

Council, dated the 23rd day of November, 1865, or by any other Order of Her Majesty's Privy Council therein mentioned, and thereby consolidated, be revoked, and the same are hereby revoked from and after the 30th day of January, 1866, with the exception of any Order, or part of any Order, made by any such previous local authority as aforesaid, whereby any inspector or inspectors may have been appointed for the purpose of carrying into effect the rules and regulations made by the said Orders of Council, or any of them, all which appointments of inspectors, so far as they are now in force, are hereby confirmed.

II. It is hereby declared that it is expedient, and this Court doth order, that from and after the 30th day of January instant, until the 1st day of March, 1866, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, shall be brought from any part of Great Britain without the jurisdiction of the Justices of the said county of Sussex, in Quarter Sessions assembled, into any place within the Eastern Division of the said county, or so much of such division as is within such jurisdiction, provided that in case any farm shall be partly without the jurisdiction of the said Justices in Quarter Sessions assembled, and partly within the Eastern Division of the said county, or so much of such division as is within such jurisdiction, any such animal as aforesaid may be brought from the part of such farm without such jurisdiction, into the part of the same farm within the said Eastern Division, or so much of such division as is within such jurisdiction, on condition that at the time such animal is brought in as aforesaid, it has been in the possession of the occupier of the said farm one month at least, and is in a healthy condition, but lands in the occupation of the same person entirely separated from one another shall for this purpose be deemed separate farms, although such lands may be held as the same occupation and at one rent. Provided that nothing contained in this clause or order shall make it unlawful for any person to send or carry any such animals by railway through such jurisdiction.

III. That the Inspectors for the several Petty Sessional Divisions within the Eastern Division of the said county, appointed under the Orders in Council relating to the cattle plague, or some or one of such orders, be, and such Inspectors are, hereby re-appointed until the 1st day of March next.

IV. That the authorities of corporate towns and boroughs within the county be invited to co-operate with the Justices of the county.

V. That this Order be published in the Sussex Express and Sussex Advertiser, and in papers circulating in Hampshire, Kent, and Surrey.

VI. That this Order be sent to the Clerk of Her Majesty's Privy Council, to be published by him in the London Gazette.

VII. And notice is hereby given, that every person offending against this Order is liable for every such offence to a penalty not exceeding £20.

By the Court,

Langridge, Clerk of the Peace for the county of Sussex.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Wilts to wit.

BE it remembered, that at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of our Lady the Queen, holden at Trowbridge, in and for the said county of Wilts, on Monday, the 22nd day of January, in the 29th year of the reign of our Sovereign Lady Victoria, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, by adjournments from time to time, made from Tuesday, the 2nd day of the same month at Devizes aforesaid, before Sir John Wither Awdry, Knight, Chairman, Henry Alworth Merewether, Esq., the Most Honourable the Marquis of Ailesbury, the Most Honourable the Marquis of Bath, the Most Honourable the Marquis of Lansdowne; the Right Honourable the Earl of Suffolk; the Honourable Jacob Viscount Folkestone, and others, their Fellows, Justices of our said Lady the Queen, assigned to keep the Peace of the said Queen in the county aforesaid; and also to hear and determine divers felonies, trespasses, and other misdemeanors, done and committed in the said county. It is ordered and declared as follows, that is to say:—

Whereas, by virtue of two several Orders of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated respectively the 23rd day of November and the 16th day of December, 1865, made under the authority of the several Acts of Parliament in the said Order recited, with a view to check the spreading of a contagious or infectious disorder now prevailing among cattle, within that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, which disorder is generally designated as the "Cattle Plague." The said Justices of the Peace for the said county assembled at a General Quarter Sessions of the Peace holden at Chippenham, in and for the said county, on the 8th day of this present month of January, by adjournment from the said 2nd day of the same month, did order and declare it to be expedient

That the removal of any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, from any parish or place in the said county of Wilts, to any other parish or place in the said county; and the introduction of any such animal into any parish or place within the said county; and the moving of any such animal upon or along any highway in the said county, for a distance greater than one hundred yards, should be prohibited for one month, from the 4th day of the said month of January, and that then, if required, the prohibition should be extended to the 1st day of March next.

That no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, should be removed, brought or sent to any market or fair within the said county for the purpose of exhibition or sale, for one month from the said 4th day of January.

That in case of the appearance of the Cattle Plague, in or upon any farm, in the said county (so long as the preceding Orders of the said Justices should continue in force) no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, should be removed from such farm, until it should be pronounced by the Inspector that it would be safe that such animal should be so removed.

And whereas the said Justices have resolved to alter or vary the said recited Orders and declarations, and to make such further Orders, declarations, and appointments in the premises as are hereinafter expressed and contained.

Now, therefore, by virtue and in pursuance of the said Orders in Council, the said Justices in Quarter Sessions assembled as first aforesaid do hereby order:

1. That all appointments made, notices given, and other acts done by any local authority within the jurisdiction of this Court, under and by virtue of the said Order of the 23rd of November, 1865, or the Orders thereby revoked be and the same are hereby revoked.
