AT the Council, held at Windsor, on Monday, the 11th instant, Her Majesty was pleased to approve of the subjoined Draft of a Commission for the temporary appointment of Sir Henry Knight Storks, G.C.B., G.C.M.G., as Governor of the Island of Jamaica during the prosecution of certain enquiries therein mentioned.

Draft of a Commission to be passed under the Great Seal appointing Sir Henry Knight Storks, G.C.B., G.C.M.G., to be Captain-General and Governor-in-Chief in and over the Island of Jamaica and the Territories depending thereon.

VICTORIA, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith: To our Trusty and Well-beloved Sir Henry Knight Storks, Knight Grand Cross of Our Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Knight Grand Cross of Our Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of Our Island of Malta and its Dependencies, a Major-General in Our Army, having the local rank of Lieutenant-General while in command of Our Troops in Malta and its Dependencies, Greeting,

1. Whereas We did, by Our Commission under the Great Seal of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, bearing date at Westminster, the twenty-ninth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty four, in the twenty-eighth year of Our Reign, Constitute and Appoint Our Trusty and Well-beloved Edward John Eyre, Esquire, to be Our Captain-General and Governor-in-chief in and over Our Island of Jamaica, and the Territories depending thereon, during Our Will and Pleasure, as by the said recited Commission, relation being thereunto had, may more fully and at large appear: And We did by Our said Commission make provision for the Government of Our said Island in the event of the death, incapacity, or absence of him, the said Edward John Eyre, but no provision was therein made for the Government of Our said Island by any other Person than the said Edward John Eyre during his presence therein: And whereas it is alleged that great disaffection hath prevailed in Our said Island, and that sundry evil-disposed Persons have concerted the destruction of other Our Subjects resident therein. And whereas grievous Disturbances have broken out in Our said Island, and have been suppressed, and the said Disturbances and Suppression have been attended with great loss of life, and it is alleged that excessive and unlawful severity has been used in such Suppression: and whereas it greatly concerns Us that full and impartial Inquiry should be made into the origin, nature and circumstances of the said Disturbances, and with respect to the measures adopted for the Suppression of the same: And whereas it may be advisable that the said Edward John Eyre should be present in Our said Island during the whole, or part, of the said Inquiry, but it is requisite for the sufficiency of the said Enquiry that the Powers vested in him as Governor of Our said Island should not be exercised by him while so present therein, but should, during the Prosecution of the said Inquiry, and for such further time as may seem to Us requisite, be vested in such other Person as We may think fit; Now know you that

We have Revoked and Determined, and by these Presents do Revoke and Determine from and after the time when Public Notice hereof shall be given by Proclamation or otherwise in Our said Island, and thenceforth until We shall think fit to Determine these Presents, so much of the said recited Commission as did Constitute and Appoint the said Edward John Eyre to be Our Captain-General and Governor-in-Chief over Our said Island of Jamaica and its Dependencies: And further know you that We, reposing especial Trust and Confidence in the prudence, courage, and loyalty of you the said Sir Henry Knight Storks, of Our especial Grace, certain Knowledge, and mere Motion, have thought fit to Constitute and Appoint, and do by these Presents Constitute and Appoint you to be Our Captain-General and Governor-in-Chief in and over Our said Island of Jamaica, and the Territories depending thereon, and also of all Forts and Garrisons erected and established, or which shall be erected and established within the same, for, and during Our Pleasure. And We do hereby Authorise, Empower, and Command you, while these Presents shall remain in force, to do and Execute all Things in due manner that shall belong to your said Command, and to the Trust We have reposed in you, according to the several Powers and Authorities granted or appointed to him the said Edward John Eyre by Our aforesaid Commission, and by Our Instructions under Our Sign-Manual and Signet therewith given him, and according to such further Powers, Directions, and Authorities as have been or shall at any time hereafter be granted or appointed him or you under Our Sign-Manual and Signet, or by Our Order in our Privy Council, or by Us through one of Our Principal Secretaries of State, and according to such reasonable Laws and Statutes as are now in force, or as shall be hereafter made and agreed upon by you, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of Our said Island. And We declare Our Pleasure to be that, except in respect to the Appointment of the said Edward John Eyre, the afore-mentioned Commission, and all Instructions heretofore issued to the said Edward John Eyre, under Our Sign-Manual and Signet, or by Our Order in Council, or by Us through one of Our Principal Secretaries of State, and all Appointments, Nominations, and Dispositions, made by or by virtue of such Commission or Instructions, shall remain in full force and effect.

II. And we do hereby Require and Command all Officers, Ministers, Civil and Military, and all other the Inhabitants of Our said Island, and the Territories depending thereon, to be obedient, aiding and assisting unto you or to the Officer administering the Government for the time being in the execution of this Our Commission, and of the Powers and Authorities herein contained.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 11th day of December, 1865.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by The Navy and Marines (Wills) Act, 1865, it is enacted (among other things) that that Act shall commence on such day, not later than the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, as Her Majesty in Council thinks fit to direct; nevertheless, Her Majesty in Council may, if it seems fit, with reference to any places out of the United Kingdom, direct that that Act do not commence there respectively until a time after that day :

And whereas by The Admiralty, &c., Acts Repeal Act, 1865, it is enacted (among other things) that that Act shall commence on such day, not later than the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, as Her Majesty in Council thinks fit to direct; nevertheless, Her Majesty in Council may, if it seems fit, with reference to any places out of the United Kingdom, direct that that Act do not, in respect of the repeal of any of the enactments in the Schedule to that Act described, commence there respectively until a time after that day:

And whereas by the Admiralty Powers, &c., Act, 1865, and the Dockyard Ports Regulation Act, 1865, respectively, it is enacted (among other things) that those Acts respectively shall commence on such day, not later than the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, as Her Majesty in Council thinks fit to direct :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers in this behalf by the said Acts respectively or otherwise in Her vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows :—

1. The said Acts respectively shall commence from and immediately after the 31st day of December, 1865.

2. Provided that, with reference to places out of the United Kingdom, the Navy and Marines (Wills) Act, 1865, shall not commence there respectively until the times following, namely :—

In Europe, the expiration of two calendar months after the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.

In other places, the expiration of eight calendar months after such publication.

3. Provided also, that, with reference to places out of the United Kingdom, The Admiralty, &c., Acts Repeal Act, 1865, in respect of the repeal of such of the enactments in the Schedule to that Act described as in anywise relate to the subject matter of the Navy and Marines (Wills) Act, 1865, shall not commence there respectively until the times following, namely :—

In Europe, the expiration of two calendar months after the publication of this Order in the London Gazette :

In other places, the expiration of eight calendar months after such publication.

And the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may appertain.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 11th day of December, 1865.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intitled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England, beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-ground or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require), that after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time, as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered; provided also that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish;

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the parish hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the under-mentioned parish without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein with the modifications hereinafter specified :

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the fifth day of October, last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the twenty-seventh day of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act ;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that burials in the under-mentioned parish shall be discontinued (except as is herein otherwise directed), as follows; viz. :

SHEFFIELD.—On the first of September, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the churchyard of Saint John, and in the meantime burials to be limited to the burials of members of the families of owners of private graves or vaults, purchased before the first of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, which can be opened without the exposure of coffins or the disturbance of remains. No coffin in an earthen grave to be buried less than four feet below the surface; and each coffin buried in a vault or walled grave to be embedded in charcoal and separately entombed,—that is, enclosed by stone or brickwork properly cemented, or by concrete not less than six inches thick.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 11th day of December, 1865.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the churches hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, burials should be discontinued in the under-mentioned churches; viz.:

WHALLEY - CLITHEROE.—Forthwith in the churches of Saint Mary and Saint James

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the twenty-third day of January next:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before the said twenty-third day of January.

Arthur Helps.

THE following Notices have been received by the Clerk of the Council from the Local Authorities appointed under the Orders of the Lords of the Council, relating to the "cattle plague," and are published in the London Gazette in conformity with the requirements of the 18th section of their Lordships' Order of the 23rd November, 1865:—

CATTLE PLAGUE.

County of Montgomery.—Petty Sessional Divisions of Llanfyllin and Pool Lower.

UNDER the authority of an Order in Council, dated the 23rd day of November last, we, two of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace, acting in and for the said Divisions, hereby order that no person shall sell, or offer for sale, within the said divisions, any cattle, except upon the premises of the owner, and even then only in case such cattle shall have been upon such premises during the whole of the previous fourteen days.

We also order that no person shall bring or send into the said divisions any cattle from any other part of Great Britain, except with the licence of two Justices acting in and for the said divisions.

Any person offending against this order will be liable to a penalty not exceeding £20.

This order shall be in force until the first day of March next.

Given under our hands in the Petty Sessions assembled the first day of December, 1865.

Division of Leath Ward, in the county of Cumberland.

Leath Ward Petty Sessions,
5th December, 1865.

(Present:—Edward Williams Hasell, Esq., Sir Henry Ralph Vane, Baronet, Anthony Harrison, Esq., Richard Courtenay Musgrave, Esq., John Unsworth, Esq., Wm. Marshall, Esq., M.P., Thomas Scott, Esq., George Henry Hewitt Oliphant-Ferguson, Esq., Joseph Salkeld, Esq., Frederick Cowper, Esq., Senior, Frederick Cowper, Esq., Junior, the Rev. John Heysham, Clerk, and John Jameson, Esq.)

In pursuance of the Orders of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated the 23rd day of November, 1865, it is hereby declared that it is expedient that animals described in the said Orders, viz.:—cows, heifers, bulls, bullocks, oxen, calves, sheep, lambs, goats, and swine, shall not be brought from any other part of Great Britain into any place within the said district of Leath Ward, except from the West and East Wards in Westmoreland, under the conditions hereinafter specified and expressed, from the date of this notice until the 1st day of January next.

And notice is hereby given, that it shall not be lawful, after the publication of this notice, for any person to bring or send any animal of the before-mentioned description from any other part of Great Britain into any place within the said district of Leath Ward, except from the West and East Wards in Westmoreland, and except under the certificate of a legally appointed inspector for any of the said Wards called West and East Wards, and Leath Ward, that such animals so to be brought or sent, have been in the said West and East Wards for the space of three weeks next before they are so brought or sent, and have for that space of time been the property of the same person, and are healthy, and not labouring under the said disorder, or been in the same shed or out-house, or in the same herd or flock, or in contact with any animal so labouring under the said disorder, and then only for the purpose of being slaughtered within twenty-four hours after being so brought or sent into the said district of Leath Ward, or of being removed within twenty-four hours after being so brought or sent into the said district, to some place without the said district, and that any person offending herein, will, for every such offence, be liable to a penalty not exceeding £20.

Given under my hand at the Petty Sessions aforesaid.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

South Division of Easington Ward, County of Durham.

NOTICE is hereby given, that in order to prevent the spreading of the Cattle Plague, and by the authority of the 16th and 18th clauses of the Order in Council of the 23rd day of November, 1865, the Justices of the Peace acting in and for the Petty Sessional Division of the South Division of Easington Ward, in the county of Durham, at a Petty Sessions held at Castle Eden, in the said county, this 4th day of December, 1865, have declared that it is expedient for the period of three calendar months from this day, to prevent the removal of any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or pig, to any market or fair or to any place whatever, for the purpose of exhibition of sale, within the said South Division of Easington Ward, except with the consent of some duly appointed Cattle Inspector, or of a Justice of the Peace acting for the said Division.

And they have further declared that it is expedient for a like period, that no such animal as aforesaid shall be brought from any part of Great Britain into any place within the said South Division of Easington Ward, except for the purpose of immediate slaughter, unless with such consent as aforesaid.

And every person offending against this notice will, for every such offence, be liable to a penalty not exceeding £20.

By order of the Justices,
J. S. Robinson, Clerk.

THE CATTLE PLAGUE.

WE, the undersigned, being five Justices of the Peace, acting in and for the Petty Sessional Division of Swindon, in the county of Wilts, in pursuance of an Order dated the 23rd day of November last, declare that it is expedient that cows, heifers, bulls, bullocks, oxen, calves, sheep, lambs, and swine, shall not be brought from the parishes or places of Brinkworth, Garsden, or Charlton, in the county of Wilts, into any place within our jurisdiction, comprising the parishes within the said Petty Sessional Division of Swindon, from the day of the date hereof up to the 1st day of March next; and we hereby give notice, that, from the date of the publication of this notice, it shall not be lawful for any person to bring or send any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, or swine, from such parishes or places into any place within our said Petty Sessional Division within the period and limits aforesaid, and that all persons so offending are liable for each and every offence to forfeit and pay the sum of £20: provided, always, that nothing contained in this order shall make it unlawful for any person to send or carry any such animals by railway through such jurisdiction: and provided, also, that nothing contained in this order shall make it unlawful for any person to bring or send, with the licence of any two Justices acting in and for the Petty Sessional Division of Swindon, any such animals from any land or premises in his own occupation and beyond such Petty Sessional Division, to any other land or premises in his own occupation within such Petty Sessional Division.

WE, the undersigned three of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the East Riding of the county of York, acting in and for the Petty Sessional Division of Buckrose, in the same Riding, and assembled in Petty Sessions at the Magistrates' Room in Norton, in the same Division, in pursuance and exercise of the power given to us by the Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, made on the 23rd day of November last, do hereby declare that it is expedient with a view to prevent the spreading of the Cattle Plague, to prevent the removal of certain animals, namely, all cows, heifers, bulls, bullocks, oxen, and calves, to any market, fair, or any other place whatsoever within the said Petty Sessional Division, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, from the day of the date hereof, for, during and until the 1st day of March next. And we do further order that after the due publication of this notice, it shall not be lawful for any person to bring or send any such animal of the description aforesaid, into any place within the said Buckrose Petty Sessional Division, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, or to receive, buy, or sell any such animal so brought or sent. And in further pursuance and exercise of the powers given to us by the said Order in Council, we do declare it is expedient that animals as hereinbefore defined, shall not be brought from any other part of Great Britain into any place within the said Buckrose Petty Sessional Division from the date hereof, until the said 1st day of March next. Provided that nothing contained in this Order shall make it unlawful for any person to send or carry any such animals by railway through the said Petty Sessional Division. And provided also that nothing contained in this Order shall make it unlawful for any person to bring or send with the license of two Justices acting in and for the same Petty Sessional Division, any animal from any land or premises in his own occupation, and beyond the said Division to any other land or premises in his own occupation and within such Division.

And provided also that nothing herein contained shall prohibit any person from exhibiting or selling on his own land or premises, any animal belonging to him which has been on such land or premises for not less than fourteen days previous to such sale.

And lastly we do hereby give notice, that any person offending against this Order, will be liable to a penalty of £20 for every offence.

Given under our hands, at the Magistrates' Room, in Norton aforesaid this 9th day of December, 1865.

Division of Allertonshire.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the North Riding of the County of York, acting in and for the Petty Sessional Division of Allertonshire, in the said Riding, in Petty Sessions assembled, have this day, by virtue of an Order of Her Majesty's Privy Council, dated the 23rd day of November last, declared that it is expedient, with a view to prevent the spreading of the Cattle Plague, to prevent the removal of cows, heifers, bullocks, and oxen to any market or fair, or to any other place whatsoever, within the said Petty Sessional Division, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, from the day of the date hereof until the 1st day of March next.

And that after the publication of this notice it shall not be lawful for any person to bring or send any such animal into such market or fair, or to any place within the said Petty Sessional Division, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, or to receive, exhibit, buy, or sell any such animal so brought or sent, but nothing herein contained shall be held to prohibit any person from exhibiting or selling on his own land or premises any animal belonging to him which has been on such land or premises for not less than fourteen days previous to such sale. And the said Justices have also declared that it is expedient that animals, as hereinbefore defined, shall not be brought from any other part of Great Britain into any place within the said Petty Sessional Division until the said 1st day March next. And the said Justices further ordered that from and after the publication of this notice, it shall not be lawful for any person to bring or send any such animal of the description aforesaid from any place in Great Britain, beyond the said Petty Sessional Division, into any place within the said division, until the said 1st day of March next, provided that nothing herein contained shall make it unlawful for any person to send or carry any such animals by railway through the said Petty Sessional Division, nor make it unlawful for any person to bring or send, with the license of any two justices acting in and for this Petty Sessional Division, any animal from any land or premises in his own occupation and beyond the said division, to any other land or premises in his own occupation and within such division. And notice is hereby further given, that every person offending herein will be liable to forfeit not exceeding £20.

Dated at Northallerton, 6th day of December, 1865.

WHEREAS, by authority of an Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated the 23rd November, 1865, made in pursuance of the several Acts of Parliament therein mentioned, we, the undersigned, being two of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace of, and acting in and for, the said county and division, do declare by this notice, that it is expedient that the following animals, namely: every cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, and calf (except cattle for the purpose of their being sold for immediate slaughtering), and every such animal so brought or sent shall, before being allowed to leave any fair or market, although such animal may not have been sold, be marked in such manner as shall be directed for that purpose, shall be excluded from all fairs and markets to be held within this Petty Sessional Division until the 5th day of January next; and no person shall buy or sell, or cause to be bought or sold, any such animal in such fairs or markets, except for immediate slaughtering. Any person buying any such animal in any such fairs or markets shall slaughter, or cause the same to be slaughtered, in all cases, within seven days of such purchase.

And we do hereby give notice, that it will not be lawful, after the publication of this notice, for any person to bring or send any animals of the description before mentioned (except as heretofore excepted, and in accordance with the above conditions) from any place in Great Britain beyond our jurisdiction, into any place within the said Petty Sessional Division.

Every person so offending against this Order will be liable for such offence to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds.

Given under our hands, at Shifnal, in the said county and division, the 1st day of December, 1865.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Borough of Cardiff, comprising the parishes of St. John and St. Mary.

I, THE undersigned, William Bradley Watkins, Mayor of the said borough, by virtue of the powers vested in me, as the local authority within the said borough, in and by an Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated the 23rd day of November now last past, do, by this notice, declare that, with the view to prevent the spreading of the said Cattle Plague or disorder, it is expedient to prevent the removal of any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine to any market or fair, or to any place whatever within the said borough of Cardiff, for the purpose of exhibition or sale; and also to prevent the removal of any such animal from any place in Great Britain, to any place within the said borough of Cardiff, excepting under the conditions hereinafter specified.

Conditions to be observed upon the removal of such animals as are hereinbefore described:—

No animal brought by water shall be landed until examined by the inspector of the district, and his certificate for landing first obtained.

No animal brought by railway shall be removed from the railway truck until examined by the said inspector, and his certificate for removal first obtained.

No animal shall be brought within the borough until examined by the said inspector, and his certificate for that purpose first obtained.

Animals for slaughtering, which shall have been duly certified by the inspector, shall be slaughtered within forty-eight hours from the time of such examination.

Penalty.—Every person who shall, after the publication of this notice, remove any such animal as aforesaid, into, within, or out of the said borough, without having complied with the above conditions, will be liable to a penalty of £20.

Mr. Geo. Bodington, M.R.C.V.S., residing at No. 1, Penllinc-terrace, Canton, is appointed inspector of the district.

This notice shall be in force until the 1st day of March, 1866.

Dated this 1st day of December, 1865.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Borough of Glastonbury, in the county of Somerset.

WHEREAS by authority of an Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated the 23rd day of November last, made in pursuance of several Acts of Parliament therein mentioned, I, the undersigned, George Baker, Esq., Mayor of the said borough of Glastonbury, acting in and for the said borough, this seventh day of December, 1865, do resolve and determine, and I do by this notice declare that it is expedient that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, be removed to any market or fair, or to any place whatever within the said borough, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, until the first day of February next, after the publication of this notice, and that from this time until the first day of February next, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, be brought from any place in Great Britain beyond my jurisdiction, within any place within my jurisdiction.

And I give notice that it will not be lawful after the publication of this notice, for any person to bring or send any such animal into any such market or fair, or to any place within the said borough, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, or to receive, exhibit, buy, or sell any such animal so brought or sent.

Provided that any person may exhibit or sell on his own land or premises, any animal belonging to him which has been on any such land or premises for not less than fourteen days previous to such sale.

And I also give notice that after the due publication hereof, it will not be lawful for any person to bring or send any such animal from any place in Great Britain beyond my jurisdiction, into any place within my jurisdiction.

Provided that any person having any animals upon any land or premises in his own occupation, beyond my jurisdiction, may, but with the license only of two Justices acting in and for the said borough of Glastonbury, bring or send any such animals to any other land or premises in his own occupation, within my jurisdiction.

And every person committing any offence against the tenor hereof, is liable for any such offence to a penalty of £20.

Given under my hand, at the borough of Glastonbury, in the county of Somerset aforesaid, this 7th day of December, 1865.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

County of Forfar.

THE Justices of the Peace for the county of Forfar, in Sessions assembled, at Forfar, 6th December, 1865, considering that it is expedient that the animals defined in the third clause of the Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated 23rd November, 1865, with the exception of sheep, lambs, goats, and swine, be excluded from all markets and fairs within their jurisdiction, do hereby give notice and declare, in accordance with the 16th clause of the said Order, that it shall not be lawful for any person to bring or send any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, to any markets or fairs appointed to be held within their jurisdiction, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, or to receive, exhibit, buy, or sell any such animals so brought or sent, and that during the period from the date of this Order to the 31st day of December next, 1865.

The said Justices also do hereby give notice and declare, in accordance with the 18th clause of said Order, that animals, as defined in said Order, with the exception of sheep, lambs, goats, and swine, shall not be brought from any other part of Great Britain into any place within their jurisdiction during the period from the date of this notice and declaration to the said 31st day of December next, subject to the exceptions mentioned in said clause.

Intimation is hereby given, that every person offending against these orders shall, for every such offence, forfeit any sum not exceeding twenty pounds.

Forfar, 6th December, 1865.

Published by order of the Justices.

D. Crichton, Depute Clerk of the Peace at Forfar.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Borough of Leicester.

By virtue of the authority conferred by a certain Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated the 23rd day of November last, made in pursuance of the several Acts of Parliament therein mentioned, I, Thomas William Hodges, Esquire, Mayor of the borough of Leicester, do by this notice declare, with a view to prevent the spreading of the disorder designated the "Cattle Plague," that it is expedient to prevent the removal of any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf (except fat cattle under the conditions hereinafter mentioned) to any market or fair, or to any place whatever within the borough of Leicester, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, on any day between the date of this notice and the 1st day of February next:

And with respect to fat cattle, I do by this notice declare that it is expedient to prevent the removal of fat cattle to any market or fair, or to any place whatever within the borough of Leicester for the purpose of exhibition or sale, between the date of this notice and the 1st day of February next, other than and except on Wednesdays in the cattle market in Horsefair-street, and that the conditions of admission of fat cattle to the said market on Wednesdays shall be, 1st: That the animals then brought for exhibition or sale shall have been grazed or fed within the county or borough of Leicester, for the period of twenty-eight days immediately before the same shall have been so brought into the market, and that a certificate signed by the owner of such animals, or his agent, shall be delivered to the clerk of the market, or his deputy, before admission, stating that they have been so grazed or fed, and in what parish or parishes; and 2nd: That the cattle so brought to the said market shall, before being admitted therein, be marked in the manner in which cattle are ordinarily marked for slaughter, namely, by clipping the hair off the end of the tail:

And I do by this notice further declare, that it is expedient that no cows, heifers, bulls, bullocks, oxen, or calves, shall be brought from any other part of Great Britain, other than from some part of the county of Leicester into any market, street, or place within the borough of Leicester, other than and except to a slaughter house, and that every such animal so brought shall be slaughtered at such slaughter house within three days after reaching the same, unless such cattle shall have been removed from the Metropolitan Cattle Market, in which case the same must under the said Order in Council be slaughtered within forty-eight hours after removal therefrom:

And I hereby give further notice, that every person offending against this notice, or the said Order in Council, will for every offence incur a penalty of not exceeding £20.

Dated this 7th day of December, 1865.

T. W. Hodges, Mayor.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

WE, the undersigned, six of Her Majesty's<sup>s</sup> Justices of the Peace for the West Riding of the county of York, acting in Petty Sessions in and for the Skyrack Division, in the said riding, in pursuance and exercise of the power given to us by the Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the 23rd day of November last, do hereby declare that it is expedient, with a view to prevent the spreading of the cattle plague, to prevent the removal of cows, heifers, bulls, bullocks, oxen, calves, sheep, lambs, goats, and swine to any market or fair at Aberford or elsewhere, or to any other place whatsoever within the said Petty Sessional Division, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, from the day of the date hereof until the 1st day of March, 1866. And we order that after the publication of this notice it shall not be lawful for any person to bring or send any such animal of the description aforesaid into such market or fair, or to any place within the said Skyrack Petty Sessional Division, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, or to receive, exhibit, buy, or sell any such animal so brought or sent. And, in further pursuance and exercise of the powers given to us by the said Order in Council, we do declare it is expedient that animals, as hereinbefore defined, shall not be brought from any other part of Great Britain into any place within the said Skyrack Petty Sessional Division until the said 1st day of March. And we therefore further order, that, from and after the publication of this notice, it shall not be lawful for any person to bring or send any such animal, of the description aforesaid, from any place in Great Britain beyond the said Petty Sessional into any place within the said division until the said 1st day of March. Provided that nothing contained in this Order shall make it unlawful for any person to send or carry any such animals by railway through the said Petty Sessional Division; and provided also that nothing contained in this Order shall make it unlawful for any person to bring or send, with the licence of any two Justices acting in and for this Petty Sessional Division, any animal from any land or premises in his own occupation and beyond the said division, to any other land or premises in his own occupation and within such division.

County of Huntingdon.—Division of Ramsey.

WE, the undersigned Justices of the Peace, acting in and for the Petty Sessional Division of Ramsey, in the county of Huntingdon, under and by virtue of and in exercise of the powers given to us by an Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council, dated the 23rd day of November, 1865, do hereby declare, 1st: That it is expedient from this time until the 1st day of March, 1866, absolutely to prevent the removal of any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, to any market or fair, or to any place whatever within our jurisdiction, for the purpose of exhibition or sale.

2ndly: That it is expedient from this time until the 1st day of March, 1866, that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, be brought from any place in Great Britain, beyond our jurisdiction, into any place within our jurisdiction, that is to say, into any of the places following:—Bury, Ramsey, Great Raveley, Little Raveley, Upwood, Warboys, Wistow.

And we hereby give notice, that after the due publication hereof, it will not be lawful for any person to bring or send any such animal into any market or fair, or to any place within our jurisdiction, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, or to receive, exhibit, buy, or sell any such animal so brought or sent.

Provided that any person may exhibit or sell on his own land or premises any animal belonging to him, which has been on such land or premises for not less than fourteen days previous to such sale.

And we also give notice, that after the due publication hereof, it will not be lawful for any person to bring or send any such animal from any place in Great Britain, beyond our jurisdiction, into any place within our jurisdiction, that is to say, into any place hereinbefore enumerated.

Provided that any person having any animals upon any land or premises in his own occupation and beyond our jurisdiction, may, but with the license only of two Justices acting in and for the Petty Sessional Division of Ramsey, bring or send such animals to any other land or premises in his own occupation within our jurisdiction.

And every person committing any offence against the tenor hereof, is liable for any such offence to a penalty of twenty pounds.

Given under our hands this 6th day of December, 1865.

Borough of Denbigh, in the county of Denbigh. to wit.

By virtue and in pursuance of an Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated the 23rd day of November, 1865, made in pursuance of the several Acts of Parliament therein mentioned, I, Richard Lloyd Williams, Esquire, Mayor of the said borough of Denbigh, do hereby, acting under the provisions of the said Order, declare that until the 1st day of March next, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, or swine, shall (except as hereinafter excepted) be brought to any market or fair, or to any place whatever within the said borough of Denbigh, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, or any other purpose, except the owner thereof shall previous to removal make oath before one or more of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace, that the animals as hereinbefore defined, for which the license of removal is required, have been in his or her possession for at least twenty-one days, previous to his or her application, and that there have been no animals as hereinbefore defined suffering from the cattle plague on land in his or her occupation at any time. Having made such oath, the applicant shall receive a license in writing from such Justice or Justices of the Peace to remove the said animals to some place to be named in such license, which license shall have effect for a period of three days, inclusive of the day on which it is issued.

I also by this order, declare that from the date hereof until the 1st day of March next, it shall not be lawful for any person to bring any such animal (except in accordance with such conditions as aforesaid) from any place outside of the borough of Denbigh into any place within the same borough: Provided always, and I do hereby order and declare, that this order shall not prevent the sale at the public fairs or markets to be held on the 13th and 27th days of December instant, the 10th day of January next, and the 14th day of February next, at Denbigh, in the said borough of Denbigh, of sheep and pigs, which shall have been the bonâ fide property of persons living within the limits and boundary of the said borough of Denbigh, for twenty-one days previous to such respective fairs or market days so to be held as aforesaid, and shall have been within the said borough during such period.

Every person offending against the above-named order is liable to a penalty of not exceeding twenty pounds.

Borough of Great Yarmouth.

I, THE undersigned, Charles Cory Aldred, Mayor of the Borough of Great Yarmouth, in pursuance of the powers given to me by an Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council, of the 23rd of November instant, and to prevent the spreading of the cattle disorder, do order and direct; namely:

That it is expedient to prevent the removal of cows, heifers, bulls, bullocks, oxen, calves, sheep, lambs, goats, and swine, to any market or fair, or to any place whatever, within this borough, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, from the date hereof until the 1st day of March next, and I do order and direct, that no person do bring or send any such animal into any market or fair in this borough, or to any place in this borough, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, during the time aforesaid, nor receive, exhibit, buy, or sell any such animals so brought or sent, except in accordance with the conditions herein imposed.

That it is expedient, and I do order and direct that, during the time aforesaid, no such animal be brought within this borough from any part of Great Britain, unless and until the owner or person in charge of such animal shall prove, to the satisfaction of the Inspector of Cattle for this borough, that the animal so intended to be brought into this borough, has been in the custody of the person from whose possession it is being brought for the space of fourteen days immediately preceding the removal of it for the purpose of bringing it into this borough, and that such animal had not been brought from or through any place or district where the said disease was then existing; but if the Inspector shall suspect that any such animal is suffering from the said disorder, such animal shall not be brought into this borough.

That it is expedient during such time, and I do order and direct that no such animal shall be brought within this borough from the Metropolitan Cattle Market, or the Metropolitan Police District, or by railway, or by steam boat or other vessel from any part of Great Britain, except under the following conditions, namely:—

1. Five hours notice in writing shall be given to the said Inspector of the intention to bring any such animal into this borough, and such notice shall state the place from which the animal is to be removed, the time of its intended arrival, and the place in or near the borough at which the animal is intended to be removed from the railway, steamboat, or vessel, and the name of the steamboat or vessel in which it is being carried, and the place to which it is intended the animal shall be removed.

2. Upon its arrival, and before it is removed from the railway truck, steamboat, or vessel, the animal, if allowed by the Inspector to be brought into the borough, shall be branded or marked in such manner and in such part of it as the Inspector shall direct.

3. If the Inspector consent to its being brought into the borough, and it is intended to be removed to a place beyond the borough, it shall be removed immediately to that place, and driven by such route thereto as the Inspector shall direct.

4. Every such animal not immediately removed to a place beyond the borough, shall be immediately driven to a slaughterhouse, and shall be slaughtered within twenty-four hours after its arrival in the borough.

Every person offending against any of the above orders will be liable to a penalty of £20.

And I further give notice, that William Shipley, Veterinary Surgeon, is duly appointed Inspector of Cattle, in and for this borough.

And in order to prevent the spread of the cattle disorder, I have caused to be erected upon the North Denes in this borough, a shed for the removal thereto, and treatment therein, of animals in this borough suffering from, or suspected to be suffering from such disorder, with a proper conveyance for the removal of such animals thereto, in such manner, and at such times, and under such conditions as the Inspector shall in each case direct.

And I do also give notice, that during the time aforesaid, no such animals will be allowed to graze, or to be turned out, or to be at large upon the North or South Denes, or on any of the waste or open lands of the Town Council of this borough; and the Inspector, and all other officers of the Town Council, are ordered to distrain and remove all such animals therefrom, and to recover the expense thereof from the owners of them.

And I revoke the Order made by me, relative to the Cattle Plague of 23rd November, 1865.

Given under my hand this 5th day of December, 1865.

THE CATTLE PLAGUE.

County of Buckingham, Three Hundreds of Aylesbury.

PUBLIC NOTICE.

WE, the Justices of the Peace acting in and for the District of the Petty Sessional Division of the Three Hundreds of Aylesbury, in the county of Buckingham, heretofore named (being "The Local Authority" of such district within the meaning of an Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, bearing date the 23rd day of November, 1865, and made in pursuance of the provisions of the Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden for the 11th and 12th years of the reign of Her present Majesty, entitled "An Act to prevent, until the 1st September, 1850, and to the end of the then next Session of Parliament, the spreading of contagious and infectious disorders amongst sheep, cattle, and other animals," and which has since been from time to time continued by divers subsequent Acts; and lastly by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden for the 28th and 29th years of the reign of Her said Majesty, chapter 119), do hereby, in exercise of the authority vested in us in and by the said Order, declare that with a view to prevent the spreading of the disorder designated "The Cattle Plague," it is expedient that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine, which has been exhibited or sold within the Metropolitan Cattle Market, or within the Metropolitan Police District, shall be brought or sent to any place within our said jurisdiction, except such animals be sent or carried by railway through our said jurisdiction in manner provided by the said Order in Council.

And we do further declare that with the same view it is also expedient that no animal of the description before specified shall, except as aforesaid, be brought from any other part of Great Britain into any place within our said jurisdiction, except upon the conditions following, namely:—

1. That every person who may purchase or become possessed of any animal of the description aforesaid in any place beyond our jurisdiction shall, within the space of twelve hours previous to the removal of any such animal from such place beyond our said jurisdiction into any place within our said jurisdiction, obtain from the Inspector of the district within or from which any such animal may be intended to be brought, a certificate in writing according to the subjoined form marked A, stating that every such animal is free from the said disorder and has not been in contact with any animal suffering therefrom, and also stating that the animal so intended to be brought has been on the land or premises of the person from which the same may be so intended to be brought for a period of not less than fourteen days previous to any such sale or removal.

2. That every person who may bring or send any such animal as aforesaid into our said jurisdiction shall obtain from the person of whom such animal may have been purchased, or from whose land or premises the same may have been brought as aforesaid, a certificate in writing according to the subjoined form marked B, in confirmation of the statement of such Inspector, and stating also the day and hour of the removal of any such animal from such his land or premises.

3. That the person for the time being in charge of any such animal shall be the bearer of every such certificate, and shall whenever required so to do produce the same for inspection to the police authorities, or to any other person authorized by us to inspect the same; and the purchaser of every such animal, or the person in charge of the same, immediately on the arrival of such animal within our jurisdiction, and within six hours after the removal of the same from the premises of the former owner, shall deliver, or cause to be delivered, every such certificate at the Office of the Chief Constable, in Aylesbury.

4. That every such animal as aforesaid which may have been so purchased or brought for slaughter into our said jurisdiction shall be slaughtered within twenty-four hours after such removal.

And we do further declare that this Order shall be in force from the 9th day of December instant until the 1st day of March next.

Given under our hands this 2nd day of December, 1865.

(Signed)

J. T. Senior. John Edwd. Bartlett.
James Booth. Joshua Greaves.

NOTE.—After the publication of this notice, it will not be lawful for any person to bring or send any animal above described, except in accordance with the above conditions, from any place in Great Britain beyond our jurisdiction into any place within our jurisdiction. And every person offending against the said Order will forfeit a sum not exceeding twenty pounds.

Printed copies of the Forms above referred to will be distributed amongst local butchers and dealers, and may be obtained on application at the County Hall, Aylesbury.

The Stewartry of Kirkcudbright.

At a meeting of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the stewartry of Kirkcudbright, in Sessions assembled, and held within the Court-house at Castle Douglas, upon Monday, the 4th day of December, 1865, the Justices assembled at said meeting, in virtue of the powers contained in the Orders of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated 23rd November, 1865, declared that it is expedient that all animals described in the said Orders, viz., cows, heifers, bulls, bullocks, oxen, calves, sheep, lambs, goats, and swine, shall not be brought from any part of Great Britain into the said stewartry of Kirkcudbright, from the date hereof till the 1st day of March, 1866.

And notice is hereby given, that it shall not be lawful, after the publication of this notice, for any person to bring or send any such animals from any place in Great Britain into the stewartry of Kirkcudbright; and that any person offending herein, will, for every such offence, be liable to a penalty not exceeding £20. And, as provided in said Orders, it is hereby declared that nothing in the above notice shall make it unlawful for any person to send or carry any such animals by railway through said stewartry; but that the said notice applies to and excludes the importation of all such animals by railway or otherwise, into, and disloading of the same within said stewartry from any place beyond said stewartry.

And notice is further hereby given, that the said Justices declared it expedient, from the said 4th day of December curt., until the 1st day of March, 1866, to prevent the removal of animals of the following description, viz. :—cows, heifers, bulls, bullocks, oxen, calves, sheep, lambs, goats, and swine, with a view to prevent the spreading of the disorder generally designated the "Cattle Plague," to any market or fair, or to any place whatever within the jurisdiction of the said Justices, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, and that it shall not be lawful for any person to bring or send any such animal, or description thereof, into any such market or fair, or to any place within the jurisdiction of said Justices, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, or to receive, exhibit, buy, or sell any such animal so brought or sent.

Given under my hand by authority of said Sessions at Castle Douglas, the 4th day of December, 1865.

Lincolnshire, Holland, Kirton, and Shirbeck.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace acting in and for the Petty Sessional Division of the hundreds of Kirton and Shirbeck, in the parts of Holland, in the county of Lincoln, have, by virtue and in exercise of the powers vested in them in and by an Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, bearing date the 23rd day of November, 1865, ordered, and do by this notice declare, that it is expedient that, from and after this day until the 1st day of March next, any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, or swine shall not, except under the conditions hereinafter mentioned, be brought from any other part of Great Britain into any place within the aforesaid petty sessional division.

1st. That the above Order and notice shall not apply to fat animals consigned for immediate slaughter, and brought by railway and taken direct from the railway station to the premises where such animals are to be slaughtered: provided notice of the consignment and intended slaughter of such animals be given by the consignees to the superintendent or serjeant of police stationed nearest to the consignees residence, before the arrival of such animals at the station of their destination.

2nd. That all such fat animals brought into the said petty sessional division shall be accompanied by a certificate of good health from an inspector of the district from whence such animals come, or in default the person who either brings or sends the animals shall be considered as offending against this condition.

And that, by the said Order of Privy Council, it is ordered that, whenever such notice as above be published, it shall not be lawful for any person to bring or send any such animal, except in accordance with the aforesaid conditions, from any place in Great Britain beyond the said petty sessional division into any place within such petty sessional division. Provided always, that nothing contained in the said last-named Order shall make it unlawful for any person to send or carry any such animals by railway through such petty sessional division; and, provided also, that nothing contained in the same Order shall make it unlawful for any person to bring or send, with the license of any two Justices acting in and for the said petty sessional division to which the above notice applies, any such animals from any land or premises in his own occupation, and beyond such petty sessional division, to any other land or premises in his own occupation within such petty sessional division; and that every person offending against the said Order, shall, for every such offence, forfeit any sum not exceeding £20.

By order,

J. Porter, Clerk of the said Petty Sessional Division.

Division of Dunmow, in the county of Essex.

AT a Petty Sessions of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace acting in and for the said Division, held at Great Dunmow, in the said county of Essex, on Monday, the 4th day of December, 1865, an Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, of the 23rd day of November, 1865, was submitted to us, and in and by which Order the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council, by virtue of and in exercise of the powers given by the Act therein mentioned, did thereby order as follows:—

1. This Order shall extend to all parts of Great Britain.

2. The said Orders dated respectively the 24th of July, the 11th, 18th, and 26th of August, the 22nd of September, and the 31st of October, 1865, are revoked, with the exception of so much of the said Order of the 24th of July, 1865, as empowers the Clerk of Her Majesty's Privy Council to appoint Inspectors within the limits of the Metropolitan Police District, provided that such revocation shall not affect any appointment made, or any notice given, or any act done, or penalty recoverable, under any Order hereby revoked.

3. In this Order the word "animal" shall mean any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine; and the word "Inspector" shall include any Inspector appointed or to be appointed as aforesaid by the said Clerk of Her Majesty's Privy Council, or appointed under this Order, or under any of the said revoked Orders.

4. Whenever the Local Authority, as hereinafter defined, shall be satisfied of the existence of the said disorder in, or have reason to apprehend its approach to, the district over which his or their jurisdiction extends, it shall be lawful for such Local Authority, if he or they shall think fit, from time to time to appoint one or more Veterinary Surgeon or Surgeons, or other duly qualified person or persons, to be an Inspector or Inspectors, for the purpose of carrying into effect the rules and regulations made by this Order, within the district for which he or they shall have been appointed. And the same authority may, from time to time, revoke such appointment.

5. Subject to the powers herein reserved to the Clerk of Her Majesty's Privy Council, the Local Authority within the City of London, and the liberties thereof, shall be the Lord Mayor; in any municipal borough in England or Wales, the Mayor; in any Petty Sessional Division in England or Wales (exclusive, so far as relates to the jurisdiction of the Inspector, of so much of the said division as lies within the limits of a municipal borough for which an Inspector has been appointed), the Justices acting in and for such Petty Sessional Division. The Local Authority in any burgh or town in Scotland which is subject to the jurisdiction of a Provost or other Principal Magistrate, shall be the Provost or such Principal Magistrate; and, in any other place in Scotland not within the jurisdiction of such Provost or other Principal Magistrate, the Justices of the County in Sessions assembled.

6. Every Inspector shall from time to time report to the Local Authority by which he is appointed, the steps taken by him for carrying into effect the regulations prescribed by this Order; and the Local Authority shall certify, in such manner as may be directed by one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the number of days that such Inspector has actually been engaged in the performance of his duty, and the number of miles travelled by him while so engaged.

7. Every Inspector shall furnish the Lords of the Council with such information in regard to the said disorder, as their Lordships may, from time to time, require.

8. Every person having in his possession, or under his custody, any animal labouring under the said disorder, shall forthwith give notice thereof to the Inspector of the district within which such animal may be, or if no Inspector shall have been appointed for such district then to the Officers hereinafter named, according to the place where such animal may be; that is to say: within the Metropolitan Police District, to the said Clerk of the Privy Council; within the City of London and the liberties thereof, to the Lord Mayor; within any other borough, burgh, or town subject to the jurisdiction of a Mayor, Provost, or other Principal Magistrate, to such Mayor, Provost, or other Principal Magistrate; elsewhere in England, to the Clerk of the Justices acting in and for the Petty Sessional Division; and elsewhere in Scotland, to the Clerk of the Peace of the county.

9. Every Inspector shall have power, within the district for which he is appointed, to enter upon and inspect any premises or place in which any animal or animals which he suspects to be labouring under the said disorder may be found, and to examine and inspect, whenever and wherever he may deem it necessary, any animal which he suspects to be labouring under the said disorder within such district.

10. Every Inspector shall have power within his district to cause to be cleansed and disinfected, in any manner which he may think proper, any premises in which animals labouring under the said disorder have been, or may be, and to cause to be disinfected, and if necessary destroyed, any fodder, manure, or refuse matter, which he may deem likely to propagate the said disorder. And every owner or occupier of such premises shall obey any order given by such Inspector for that purpose.

11. Every person having in his possession, or under his custody, any animal labouring under the said disorder, shall keep such animal separate from all other animals, and no person shall send or bring to any fair or market, or expose for sale, or send or carry by any railway, or by any ship or vessel coastwise, or place upon, or drive along, any highway or the sides thereof, any such animal.

12. No person having in his possession or under his custody, any animal labouring under the said disorder, or which has been in the same shed or stable, or in the same herd or flock, or in contact with any animal labouring under the said disorder, shall remove such animal alive from his land or premises, without the licence of an Inspector, or if no Inspector has been appointed for the district within which such animal may be, without the licence of a Justice of the Peace acting in and for the jurisdiction within which such animal may be; provided that such licence shall be in writing, and shall only permit the removal of such animal to some place where it can be conveniently kept apart from all other animals until such Inspector or Justice is satisfied that there is no reasonable probability of such animal propagating the said disorder.

13. No person shall place, or keep, any animal labouring under the said disorder in any common or unenclosed land, or, if the animal be in a district for which an Inspector has been appointed, in any field or pasture, where, in the judgment of the Inspector, such animal may be likely to propagate the said disorder.

14. Every Inspector shall have power within his district to direct that any animal labouring under the said disorder, or which he suspects to be labouring under the said disorder, shall be kept separate from animals free from the said disorder. And every person having such animal in his possession, or under his custody, shall obey any direction given by such Inspector for that purpose. And where the person having such animal in his possession, or under his custody, shall disobey such direction given by such Inspector, then, and in such case, and such case only, shall such Inspector have power to seize and slaughter, or to cause to be seized and slaughtered, such animal.

15. All animals having died of the said disorder, or having been slaughtered on account thereof, shall be buried as soon as practicable, in any convenient place, with their skins, and with a sufficient quantity of quick-lime or other disinfectant, and shall be covered with at least five feet of earth, or shall, in districts for which an Inspector has been appointed, be otherwise disposed of, with the consent of the owner, in manner directed by the Inspector, and the Inspector shall have power to cause the carcase to be disinfected when necessary previous to the burial or other disposal thereof.

16. Whenever any local authority, as hereinbefore defined, declares, by notice published in any newspaper circulating within his or their jurisdiction, that it is expedient for a time to be specified in such notice to prevent the removal of animals as hereinbefore defined, or some specified description thereof, either absolutely, or except under such conditions as such Local Authority shall think fit to impose, with a view to prevent the spreading of the said disorder, to any market or fair, or to any place whatever within his or their jurisdiction for the purpose of exhibition or sale, then, in such case, and after the publication of such notice, it shall not be lawful for any person to bring or send any such animal, or description thereof, except in accordance with such conditions as aforesaid, into such market or fair, or to any place within such jurisdiction, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, or to receive, exhibit, buy, or sell any such animals so brought or sent.

17. Where the removal of animals, or any specified description thereof, to any market or fair or elsewhere for the purpose of exhibition or sale, has been or shall be prohibited, absolutely or conditionally, within the jurisdiction of any Local Authority in pursuance of any of the powers conferred by this or any of the said recited orders, and complaint is made by such Local Authority to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State that the Local Authority for some adjoining or neighbouring district neglects or refuses to publish a notice with a view to a similar prohibition within the jurisdiction of such last-mentioned authority, and that, in consequence of such neglect or refusal, there is reason to apprehend the spreading of the said disorder, then in such case it shall be lawful for such Secretary of State, and he is hereby empowered, to publish such notice in any newspaper circulating within the jurisdiction of such last-mentioned Local Authority, and such notice so published by the Secretary of State shall have the same effect as if it had been published by the Local Authority so neglecting or refusing as aforesaid; provided that nothing contained in this or the preceding clause of this Order shall be held to prohibit any person from exhibiting or selling on his own land or premises any animal belonging to him which has been on such land or premises for not less than fourteen days previous to such sale.

18. Whenever any Local Authority, as hereinbefore defined, declares, by notice published in any newspaper circulating within his or their jurisdiction, and also by notice published in some newspaper or newspapers circulating within the county or counties bordering upon the county within which the jurisdiction of such Local Authority is situate, that it is expedient, for a time to be specified in such notice, that animals, as hereinbefore defined, or some specified description thereof, shall not, either absolutely or except under such conditions as such Local Authority shall think fit to impose with a view to prevent the spreading of the said disorder, be brought from any other part of Great Britain into any place within his or their jurisdiction, it shall not be lawful for any person to bring or send any such animal or description thereof, except in accordance with such conditions as aforesaid, from any place in Great Britain beyond such jurisdiction into any place within such jurisdiction; and the copy of any such notice shall be sent forthwith by the Local Authority by whom it is made to the Clerk of Her Majesty's Privy Council, and shall be published by him in the London Gazette: Provided always, that nothing contained in this clause of this Order shall make it unlawful for any person to send or carry any such animals by railway through such jurisdiction; and provided also, that nothing contained in this clause of this Order shall make it unlawful for any person to bring or send, with the licence of any two Justices acting in and for the jurisdiction to which such notice applies, any such animals, from any land or premises in his own occupation, and beyond such jurisdiction, to any other land or premises in his own occupation within such jurisdiction.

19. Any such Local Authority, or any of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, may, from time to time, if he or they think fit, renew, revoke, or modify all or any part of any Notice published or to be published by them or him under the powers given under this or the said revoked Orders, either absolutely or under such conditions as to such Local Authority or to such Secretary of State may seem proper, by a further Notice to be published in the same manner as such Notice is required to be published.

20. During the continuance of the "Cattle Plague" within the said city of London, or the Metropolitan Police District, no person shall bring or send or cause to be brought or sent, any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, to the Metropolitan Cattle Market, except for the purpose of being there sold for immediate slaughtering; and every such animal so brought or sent shall, before being allowed to leave the said market, and although such animal may not have been sold, be marked in the manner in which cattle are ordinarily marked for slaughter in the said market, viz. by clipping the hair off the end of the tail. And the officers of the said market shall cause such mark to be duly made. And no person shall buy or sell, or cause to be bought or sold, any such animal in the said market, except for immediate slaughtering, and every person buying any such animal in any such market shall slaughter or cause the same to be slaughtered, in all cases, within seven days of such purchase, and, if such animal be removed beyond the limits of the Metropolitan Police District, within forty-eight hours after such removal.

21. This Order shall be in force until the 1st day of March next, and no longer, unless continued by some further Order.

22. Every person offending against this Order shall, in pursuance of the said Act, for every such offence forfeit any sum, not exceeding twenty pounds, which the Justices before whom he or she shall be convicted of such offence may think fit to impose.

Now we, the undersigned Justices of the Peace in Petty Sessions assembled as aforesaid, being the local authority mentioned and referred to in the recited Order, do, by this notice, declare that it is expedient, with a view to prevent the spreading of the said disorder, absolutely to prevent the removal of animals as therein defined to any market or fair, or to any place whatever within the said Division of Dunmow, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, from the day of the date hereof until the 1st day of March next.

And we the said Justices do also declare that it is expedient, with a view to prevent the spreading of the said disorder, that animals as therein defined shall not be brought from any other part of Great Britain into any place within the said Division from the day of the date hereof until the said 1st day of March next.

Given under our hands, this 4th day of December, 1865.

Dorset.—Borough of Dorchester.

WHEREAS by an Order under my hand, dated the 28th day of November last, and made by me as the "Local Authority" within the borough of Dorchester, in the county of Dorset, duly authorised and empowered in that behalf by an Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council, dated the 23rd day of the said month of November, I did order and direct, that for a period of three calendar months after the publication of the said Order, it should not be lawful for any person or persons to bring, or send, or cause to be brought or sent, any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, or other horned cattle, to any market or fair, or to any place whatever within the said borough, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, or to receive, exhibit, buy, or sell any such animal so brought or sent, except such as should have been in the possession of the person or persons claiming to be the owner or owners thereof for not less than one calendar month, and should have been first inspected and examined by the inspector duly appointed in that behalf, and certified by him as free from all trace or symptom of the plague or disorder designated the "Cattle Plague;" and I did also further order, that no person should buy or sell, or cause to be bought or sold, any such animal in the said market or fair, or other place within the said borough, except for slaughtering within ten days after such sale or purchase; and that every person buying such animal in any market or fair, or other place within the said borough should slaughter, or cause the same to be slaughtered in all cases within ten days after such purchase.

Now, therefore, in pursuance and exercise of the power to me, as the said local authority, within the said borough of Dorchester, reserved and given in, and by the 19th section of the said Order of Council, and for divers good causes and considerations, me hereunto moving, I hereby revoke and make void all and every part of my said Order of the 28th day of November last past, and, in lieu thereof, do hereby order and give notice, that for a period of three calendar months next after due publication hereof, it shall not be lawful for any person or persons to bring or send, or cause to be brought or sent, any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, or other horned cattle to any market or fair, or to any place whatever within the said borough, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, or to receive for the purpose of exhibition or sale any such animal or animals so brought or sent, or for any person to bring or send any such animal from any place in Great Britain beyond the said borough into any place whatever within the said borough; and that every person offending against the provisions of the said Order in Council or this Order, will be liable to forfeit for every such offence a sum not exceeding £20.

Given under my hand this 5th day of December, 1865.

Royal Burgh of Kirkcudbright.

I, SAMUEL CAVAN, Provost of the Royal Burgh of Kirkcudbright, and the Local Authority therein, in virtue of the powers contained in the Orders of Her Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council, dated 23rd November, 1865, hereby declare that it is expedient that none of the animals described in the said Orders, namely, cows, heifers, bulls, bullocks, oxen, calves, sheep, lambs, goat and swine, shall be brought from any part of Great Britain outside of the Stewartry of Kirkcudbright into the Royal Burgh of Kirkcudbright, from the date hereof till the 1st day of March, 1866.

And notice is hereby given, that it shall not be lawful, after the publication of this notice, for any person to bring or send any such animals from any place in Great Britain, outside of said Stewartry of Kirkcudbright, into the said Royal Burgh of Kirkcudbright, and that any person offending herein will for every such offence be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds.

Given under my hand at Kirkcudbright, on the 4th day of December, 1865.

Note.—As provided in said Orders it is hereby declared that nothing in the above notice shall make it unlawful for any person to send or carry any such animals by railway or ship from said Royal Burgh, but that the said notice applies to and prohibits the importation of all such animals by railway, ship or otherwise, into the said Royal Burgh.

WE, the undersigned, Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the county of Leicester, acting for the Melton Mowbray Petty Sessional Division of the said county, do, by authority of a certain Order of Her Majesty's Privy Council, dated the 23rd day of November, 1864, resolve and declare by this notice, that it is expedient to prevent the removal of any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat and swine, to any market or fair to be holden at Melton Mowbray, or to any place whatever within the said Division, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, from the day of the date hereof, until the 1st day of March, 1866.

And notice is hereby given, that it shall not be lawful after the publication hereof, for any person to bring or send any animal of the description above-mentioned into the said market or fairs, or to any other place within the said Division, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, or to remove, exhibit, buy, or sell, any such animal so brought or sent during such period.

And we the said Justices, by authority of the said Order, do further resolve and declare by this notice, that it is expedient, that animals of the description above mentioned shall not be brought from any part of Great Britain into any parish or place within the said Division for the period aforesaid.

Notice is therefore hereby further given, that after the publication hereof, and while this notice shall be in force, it shall not be lawful for any person to bring or send any animal of the said description from any place in Great Britain beyond the said Division, to any place within the said Division: Provided that nothing herein contained shall be held to prohibit any person from exhibiting or selling on his own land or premises, any animal belonging to him, which has been on such land or premises for not less than fourteen days previous to such sale, or from sending or carrying any animal by railway through the said Division, or from bringing or sending, with the license of two Justices acting for the said Division, any such animals from land or premises in his occupapation beyond the said Division, to land or premises in his occupation within the said Division.

Given under our hands at Melton Mowbray, this 5th day of December, 1865.

Division of Ruabon, Denbighshire.

In pursuance of the powers given to them as the local authority by virtue of an Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated the 23rd day of November last, Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace acting in and for the Petty Sessional Division of Ruabon, in the county of Denbigh, have this day, in Petty Sessions assembled at Ruabon, in the said Division, resolved and do by this notice declare that with a view to prevent the spreading of the disorder called the "Cattle Plague," it is expedient from this day until the 1st day of March next, absolutely to prevent the removal of any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine, to any market or fair, or to any place whatever, within the said Division, for the purpose of exhibition or sale.

And notice is hereby given that it will not be lawful after the publication of this notice for any person to bring or send any such animal into any market or fair or to any place within the said Division for the purpose of exhibition or sale, or to receive, exhibit, buy or sell any such animal so brought or sent.

And in further pursuance of the powers given to them as aforesaid, the said Justices, assembled as aforesaid, have this day also resolved and do by this notice also declare that it is expedient from this day until the 1st day of March next, that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine, shall be brought from any other part of Great Britain into any place within the said Petty Sessional Division of Ruabon.

And notice is hereby also given, that from and after the publication of this notice it will not be lawful for any person to bring or send any such animal from any other part of Great Britain into any place within the said Division of Ruabon.

Any person offending against the said Order of Council or against the above mentioned Orders made in pursuance thereof or this notice, will be liable for every such offence to a penalty not exceeding £20.

Mr. Thomas Kennedy, of Wrexham, Veterinary Surgeon, is the Inspector appointed for the purpose of carrying into effect the said Orders within the said Division.

Given at the Court House, in Ruabon, in the said Division and county, this 1st day of December, 1865.

By order of the said Justices.

County of Denbigh.—Division of Isaled.

WHEREAS by authority of an Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated the 23rd day of November, 1865, made in pursuance of several Acts of Parliament therein mentioned, we, Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the county of Denbigh, acting in and for the Petty Sessional Division of Isaled, in the said county, do now by this notice declare that it is expedient that until the 1st day of March next, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, or swine, shall be removed to any market or fair, or to any place whatever within our jurisdiction, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, except the owner thereof shall previous to removal, make oath before one or more of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace, that the animals as hereinbefore defined, for which the license of removal is required, have been in his or her possession for at least twenty-one days previous to his or her application, and that there have been no animals, as hereinbefore defined, suffering from the Cattle Plague on lands in his or her occupation at any time. Having made such oath the applicant shall receive license in writing from such Justice or Justices of the Peace to remove the said animals to some place to be named in such license, which license shall have effect for a period of three days, inclusive of the day on which it is issued. We also by this notice declare, that from the date of this Order until the 1st day of march next, it shall not be lawful for any person to bring any such animal, except in accordance with such conditions as aforesaid from any place in Great Britain beyond our jurisdiction, into any place within our jurisdiction.

Every person offending against the above named Order is liable to a penalty of not exceeding £20.

W. Millen, Secretary.

Edwd. Hamilton, Chairman.

WHEREAS Her Majesty Queen Victoria did by Her Letters Patent, bearing date the 29th day of June, in the sixteenth year of Her reign, give and grant (for the term therein mentioned) unto Duncan Mackenzie, therein described, of London, in the county of Middlesex, but now of No. 15, Union-court, Old Broad-street, in the city of London, the sole right to make, use, exercise, and vend in England, Wales, and the town of Berwick-upon-Tweed, "certain improvements in machinery and apparatus for reading in and transferring designs or patterns, and for cutting, punching, and numbering, or otherwise preparing perforated cards, papers, or other materials used, or suitable in the manufacture of figured textile fabrics by Jacquard's or other weaving looms or frames." Notice is hereby given that Duncan Mackenzie intends to apply forthwith to Her Majesty in Council for a prolongation for the further term of 14 years, or such other term not exceeding 14 years, as Her Majesty shall please, of the term of sole using, making, and vending the aforesaid invention within that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called England, the dominion of Wales, and the town of Berwick-upon-Tweed. And the said Duncan Mackenzie hereby further gives notice that he intends to apply on the 22nd day of January next to the Right Honourable the Lords comprising the Judicial Committee of Her Majesty's Honourable Privy Council, and if the Judicial Committee should not be then sitting then at the next sitting of the Judicial Committee for a time to be fixed for hearing the matters of the said Petition for such prolongation of the said term as hereinbefore mentioned; and all persons desirous of being heard in opposition to the prayer of the said Petition are hereby required to enter caveats at the Privy Council Office, on or before the said 22nd day of January next.

Cotterill and Sons, Attorneys or Agents for the said Duncan Mackenzie, No. 32, Throgmorton-street.

In the Matter of Letters Patent for England, granted to John Trotman, formerly of Dursley, Gloucestershire, but now of No. 42, Cornhill, in the city of London, for "improvements in anchors," bearing date at Westminster, the 20th day of April, in the 15th year of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria.

NOTICE is hereby given, that under and in pursuance of an Act made and passed in the 5th and 6th years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intitled "An Act to amend the Law touching Letters Patent for Inventions," and of an Act made and passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intitled "An Act for amending an Act passed in the 4th year of the reign of His late Majesty, intitled 'An Act for the better Administration of Justice in His Majesty's Privy Council, and to extend its Jurisdiction and Powers,'" the said John Trotman intends to Petition Her Majesty in Council, praying Her Majesty to grant to him a prolongation of the term of sole using and vending his said invention, for which the said Letters Patent were so granted as aforesaid. And notice is hereby further given, that an application will be made on the 13th day of January, 1866, to the Right Honourable the Lords of the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council to fix an early day for the hearing of the Matter of the said Petition: and all parties desirous of being heard in opposition to the prayer of such Petition, are, on or before the said 13th day of January, 1866, to enter a caveat at the Privy Council Office.
