

2. That the Chief Constable of the county be, and he is hereby appointed Chief Inspector, for the purpose of carrying into effect, within the jurisdiction of this Court, the rules and regulations made by the said Orders in Council, of the 23rd of November, and the 16th December last; and the notices, orders, and declarations given and made, and hereafter to be given and made by this Court, under and by virtue of such Orders in Council.

3. That the following persons be, and they are hereby appointed Inspectors for the county, to act in the several districts therein, as hereunder scheduled, for the purpose of carrying out the said rules, regulations, notices, and declarations.

And that they be authorized to act in the absence or occupation of an adjacent Inspector, on the recommendation of the Chief Inspector or his deputy. And that it shall be the duty of such Inspectors to make such reports and returns to the said Chief Inspector as he may from time to time require, and generally to conform to any instructions which they may receive from him.

And the said Justices assembled as aforesaid, do by this notice, further order and declare (anything in the hereinbefore recited order and declaration of the said Justices of the 8th day of January instant, contained to the contrary notwithstanding:)

4. That it shall be lawful, until the 4th day of February next, for any person having any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf (bonâ fide his or her property), placed out to straw or grass previously to the said 8th day of January, within the jurisdiction of this Court, at a distance from the farm to which it belongs, to remove such animal back to such farm between the hours of seven in the forenoon and five in the afternoon: Provided that an authority in writing for such removal be first obtained from two Justices of the Peace acting in and for the Petty Sessional Division wherein such farm is situate; and that no such authority be given without the production of a certificate from the Inspector of the district wherein the parish or place from whence it is proposed to remove such animal is situate, stating that the Cattle Plague does not exist, nor for the space of six months previously has existed, in the Petty Sessional Division wherein such parish or place is situate.

5. That it shall also be lawful for any person, being the occupier of a farm situate partly in one parish or place, within the jurisdiction of this Court, and partly in one or more other such parish or place, or parishes or places, to remove any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf (bonâ fide his or her property), from any part of such farm to any other part thereof, between the hours of seven in the forenoon and five in the afternoon; provided that no such animal shall, during such removal, traverse any highway, or the sides thereof, for a greater distance than four hundred and forty yards.

6. That it shall also be lawful for any person to remove any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, (bonâ fide his or her property), from any land or premises in his or her own occupation, to any other land or premises in the same parish or place, also in his or her own occupation, along any highway within such parish or place. Provided that an authority in writing for such removal be first obtained from two Justices of the Peace acting in and for the Petty Sessional Division wherein such parish or place is situate. And that every such authority shall state the period (not exceeding twenty-one days), for which it is granted, and shall only be so granted on production of a certificate from the Inspector of the district wherein such parish or place is situate, stating that the Cattle Plague does not exist, nor for the space of six months previously has existed in such parish or place.

7. That every local authority, other than this Court, now having jurisdiction within the limits of this county, be invited to co-operate with this Court in carrying into effect the rules and regulations made by or under the Orders in Council hereinbefore recited.

8. That this Court urges upon all Inspectors of districts within the county, the immediate procurement of vaccine lymph, and earnestly recommends all owners of cattle to have the same vaccinated as speedily as possible.

9. That all existing Orders of the Privy Council and all orders of this Court in relation to the Cattle Plague be printed, and a copy sent to each Magistrate in the county.

By the Court,

Wm. C. Merriman, Clerk of the Peace.
