Every person committing any offence against the tenor hereof is liable for any such offence to a penalty of twenty pounds.

By order of the Justices acting in and for the Division of Loddon and Clavering, in the county of Norfolk, assembled at a Petty Session held at Loddon, the 13th day of December, 1865.

James Copeman, Clerk to the said Justices.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Division of Longtown, in the County of Cumberland.

Longtown Petty Sessions,
7th December, 1865.

(Present: John Ewart, Esq., and P. J. Dixon, Esq.)

In pursuance of the Orders of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated the 23rd day of November, 1865, it is hereby declared that it is expedient that animals described in the said Orders, viz.:—cows, heifers, bulls, bullocks, oxen, calves, sheep, lambs, goats, and swine, shall not, except under the conditions hereinafter mentioned and hereby imposed, be brought from any other part of Great Britain into any place within the said division of Longtown, from the date of this notice until the 31st day of January next.

And notice is hereby given, that it shall not be lawful, after the publication of this notice, for any person to bring or send any animal of the before-mentioned description into any place within the said division, except under the certificate of a legally appointed inspector that such animals are healthy, and have not been in contact with any animal labouring under the said disorder, and then only for the purpose of being slaughtered, or removed within twenty-four hours to some place without the said division of Longtown; and that any person offending herein will, for such offence, be liable to a penalty of not exceeding £20.

Given under my hand at the Petty Sessions aforesaid.

(Signed) John Ewart, Chairman.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Petty Sessional Division of Newark, in the county of Nottingham.

MODIFICATION OF NOTICE.

WHEREAS six of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the county of Nottingham, acting in and for the Petty Sessional Division of Newark, in the same county, in Petty Sessions assembled, by virtue of the authority to them given by an Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated the 23rd day of November, 1865; made in pursuance of the several Acts of Parliament therein mentioned, did, on the 29th day of November, 1865, publish a certain notice, with a view to prevent the spreading of the disorder designated the Cattle Plague, whereby it was (amongst other things) declared that it was
