Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 12, 1866.

THE following Notices have been received by the Clerk of the Council from the Lords Authorities appointed under the Orders of the Lords of the Council, relating to the "cattle plague," and are published in the London Gazette in conformity with the requirements of the 18th section of their Lordships' Order of the 23rd November, 1865 :—

CATTLE PLAGUE.

The Petty Sessional Division of Barton-on-Humber, in the parts of Lindsey.

NOTICE is hereby given, that in pursuance and in exercise of the power given to us, the undersigned Justices of the Peace, acting in and for the Petty Sessional Division of Barton-on-Humber, in the said parts and county, and in pursuance of the several Acts of Parliament passed for the prevention of the spreading of contagious or infectious disorders among sheep, cattle, and other animals, and particularly by a certain Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated the 23rd day of November last, with a view to prevent the spreading of the contagious or infectious disorder which now prevails among the cattle of Great Britain, and which is generally designated the "cattle plague." We do hereby declare, that it is expedient that no pigs shall be brought from any other part of Great Britain into any place within the said Petty Sessional Division of Barton-on-Humber, comprising the several parishes following, that is to say, Barton-on-Humber Saint Peter, Barton-on-Humber Saint Mary, Barrow-on-Humber, Bonby, Elsham, Goxhill, Horkstow, Saxby, South Ferriby, Thornton, otherwise Thornton Curtis, Ulceby, Wootton, and Worlaby, between this day and Thursday, the 1st day of March, 1866.

Any person offending against the said Order in Council, after the due publication of this notice, will be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds, a moiety of which will be payable to any informer on conviction and recovery thereof, under the said Acts or Order.

Given under our hands at a Petty Sessions held at the Justice Room in Barton-on-Humber, in the said parts, this 26th day of December, 1865.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

I, JOHN BLACKIE, Jun., Lord Provost of the city of Glasgow, in virtue of the powers vested in me as local authority, under the Orders issued by Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, do hereby give notice that from and after the date hereof, and up to the 1st of March next, it is expedient that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine shall be permitted to enter the city of Glasgow from any other part of Great Britain, except for the purpose of being sent to the Glasgow Cattle Market.

Further, I, as local authority foresaid, do hereby give notice, that from and after the date hereof, and up to the 1st of March next, it is expedient that no such animal shall be allowed to enter the Glasgow Cattle Market, except for the purpose of slaughter, and subject to the following conditions, viz. :—

First. That every animal on entering the market shall be marked in such way as the officers of the market may from time to time direct.

Second. No animal shall leave the market unless to go or be taken to one or other of the slaughter-houses, provided by the Market Commissioners, to be there forthwith slaughtered.

Third. Every cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, shall be inspected by the Inspectors appointed for the purpose, after being slaughtered, and shall not be allowed to pass out of the slaughter-houses for consumption until such examination has taken place.

Arrangements have been made with the Market Commissioners for affording every possible facility for the slaughtering and inspection of animals.

Jno. Blackie, Jun., Lord Provost.
