AT the Court at Windsor, the 20th day of November, 1865.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorising the sale and disposal of certain property, formerly belonging to the Prebend of Corringham-cum-Stowe, in the cathedral church of Lincoln, and now vested in us.

"Whereas, by an indenture, dated the twenty-second day of May, one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, made or expressed to be made between the Right Honorable Sir John Beckett, of Somerby-park, near Gainsborough, in the county of Lincoln, Baronet, and the Right Honorable Anne Beckett (commonly called Lady Anne Beckett), his wife, of the one part, and us, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the other part, the leasehold interest then outstanding in the lands, tenements, and hereditaments, particularly set forth in the second schedule of the said indenture, and forming a portion of the said Prebend, became vested in us, the reversion in such lands, tenements, and hereditaments, expectant on the determination of the lease so purchased by us as aforesaid, having previously become vested in us by virtue of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, on the vacancy of the said Prebend, which occurred on or about the thirteenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, by the death of the Reverend George Beckett, Clerk, the then Prebendary.

"And whereas certain portions of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, on account of the character or situation of the property, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And, whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our Common Fund, it is expedient, that the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, or such parts thereof, as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorised and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, all or any of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, formerly belonging to the said Prebend of Corringham-cum-Stowe, and so vested in us in possession as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the Diocese of Lincoln.
