

authority is situate, that it is expedient, for a time to be specified in such notice, that animals, as thereinbefore defined, or some specified description thereof, should not either absolutely or except under such conditions as such local authority should think fit to impose with a view to prevent the spreading of the said disorder, be brought from any other part of Great Britain into any place within their jurisdiction, it should not be lawful for any person to bring or send any such animal or description thereof (except in accordance with such conditions as aforesaid), from any place in Great Britain beyond such jurisdiction into any place within such jurisdiction; and that every person offending against the Order now in recital should, in pursuance of the said Act, for every offence forfeit any sum, not exceeding twenty pounds, which the Justices before whom he or she should be convicted might think fit to impose: And whereas by the said Order of the 16th day of December, 1865, it was further ordered that whenever any local authority should, by notice published in any newspaper circulating within its jurisdiction, declare it to be expedient, for a time to be specified in such notice, that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, should (except under such conditions as such local authority should think fit to impose with a view to prevent the spreading of the said disorder), be removed from any particular part of the jurisdiction of such local authority to any part of such jurisdiction, or from any place or places within such jurisdiction (to be specified in such notice), to any other such place or places also to be so specified, or from place to place generally within such jurisdiction, or within any specified part thereof,—then it should not be lawful for any person to remove any such animal in contravention of such notice; and that every person offending against the Order [now in recital should, in pursuance of the said Act, for every such offence, forfeit any sum not exceeding twenty pounds which the Justices before whom he or she should be convicted might think fit to impose: And whereas, it is by the said lastly mentioned Order ordered that the same shall be in force from the 3rd day of January, 1866, until the 1st day of March then and now next and no longer unless continued by some further Order: And whereas the said county of Devon hath a separate Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace, and the Justices of the Peace for the said county in Quarter Sessions assembled, are constituted the local authority as aforesaid, in the said county of Devon: And whereas the said lastly mentioned Justices (being such local authority,) are satisfied of the existence of the said disorder in the district over which their jurisdiction extends.

Now therefore, the said Justices here in Quarter Sessions assembled as aforesaid, and sitting in open court, on this 5th day of January, 1866, have ordered that it be declared by this notice published by newspapers circulating within their jurisdiction and also by notice published in newspapers circulating within the counties bordering upon the said county of Devon: and they do accordingly declare, that it is expedient from and after the 8th day of this month of January until the 1st day of February next, that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine, be brought from any other part of Great Britain, into any part of the county of Devon, subject to the jurisdiction of this Court. And they accordingly give notice, that from the said 8th day of this month of January to the said 1st day of February next, it will not be lawful to bring or send any such animal as aforesaid, from any place in Great Britain into any place within the jurisdiction of this Court. And the said Justices so sitting as aforesaid, do by this notice published in a newspaper circulated within their jurisdiction, also declare that it is expedient, that from and after the said 8th day of this month of January until the 1st day of February next, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, shall be removed from the parishes of Ideford, Bishopsseignton, Egg Buckland, Buckland Monachorum, or Broadwoodwidge respectively, into any other part of the county of Devon within the jurisdiction of this Court: And they accordingly give notice, that from and after the said 8th day of this month of January to the said 1st day of February next, it will not be lawful to remove any of the animals lastly hereinbefore mentioned, in contravention of this notice: And the said Justices do hereby further give notice, that save and except so far only as the appointments made, notices given, and other acts, done by the Justices acting in and for the several Petty Sessional Divisions of the said county of Devon may be altered, varied, or revoked by this or by any subsequent Declaration or Order of this Court, the said appointments, notices and acts respectively, do and shall remain and be in force until the time or times at which by such Orders respectively the same are declared to cease: And the said Justices so sitting as aforesaid do hereby further declare, that from and after the said 8th day of this month of January to the said 1st day of February next, it is expedient that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, be moved from any part of the said county of Devon within the jurisdiction of this court, to any other part of the said county within such jurisdiction except between the hours of seven in the morning and five in the evening: And they hereby accordingly give notice, that from and after the said 8th day of January to the said 1st day of February, it will not be lawful to remove any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, except between the said hours of seven in the morning and five in the evening: Provided always, that this last prohibition shall not prevent the removal of any such animal as last aforesaid (unless such removal shall be otherwise prohibited) except along highways, and over and along unenclosed lands.

And the said Justices hereby further give notice, that every person offending against the terms of this declaration and notice, will for every offence be liable to a penalty of £20.

By the Court,

H. Ford, Clerk of the Peace.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Devon. Epiphany Quarter Sessions, 1866.

At the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of our Sovereign Lady the Queen, holden at the castle of Exeter, in and for the county of Devon, on Tuesday in the first week next after the 28th day of December, in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of our Sovereign Lady Victoria, by the grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland Queen, Defender of the Faith, before the Right Honourable William Reginald Earl of Devon, Sir Stafford Henry Northcote, Baronet, and others, their fellows, Justices of our said Sovereign Lady the Queen, assigned to keep the Peace of our said Lady the Queen within the county aforesaid; and also to hear and determine divers felonies, trespasses, and other misdemeanors within the said county done and committed; and from thence continued by several adjournments until this 5th day of January, 1866, before the Justices aforesaid, and
