

hibiting for a limited time the importation of horned cattle: Be it enacted by the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly thereof, as follows:

I. During the operation of this Act, it shall not be lawful to land at any port or place in this Colony, from any ship or vessel, any head of horned cattle; and the master of any ship or vessel who shall land, or permit or suffer to be landed, from such ship or vessel any head of horned cattle, shall for every head of horned cattle so landed forfeit, upon conviction, any sum not exceeding four hundred pounds sterling.

II. No master of any ship or vessel who shall have been committed for trial for the offence in the last preceding section mentioned shall, pending such trial, be released from custody, unless he shall give good and sufficient bail that he will duly appear to take his trial for such offence in any competent court, and that he will pay and satisfy any fine which may, by such court, be imposed upon him for such offence.

III. It shall be the duty of the Port-Captain, Harbour-Master, or other officer of Government who shall first board any ship or vessel arriving at any of the ports in this Colony, to ask the master of such ship or vessel whether he has on board any horned cattle; and, should the said master reply in the affirmative, the Port-Captain, Harbour-Master, or other officer, shall inform the said master of this Act, and deliver to him a copy of the same.

IV. If, during the operation of this Act, there shall arrive in this Colony any head of horned cattle which shall have been shipped for this Colony before the publication of this Act in the London Gazette, it shall be lawful for the Governor of this Colony, and he is hereby authorized, to indemnify from and out of the public revenue the owner of every such head of horned cattle, by paying to him or to his agent the first cost of every such head of horned cattle, together with freight, insurance, and any other charges which shall have been reasonably and properly incurred upon or about such head of horned cattle; whereupon such head of horned cattle shall become the property of the Colonial Government: Provided that nothing in this section contained shall extend to any horned cattle which shall have been shipped at any time after the publication of this Act in the London Gazette, or to any head of horned cattle which shall be found to be actually suffering from any such disease as is in the preamble of this Act mentioned.

V. In the interpretation of this Act, the term "master" shall include any officer in command of the ship or vessel.

VI. This Act shall continue in force until the 31st December, 1866, and no longer.
