liabilities had attached to the whole parish, and that one Waywarden shall be elected for such parish as a whole.

Lastly, it is ordered, that the confirmation of the said Provisional Order by a Final Order, shall be taken into consideration by the Justices, at a Court of General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace, to be held by adjournment at the Shirehall, in Nottingham aforesaid, in and for the said county, on Wednesday, the 3rd day of January, 1866.

By the Court,

T. F. A. Burnaby, Clerk of the Peace.
