

CATTLE PLAGUE,*Borough of Banbury.SUBSTITUTED NOTICE.

I, JOHN HARLOCK, Mayor of the borough of Banbury, in pursuance of the Orders of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated the 23rd day of November, 1865, the 16th day of December, 1865, and the 20th day of January, 1866, or of some or one of such Orders, do hereby declare that it is expedient, and I do hereby order that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf shall after the publication of this notice be brought from any part of Great Britain into the borough of Banbury, until after the 1st day of March next. And I do hereby declare this notice to be in lieu of the one issued by me on the 1st instant.

And I also give notice that any person offending herein will, for every offence, be liable to forfeit twenty pounds.

John Harlock, Mayor.

6th February, 1866.

CATTLE PLAGUE.Borough of Wallingford.

I, JOHN HILLIARD, Mayor of the borough of Wallingford, in exercise of the powers vested in me as the local authority in the said borough, by Orders made by the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated respectively the 23rd day of November, 1865, and the 16th day of December, 1865, and the 20th day of January, 1866, or some or one of such Orders, do declare, that with a view to prevent the spreading of the disorder generally designated as the "Cattle Plague," it is expedient, and I therefore do order, that from the 8th day of February instant, until the 1st day of March next—

1. That no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine shall be moved to any market or fair, or to any parish or place whatsoever within my jurisdiction, for the purpose of exhibition or sale.
2. That for the same period no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf shall be brought from any part of Great Britain beyond my jurisdiction to any place within my jurisdiction.
3. That for the same period no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf shall be removed from any place in the borough of Wallingford to any other place therein.
4. That for the same period no raw or untanned hides and skins, nor any horns or hoofs of any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf (except such hides, skins, horns, or hoofs as are directly imported into the United Kingdom from India, Australia, South Africa, or America), nor any offal of any such animal as aforesaid, nor any dung, hay, straw, fodder, or litter, likely to propagate infection, shall be brought from any part of Great Britain beyond my jurisdiction into any place within my jurisdiction.

And any person offending in any of the cases aforesaid, will for every offence forfeit such sum not exceeding £20, as the Justices before whom he or she shall be convicted may think fit to impose.

John Hilliard.

Wallingford, 8th February, 1866.

CATTLE PLAGUE.Borough of New Windsor, county of Berks.

WHEREAS, a contagious or infectious disorder, generally designated the "Cattle Plague," now prevails amongst cattle within that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain.

And whereas I, the undersigned, Mayor of the said borough of New Windsor, am of opinion that it is expedient, with a view to check the spreading of the said disorder known as the "Cattle Plague," to prevent the removal of animals as hereinafter specified.

Now I do, in pursuance and by virtue of the powers and authorities vested in me by certain Orders of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated respectively the 23rd day of November last, and 16th day of December last, and 30th day of January last, and of all other powers and authorities, enabling me in this behalf, by this notice declare it to be expedient:—

1. That from the date of this notice until the 1st day of March now next ensuing, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine shall be moved to any market or fair, or to any place whatsoever within my jurisdiction, for the purpose of exhibition or sale.

2. That for the same period no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine shall be brought from any part of Great Britain beyond my jurisdiction to any place within the said borough of New Windsor, except

Fat stock, previously certified by the duly appointed Inspector of Cattle for the said borough of New Windsor to be free from disease, and removed for the purpose of immediate slaughtering, and which shall be slaughtered within forty-eight hours after the same shall have been purchased, and so certified to be free from disease.

3. And, further, that it is expedient that for the same period no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf shall be removed from place to place within the said borough of New Windsor, except fat stock, removed for the purpose of immediate slaughtering under the conditions aforesaid. And also except that every person shall be at liberty to move any cow or heifer requiring to be sent to a bull for the sole purpose of being served (either with or without another cow or heifer as a companion), or to move any bull for the sole purpose of serving any cow or heifer, such person having first obtained a certificate signed by the Inspector of Cattle for the said borough, that there is no case of cattle plague on the farm or premises of the owner of the animal to be moved, nor on the farm or premises to which it is proposed to be taken, or within two miles distance of such farms respectively, or of the declared route of such animal, and that no such case has existed during the preceding six weeks; and having also obtained the licence of a Justice of the Peace for the said borough, the said licence and certificate to be in force for three days, and at the expiration thereof to be delivered to the Superintendent of Police for the said borough, provided always that nothing herein contained shall make it unlawful for any person to remove his own cattle from one part of his own occupation, where the cattle plague does not exist or has not existed for six weeks previously, to another part of the same occupation, unless such cattle, in the course of such removal, pass more than 100 yards upon a highway or upon a road through a different occupation.

4. That, for the same period, no raw or untanned hides and skins, nor any horns or hoofs of any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf (except
