AT the Court at Windsor, the 20th day of November, 1865.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty, King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking the poll at county elections," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the Justices of any county, riding, parts, or division, in England or Wales, in Quarter Sessions assembled, representing that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division, is insufficient, and praying that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts, or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division, and that the Justices of the Peace for the county, riding, parts, or division, in Quarter Sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act passed in the second and third years of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and describe the divisions of counties, and the limits of cities and boroughs in England and Wales, in so far

"as respects the election of members to serve in Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place:

And whereas the Justices of the Peace for the county of Wilts, in Quarter Sessions assembled, on the seventeenth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, have presented a petition to Her Majesty, representing that the number of polling places at present existing in the northern division of the said county of Wilts is insufficient, and praying that Trowbridge may be an additional polling place for the northern division of the said county:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to declare, order, and direct, and it is hereby declared, ordered, and directed, that Trowbridge shall be an additional polling place for the northern division of the said county of Wilts, and that the Justices of the Peace for the said county, in Quarter Sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the said Act, passed in the second and third years of the reign of His said late Majesty, shall, conformably to the said Act, divide such northern division of the said county into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 20th day of November, 1865.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament, holden in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend and consolidate the laws relating to the customs of the United Kingdom, and of the Isle of Man, and certain laws relating to trade and navigation, and the British possessions," it is enacted that, "if the legislature or proper legislative authority, of any of the British possessions abroad, shall present an address to Her Majesty, praying Her Majesty to authorise or permit the conveyance of goods or passengers from one part of such possession to another part thereof, in other than British ships, it shall thereupon be lawful for Her Majesty, by Order in Council, so to authorise the conveyance of such goods or passengers, on such terms and under such conditions as to Her Majesty may seem good."

And whereas an address has been presented to Her Majesty by the proper legislative authority of Mauritius and its dependencies, praying Her Majesty to authorise and permit the conveyance of goods and passengers from Mauritius to the Seychelles Islands, and vice versa, in other than British ships. Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, and in virtue of the authority committed to Her by the said recited Act, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the day of the date of this Order, goods and passengers may be conveyed from the Mauritius to the Seychelles Islands, and vice versa in other than British ships.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Edward Cardwell, one of Her
