

to bring or send any such animals from any place in Great Britain, beyond the county of Banff, into any place within said county, for the period before specified.

Any person offending shall for every offence forfeit any sum not exceeding £20.

Of all which notice is hereby given.

W. J. Tayler, Chairman.

John Allan, Clerk of the Peace for Banffshire.

Banff, 1st December, 1865.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

County of Aberdeen.

THE Justices of the Peace for the county of Aberdeen, in Sessions assembled at Aberdeen, 1st December, 1865, considering that it is expedient that the animals defined in the third clause of the Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated 23rd November, 1865, be excluded from all markets and fairs within their jurisdiction, do hereby give notice and declare, in accordance with the 16th clause of said Order, that it shall not be lawful for any person to bring or send any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine to any markets or fairs appointed to be held within their jurisdiction, or to any place whatever within their jurisdiction, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, or to receive, exhibit, buy, or sell any such animals so brought or sent, and that during the period from the date of this Order to the 1st day of March next.

The said Justices also do hereby give notice and declare, in accordance with the 18th clause of said Order, that animals, as defined in said Order, shall not be brought from any other part of Great Britain, into any place within their jurisdiction, during the period from the date of this notice and declaration to the said 1st day of March next, subject to the exceptions mentioned in said clause.

Intimation is hereby given that every person offending against these Orders, shall for every such offence forfeit any sum not exceeding £20.

Published by order of the Justices,

James Aug. Sinclair,

Clerk of the Peace of Aberdeenshire.

Aberdeen, 1st December, 1865.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Division of Birdforth—North Riding of Yorkshire.

NOTICE is hereby given, that with a view to prevent the spreading of the Cattle Disease, and by the authority of the 16th and 18th clauses of the Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated the 23rd instant, Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace, acting in and for the Division of Birdforth, in the Riding and County aforesaid, at the Petty Sessions of the Peace holden at the Justice Room, in the township of Sowerby, near Thirsk, in and for the said Division, this 27th day of November instant, have declared that all cows, heifers, bulls, bullocks, oxen, and calves, shall be excluded for the purpose of exhibition or sale, from all fairs and markets, held at Thirsk, or elsewhere, within the said Division from the date hereof, up to and including the 1st day of March next, and that such animals as hereinbefore defined, shall not during the before mentioned period be brought from any other part of Great Britain into any place within the aforesaid Division, except such animals be sent or carried by railway through such Division, or that such animals be brought or sent by any person with the license of any two of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace acting in and for the said Division to which this notice applies from any land or premises in his own occupation, and beyond the said Division to any other land or premises in his own occupation within the said Division.

Every person offending against this Order, for every such offence, renders himself liable to a forfeiture of £20.

Dated at Thirsk, this 27th day of November, 1865.

By order,

Joseph Arrowsmith, Clerk to the aforesaid Justices of the Peace.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Borough of Banbury.

Prohibition of the Exhibition or Sale of all Cattle, and of the Traffic of all Cattle, except Fat Beasts, until the End of the Present Year.

Establishment of a Cattle Register.

I, JOHN HARLOCK, Mayor of the Borough of Banbury, in pursuance of the power vested in me by an Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated the 23rd day of November, 1865, do hereby declare that it is expedient to prevent the removal of all cows, heifers, bulls, bullocks, oxen, and calves, both store and fat, to any market or fair, or to any place within the borough of Banbury, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, during the remainder of the present year.

And I hereby, in pursuance of the aforesaid Order, also declare that it is expedient that all such animals as aforesaid, (except only fat cattle intended to be immediately slaughtered or to be conveyed by rail), shall not be brought from any other part of Great Britain into the borough of Banbury during the remainder of the present year.

And I give notice that any person who shall offend against the above mentioned Order, which by this Notice is made imperative within the borough of Banbury, will, for every offence, be liable to forfeit £20.

And I also give notice that a book has been provided, and will be kept in the vestibule of the Townhall, in charge of the hallkeeper, Mr. D. Dixon, in which all persons who may wish either to sell or purchase any cattle may register the same, free of charge.

John Harlock, Mayor.

29th November, 1865.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

County of Haddington.

THE Justices of the Peace of the county of Haddington, at a Special Adjourned Sessions, held this day, resolved, in accordance with the 18th Section of the Privy Council Order, relative to Cattle Plague, of date 23rd November, 1865:—
"That it is expedient from the date hereof to the 1st day of March, 1866, to prevent the removal of any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, from any part of Great Britain into any place within the county of Haddington."

Every person offending against this order is liable to be prosecuted for a penalty not exceeding £20 for each offence.

By order of the Justices,

Henry M. Davidson, Clerk of the Peace.
County Buildings, Haddington, 1st December, 1865.
