Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 16, 1866.

THE following Notices have been received by the Clerk of the Council from the Lords Authorities appointed under the Orders of the Lords of the Council, relating to the "cattle plague," and are published in the London Gazette in conformity with the requirements of the 18th section of their Lordships' Order of the 23rd November, 1865 :—

CATTLE PLAGUE.

County of Stirling.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the county of Stirling, in Sessions assembled, at Stirling, upon the 10th day of January, 1866, in exercise and by virtue of the powers conferred upon them, as the local authority for the county of Stirling, by the Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated the 23rd November, 1865, resolved and do hereby declare that it is expedient for the period from the publication of this notice, to the 1st day of March next, that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, or goat be brought from any other part of Great Britain, into any place within their jurisdiction as local authority aforesaid, being the county of Stirling, without the limits of the burghs of Stirling and Falkirk, in terms and within the meaning of the 18th Section of the said Order in Council, and subject to the provisions therein contained.

And notice is hereby farther given, that every person offending against the said Order, and the foregoing resolution and notice, shall for every such offence forfeit any sum not exceeding twenty pounds.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Glamorganshire.

At the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of our Sovereign Lady the Queen, held by adjournment at the County Lunatic Asylum in and for the said county, on Thursday, the 11th day of January, in the year of our Lord 1866, before Robert Oliver Jones, Richard Bassett, Esquires, and others their associates, Her Majesty's Justices assigned to keep the Peace in the said county, and also to hear and determine divers felonies, trespasses, and other offences done and committed in the said county.

This Court, having taken into consideration an Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, bearing date the 23rd day of November, 1865, for the prevention of the disease called the "Cattle Plague," doth hereby order, that, with a view to prevent the extension of the disease called the "Cattle Plague," the removal of any bull, cow, ox, bullock, heifer, calf, sheep, lamb, or swine, from any part of Great Britain to any market or fair, or to any other place whatsoever within the several Petty Sessional Divisions of this county, for exhibition or sale, from this day until the 1st day of March, 1866, be absolutely prohibited; Provided that nothing in this Order shall be held to prohibit any person from exhibiting or selling, on the farm and premises held by him, any animal which shall have been on such farm or premises not less than twenty-one days previous to such sale.

And it is hereby further ordered, that the bringing of any bull, cow, bullock, heifer, calf, sheep, lamb, or swine, from any other part of Great Britain into either or any of the Petty Sessional Districts in the county of Glamorgan, be absolutely prohibited; from the date hereof until the 1st day of March, 1866, except such animals as shall be fit and intended for slaughter, and which shall have been examined and certified to be healthy by some one of the Inspectors appointed by this Court; and provided that such animals so certified shall be slaughtered within forty-eight hours of the giving of such certificate, at some place to be named in such certificate; provided that it shall be lawful for any person, with the consent, in writing, of any two Justices of the Peace of the said county, to remove any such animals from any premises in his own occupation, beyond the boundaries of this county, to any other premises in his own occupation, within this county.

And it is further ordered, that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, shall be removed from any place within any one Petty Sessional Division of this county to any place in any other Petty Sessional Division of such county: Provided that it shall be lawful to remove any such animal as shall be fat, or fit for slaughter, to the place of intended slaughter, after having obtained a certificate from one of the County Inspectors that such animal is healthy, and provided that such animal be slaughtered within forty-eight hours after such removal, at some place to be named in such certi-
