

sional Division to any other Petty Sessional Division within the said jurisdiction, in the said hundreds, except as hereinafter provided.

Nor shall it be lawful for any person to remove any of the said animals along any turnpike road or other highway, without the license in writing of two Justices, except from one part of any farm to another part of the same farm, or except in the case of any cow taken to the bull, nor between the hours of six o'clock in the evening and six o'clock in the following morning.

And it is hereby declared, that the conditions on which any such animal may be removed to or from any place within the said hundreds, shall be as follows, viz.:

1. Any animal may be sold by the owner thereof that shall have been on his land or premises not less than fourteen days previous to the sale thereof, and that shall be certified by some Veterinary-Surgeon, or other competent person or persons, appointed for that purpose by the Justices in Petty Sessions assembled, to be free from the said disorder, and to be on premises free from all suspicion of the said disorder, except by license of a duly appointed Inspector.
2. Any fat cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf may be removed within the limits of each Petty Sessional Division, provided it be certified as aforesaid, and be taken direct to some place within the said Petty Sessional Division and sold for immediate slaughter, or be forthwith forwarded direct to some accustomed market or fair for the sale of fat cattle, or to some slaughter house beyond the jurisdiction of the said Justices, but subject to such regulations as may be in force with reference thereto.

Provided that every such certificate shall be granted not more than four days before the removal of such animal, and shall (together with the licence of the said Justices, whenever required) accompany the animal or animals so removed, and a duplicate thereof shall be delivered to the Superintendent or Superintendents of Police, or one of them, for the district in which the land or premises are situate, two days at least before the animal to which it relates shall be removed from the owner's premises.

Every person offending against this Order, or in whose possession or custody any such animal shall be found, by means of which this notice shall be contravened, will be liable, for each offence, to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds.

Dated this 5th day of January, 1866.

Birchall and Wilson, Deputy Clerks of the Peace.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Lancashire to wit.

At the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, held by adjournment at Salford, in and for the county palatine of Lancaster, the 8th day of January, 1866.

Whereas a contagious or infectious disorder, generally designated the "cattle plague," now prevails within the hundred of Salford, in the said county:—

Now, therefore, the Justices of the county of Lancaster, in Quarter Sessions assembled, being the local authority under an Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated the 16th December, 1865, do hereby, by virtue of the said Order of the 16th day of December, 1865, and of a previous Order in Council of the 23rd day of November, 1865, and of all other powers and authorities enabling them in this behalf, declare that it is expedient, with a view to prevent the spreading of the said disorder, that on and after Saturday, the 13th day of January instant, and until the 1st day of March next, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf shall be brought or sent from any part of Great Britain into any place within the jurisdiction of the said Justices for this purpose in the hundred of Salford, in the said county, except as provided by the said Orders in Council; and that it is expedient to prevent the removal of any such animal to any market or fair, or to any place whatsoever within the said jurisdiction in the said hundred, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, and from place to place therein, except as provided by the said Orders in Council, and under certain conditions.

And the said Justices further declare and order as follows:—That all notices now in force in and for any Petty Sessional Division within the said jurisdiction in the said hundred, under the powers given by any Order in Council, be and the same are hereby revoked, such revocation to take effect on and after the 13th day of January instant: save and except so far as relates to the appointment of any Inspector or Inspectors made under any former Order or Orders.

And the said Justices do hereby further declare that it shall not be lawful, after Saturday, the 13th day of January instant, and until the 1st day of March next, for any person to bring or send any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf from any part of Great Britain, beyond the said jurisdiction, into any place within the said jurisdiction, except only as provided by the said Orders in Council.

Nor shall it be lawful for any person to bring or send any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf to any market or fair, or to any place whatever within the said jurisdiction, in the said hundred of Salford, in the said county, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, except under the conditions hereinafter specified.

Nor shall it be lawful for any person to remove, or cause to be removed, any skins, hides, horns, hoofs, or offal to or from any place within the said jurisdiction, except the skins and hides of healthy and unsuspected animals sent direct to a tanner's; notice to be given, by post or otherwise, twenty-four hours at least before any such removal, to the Superintendent of the Police District in which the said premises shall be situate.

Nor shall it be lawful for any person to remove or cause to be removed, any such animal or animals from any Petty Sessional Division to any other Petty Sessional Division within the said jurisdiction in the said hundred, except as hereinafter provided.

Nor shall it be lawful for any person to remove, or cause to be removed, any of the said animals along any turnpike road or other highway for general traffic, without the license in writing of a Justice of the Peace for the county of Lancaster, except from one part of any farm to another part of the same farm, or except in the case of any cow taken to the bull, nor between the hours of six o'clock in the evening and six o'clock in the following morning.

And it is hereby declared, that the conditions on which any such animal may be removed to or
