

from any place within the said hundred, shall be as follows, viz. :—

1. Any person may sell on his own land or premises any animal belonging to him, which has been on such land or premises for not less than fourteen days previous to such sale, and which shall be certified by some Veterinary Surgeon, or other competent person appointed for that purpose by the Justices in Petty Sessions assembled, to be free from the disorder called the cattle plague, and to be on premises free from all suspicion of the said disorder. The license of a duly appointed Cattle Plague Inspector will also authorise such sale.
 2. Any fat cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf may be removed within the limits of each Petty Sessional Division, provided it be certified as aforesaid, and be taken direct to some place within the said Petty Sessional Division and sold for immediate slaughter, or be forthwith forwarded direct to some accustomed market or fair for the sale of fat cattle, or to some slaughter-house beyond the jurisdiction of the said Justices, but subject to such regulations as may be in force with reference thereto. Provided that every certificate shall state the place to which such animal is to be removed, and shall (together with the license of the said Justices, whenever required) accompany the animal or animals so removed; and provided that such animal continue free from disease up to the time of removal.
- A duplicate of such certificate shall in every case be delivered or sent by post forthwith to the Superintendent of Police for the division in which the land or premises are situate, and no certificate shall be in force for any longer period than four days from the date thereof.

Every person offending against these orders and notices, or in whose possession or custody any animal shall be found in contravention thereof, will be liable for each offence to a penalty not exceeding £20.

Birchall and Wilson, Deputy Clerks of the Peace.

Dated this 8th day of January, 1866.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

North Riding of Yorkshire, to wit. — Epiphany Adjourned Sessions, 1866.

ORDERS made at the Adjourned General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, holden at Northallerton, in and for the said Riding, on Thursday, the 4th day of January, in the 29th year of the reign of our Sovereign Lady Victoria, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, before the Right Honourable Alan Earl Cathcart, Chairman; the Right Honourable William Henry Lord Bolton; the Right Honourable Charles John Lord Teignmouth; the Honourable Charles John Shore; the Honourable William Ernest Duncombe, M.P.; Sir George Orby Wombwell, Baronet; Mark Milbank, Joshua Samuel Crompton, William Rutson, and James Pulleine, Esqs.; Edward Cust, Clerk; Richard Machell Jaques, John Bartholomew Rudd, and Roper Stote Donnison Rowe Roper, Esqs., James Hill, William Fitzwilliam Wharton, and Thomas Warren Mercer, Clerks; Charles Christopher Oxley, John Richard Westgarth Hildyard, James Stovin Pennyman, John Wind Coates, Henry Rutson, Henry Hood, John Hodgson, Robert Akenhead, and Isaac Hartas, Esqs., Justices of the Peace for the said Riding then and there assembled.

This Court having considered the resolutions of the Court held on the 2nd instant, and the several Orders of Her Majesty's Privy Council, dated the 23rd day of November last and the 16th day of December last, and also the recommendations now made by the Police Committee, with the view to prevent the spreading of the Cattle Plague.

It was declared and resolved, that all notices given and other acts done by the Justices acting in and for any Petty Sessional Division within the said Riding, under and by virtue of the said Order of the 23rd day of November last, or any of the Orders thereby revoked, be, and the same are hereby revoked and rescinded, except so far as the appointment of any inspector or inspectors under any of the said Orders; and also, except so far as may affect any proceedings already commenced, or to be hereafter commenced, for or by reason of any offence against the said Orders, committed previous to this day.

And it was also declared and resolved, that it would be expedient, until the 1st day of March next, absolutely to prevent the removal of any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine to any market or fair, or to any place whatever within the North Riding, for the purpose of exhibition or sale.

And it was further declared and resolved, that it would be expedient, until the 1st day of March next, to prohibit any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine from being brought from any other part of Great Britain into any place within the North Riding, subject nevertheless to the proviso contained in the 18th clause of the Order of Her Majesty's Privy Council of the 23rd day of November last.

And it was further declared and resolved, That no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf shall be removed from any part of the said Riding to any other part of the said Riding, or from any place or places within the said Riding to any other place or places within the said Riding, or from place to place generally within the said Riding, subject nevertheless to the proviso contained in the 4th clause of the Order of Her Majesty's Privy Council of the 16th day of December last, and also subject to the following proviso, that is to say, provided always that two Justices, in Petty Sessions assembled, may grant (subject to being revoked at any time at the pleasure of any two Justices) a licence in writing to any person occupying lands in one part of the said Riding, to remove any such animal as aforesaid, between sunrise and sunset, from such lands to any other lands in his own occupation within one mile, for such purposes as shall be proved to their satisfaction to be absolutely necessary, or to convey any cow or heifer to a bull within that distance; but such licence shall specify the number and description of animals to be removed, and the places from which and to which the same shall be removed, and the time during which such licence shall remain in force; but no such licence shall be issued unless the animal to be moved shall have been at least forty days in the possession of the applicant, nor shall any such animal be removed from any premises where the said disorder exists, or has existed within the period of forty days, upon any ground or pretext whatever.

Ordered, That the Clerk of the Peace be instructed to give the utmost publicity throughout
